The Representative Session assembled on Tuesday, July 21, and concluded its business on Saturday, July 25. The Pastoral Session assembled on Tuesday, July 28, and completed its business on Wednesday, August 5. At the end of each Session the Minutes of the Session were read. The several Minutes of both Sessions were adopted by the Legal Conference.

In the following pages, the business which belongs to the Representative Session is placed first; that belonging to the Pastoral Session, second; and then follows that which stands in relation to both.

The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Synods their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Laymen as were duly chosen.

For the names of those so chosen, see Appendix I.

The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to be present, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

SECTION I.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES.

Q. I. What are the Committees for Guarding our Privileges during the ensuing year?

A. 1. The ORDINARY COMMITTEE: which shall have full power to take action on all national occasions, and in all cases affecting the interests, duties, rights, or privileges of our Church, unless in its judgment, or in the judgment of the President of the Conference, it is deemed expedient to refer any case to the Extraordinary Committee named below. 6. The Conference again directs the Committee to consider during the year the electoral disadvantages to which Wesleyan Methodist Ministers are subject in consequence of the Itinerancy, and to take such legal action as may be advisable in order to the removal of such disadvantages.

7. Roman Catholic University for Ireland.—The Conference again directs the Committee of Privileges to co-operate with the Committee of Privileges appointed by the Irish Conference in opposing the Establishment and Endowment out of Public Funds of a Denominational University in Ireland.

8. The Resolution of the Conference, 1902, defining the title, duties, and composition of the Ordinary and Extraordinary Committees of Privileges is amended as follows in Resolution 2 (2), (see Minutes of Conference, 1902, p. 9): "A joint Meeting of the Committee of Privileges and of the Committee of the department affected may be summoned by the Secretaries of both Committees."

Joint Meeting of the Ordinary Committee of Privileges of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, the Education Committee, and the Secondary Education Committee.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee. The following are the resolutions:

1. This Committee having, by the laws and usages of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, vested in it the power and the duty of taking action upon all national occasions affecting Education, hereby declares that the Education Act recently passed by Parliament directly contravenes the main principles of the educational policy of the Wesleyan Methodist Church frequently affirmed by the Conference, and cannot be regarded as a settlement of the Education question, or as a remedy for the serious grievances which Wesleyan Methodists suffer in common with other Nonconformists.

The Committee advises the Methodist people to continue to use every legitimate means to secure an early amendment of the Education Act, so as to bring the same into conformity with the declared policy of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

2. Having regard to the importance of securing upon the various Education Authorities constituted under the Act persons able and willing to administer the law in a fair spirit and with due regard to the reasonable rights of Nonconformist parents, children, and teachers, especially in localities where there is no choice of school, and where the children of Nonconformists form a large proportion of the scholars, the Committee earnestly advises the Wesleyan Methodist people to use every effort to secure the election of suitable Representatives upon the County Councils, Municipal, District and Parish Councils, Education Committees, Committees of Management, and other Education Authorities having jurisdiction under the Act.

3. The Committee rejoices that the sum of £200,000 of the Million Fund has been set apart for educational purposes, one of the objects of which is to assist in erecting schools in towns and villages where the children of Nonconformists are exposed to teaching and influences which the Committee is bound to condemn, and where it may be found impracticable to secure "provided" schools.

4. The Trustees and Managers of all Wesleyan Schools are advised within the prescribed time, and as soon as possible, to make application for an "Order" as to the appointment of Foundation Managers.

5. Trustees and Managers of Wesleyan Methodist Day Schools are advised so to frame their Schemes as to provide that the Body of Managers shall consist of six persons, of whom two shall be elected by the Trustees, and two shall be nominated by the parents of children attending and by subscribers to the schools, in addition to the two appointed by the Local Education Authorities as provided by the Act.

6. While recognising the fact that the Conference has repeatedly expressed its sense of the great service which our Connexional Day Schools have rendered to Methodism and to the sacred cause of National Christian Education, and further recognising the importance of maintaining them in the interest of Christian education and for defensive purposes, the Committee recommends the Conference that no Wesleyan Methodist Day Schools shall in future be erected in any place in which the Local Education Authority undertakes to establish a Christian Unsectarian School worked under the provisions of the Cowper-Temple Clause.

7. The Secretaries of this Committee are instructed immediately to communicate these Resolutions to the Correspondents of all Wesleyan Day Schools.

MISSIONS.

4. Missionary Advance.—The Conference, while grateful to God for such tokens of revived missionary interest as have followed the appeal made last year, expresses the earnest hope that the revival will extend throughout all our circuits, and raise our whole missionary enterprise to a level worthy of our history and vocation. The Conference declares its deliberate conviction that the present duty of our Church to the Foreign Missionary cause requires that (1) the missionary prayer-meeting should be revived in every circuit; (2) there should be a great increase in the number of lives consecrated to missionary service and pledged subscribers to and workers for the cause; (3) the present income of the Missionary Society should at least be doubled.

The prosecution of these aims is affectionately and earnestly urged upon our ministers and people alike; and to aid in their achievement the Conference directs that

i. (1) The President of the Conference shall be requested to hold Conventions similar to those of last year in the following Districts and on the following dates:

Bedford and Northampton ...	December 1.
Kent	November 10.
East Anglia	May 23.
Portsmouth	March 2.
Channel Islands	May 18.
Cornwall	February 16.
Exeter	February 23.
Cardiff and Swansea	January 19.
Macclesfield	November 5.
Bolton	November 18, 19.
Leeds	February 11.
Sheffield	November 3.
Lincoln	December 3.
York	February 3.
Newcastle-on-Tyne	October 28.
Isle of Man	October 22.
Scotland	January 28.

(2) The Conventions shall consist of three Sessions, of which one shall be for Ministers alone. Admission to the other Sessions shall be by ticket only, and the main aim shall be to secure the attendance of all who hold office in the Church.

(3) No collections shall be taken, except for the expenses of the Conventions.

(4) All the Ministers of the District shall attend all the Sessions of the Convention.

(5) Each September Synod shall decide the place at which its District Convention shall be held.

(6) The District Foreign Missions Committee, enlarged by the September Synod so as to include representatives of all classes of lay officers, shall be an Arrangements Committee to make, in consultation with the General Missionary Secretaries, all arrangements for the Convention.

(7) This Committee shall arrange for the due observance, in all the Circuits of the District, of the week preceding the Convention as a week of Missionary Intercession.

ii. A personal appeal for service and support shall be addressed to all our members through the leaders of the classes.

iii. A Simultaneous Canvass of all our seat-holders and adherents, with their families, shall be made next March, with a view to securing from all persons connected with us regular contributions to the missionary cause. The week ending March 26 is appointed to be observed throughout the Connexion as a Week of Missionary Intercession, and on Sunday, March 27, the Canvass shall close with special missionary services in all our Churches.

iv. To exhibit the urgent need of a large, immediate, and sustained advance, both in offers of personal service and in regular contributions to the cause, the Conference authorises the publication of a Statement of the Present Needs of our Foreign Missions, prepared under the direction of the Missionary Committee.

5. Literature.—With a view of leaving the Committee free to deal more effectually and satisfactorily with the question of Missionary Literature, the Conference sanctions the excision from Nos. 3 and 4 of the Rules and Regulations of the Society of so much as relates to the Missionary Notices.

6. Centenary of the British and Foreign Bible Society.—In view of the fact that the British and Foreign Bible Society is about to celebrate the completion of its hundred years of existence, this Conference desires to place on record its deep sense of the service which the Society has rendered to Christianity in general, and to Christian Missions in particular, from the beginning of its history to the present time. In securing the translation of the Holy Scriptures into a large proportion of the languages of the world, and organising effective methods for promoting their circulation, the Bible Society has been both the pioneer and the ally of the Evangelical Churches in their endeavour to make the gospel known to all nations, and so fulfil the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. Without the means which it has supplied, the efforts of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, in common with those of kindred Societies, would have been painfully limited and hindered; and this Conference bears grateful testimony to the spirit of Christian liberality and large-heartedness by which the administration of the Bible Society has ever been characterised.

The Conference offers its warmest congratulations to the Committee of the British and Foreign Bible Society on its glorious history, on the confidence and esteem in which the Bible Society is held throughout the world, and heartily joins in prayer with all the Evangelical Churches for the blessing of God upon its ever-extending operations during the century on which it is about to enter.

The Conference recommends that Sunday, March 6, 1904 —the closing day of the First Century of the British and Foreign Bible Society's existence—be observed in all Wesleyan Methodist Chapels as "Bible Sunday," and that sermons be preached on the duty of disseminating the Holy Scriptures among all nations.

The Conference also recommends that there be collections on that Sunday in every Chapel and Mission Hall on behalf of the Society's Centenary Fund, and trusts that the Fund will be supported by the special donations of the Methodist people.

7. West Indian Affairs.—Whereas the Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists at its 141st meeting, held at Burslem in the year 1884, resolved to constitute two West Indian Annual Conferences, the first to be called the West Indian Western Conference, to include what were designated in the 1883 Minutes the Jamaica and the Hayti Districts; the second to be called the West Indian Eastern Conference, to include what were designated in the 1883 Minutes the Antigua and the St. Vincent and British Guiana Districts; such Conferences to have jurisdiction over all the Wesleyan Methodist Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Churches, and Missions in the West Indian Districts above-mentioned, and to assume for those Districts the powers, privileges, and advantages vested in the Yearly Conference so far as such powers, privileges, and advantages are exercisable or available within the limits of the West Indian Connexion:

And whereas such West Indian Conferences have continued in operation from that time until the present year (1903):

And whereas, owing chiefly to changed local conditions, resulting in insuperable difficulties in maintaining and developing the Methodism of the West Indian Islands under present arrangements, the said West Indian Conferences at their meetings held respectively in Jamaica and in Grenada in the spring of 1903, have asked to be relieved of their Constitution, and that their Districts may be restored to the charge and care of the Yearly Conference and its Missionary Committee:

The Conference resolves:

(1) That the Constitution of the West Indian Western Conference, and that of the West Indian Eastern Conference, granted in 1884, duly entered upon the Journal of the Yearly Conference and published in its Minutes for that year on pp. 191-206, be and are hereby abrogated, and all Resolutions touching the same, then and thereafter, rescinded.

(2) That the Districts now forming the said West Indian Conferences be taken over again by the Yearly Conference, and placed, from January 1, 1904, under the charge of the Committee of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society, in the same way as all other Missionary Districts of the Yearly Conference.

(3) That under the new conditions the work in question shall be comprised in five Districts: one for Jamaica; one, Hayti and St. Domingo; one, British Guiana; and two for the Eastern Islands, the exact division of these to be decided by the Missionary Committee.

The Conference recognises that the West Indian work cannot be taken back upon the present funds of the Society, which are already more than pledged to the support of the work in other fields. It is therefore absolutely necessary that a special West Indian Fund be contributed by the Home Churches, both for the maintenance and development of the work, and for the liquidation of the existing debts.

The Missionary Committee has made careful inquiry into the financial position of the West Indian Churches, and has subjected the accounts of the same to professional investigation; with the result that it cannot place the debts at less than £62,000, while the deficit on current accounts amounts to, say, £3,000 per annum in addition.

The Conference considers it only reasonable that the West Indian Churches themselves should join in the effort to save Methodism in their midst from financial collapse; and accordingly sanctions an appeal in this country for £30,000, to be accompanied by a corresponding appeal in the West Indies.

Without such an appeal, successfully made, the Conference cannot hope to save the historic Methodism of the West Indies.

(7) The thanks of the Conference are presented to the various Officers and Committees of the Fund, and to the District Treasurers of the Maintenance Section, for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices; also to Mr. Henry Whinnerah, Honorary Auditor of the Trinity Hall School Accounts.

(8) The General Committee shall meet during the ensuing year on Friday, November 20, in Bath; on Friday, March 25, 1904, in Southport; and on Friday, July 1, in London.

2. Income of the Fund.

The Conference directs:

(1) The amounts to be raised in each District for the general purposes of the Children's Fund (Maintenance and Education) shall be as set forth in Schedule B.

(2) Ministers in Departments, and those without pastoral charge, shall be assessed for the Maintenance Section of the Fund at £20 each, and shall pay the assessments for which they are liable in respect of this Section to the Rev. G. STRINGER ROWE.

(3) No children's allowances can be claimed by Ministers on whose behalf the ordinary assessment has not been paid.

(4) The Education Section of the Fund shall be made self-adjusting upon the lines already adopted in respect of the Maintenance Section. The extra charge upon each Circuit calling out an additional Minister is therefore £2 per annum during the period of probation, and £4 per annum afterwards.

3. Maintenance Section.

The Conference resolves that it is inexpedient to restore the twentieth year's allowance for Maintenance (Minutes, 1893, p. 251).

4. Kingswood School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in September; and not later than May 1 the name and age of every applicant for admission must be sent to the Rev. WILLIAM FOSTER, B.A., 100, Christchurch Road, Tulse Hill, S.W. Under special circumstances admission may take place at other times than September. Boys shall not in general be admitted before the age of ten.

N.B.—In the case of boys admitted by vote of the Governing Body under the age of ten, or at any other period of the year than September, the parent may be required by the Governing Body to pay for the portion of that year at the rate of £25. Such parents receive the privileges detailed in § 6 (p. 28).

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to boys of about the age of eleven. A graduated age allowance will be made for younger boys, while older boys will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard, and boys above the age of twelve will be expected to show some knowledge of Latin and French. A specimen examination paper will be sent by the Headmaster, Mr. WALTER P. WORKMAN, M.A., B.Sc., upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

(3) Residence. The ordinary time of residence shall be six years, provided that the education allowances have either not been received or have been returned (see § 6 (4), p. 28).

(4) Scholarships. The terms of election shall be fixed by the Governing Body. So far as is consonant with the trusts affecting them, the Scholarships shall be awarded as a general rule to boys in their seventeenth year. Some shall be reserved for those who have already held one Scholarship. The Exhibition upon the Foundation of the late John Fernley shall be tenable at any place of higher education.

(5) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Sons of Supernumeraries and Widows ...	£22
Boys recommended by the Governor and Headmaster as being "near to winning a Scholarship"	£25
For all others	£30

Such payments shall be due at the close of each term, and shall be paid to the school direct.

Ministers whose sons hold Scholarships shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(6) Notice of Removal from School. Parents having children at the School shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents not giving such notice, the officers of the Fund shall be authorised to withhold three months' allowances, which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children. If a boy to whom an extra year has been granted be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

(7) The School Year shall be divided into three terms.

(8) The application of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows shall be left to the discretion of the General Committee.

(9) Travelling expenses shall be paid out of the General Fund.

5. Trinity Hall School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in September; and not later than May 1 the name and age of every applicant for admission shall be sent to the Rev. RALPH M. SPOOR, 39, Upper Baker Street, Regent's Park, N.W. Under special circumstances admission may take place at other times than September. Girls shall not, in general, be admitted before the age of twelve.

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to girls of about the age of twelve or thirteen years. A graduated age allowance will be made for the candidates, and older girls will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard. A copy of a specimen examination paper will be sent by the Lady Principal, Miss C. H. Peet, upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

(3) Residence. The ordinary term of residence shall be four years for girls on whose behalf not more than two educational payments have been made previous to their entrance at School. Every such payment in excess of two shall diminish the time of residence at the School. In special cases, when in the opinion of the Governing Body and the General Committee it is deemed desirable, the term of residence "on the foundation" may be extended from four to six years.

(4) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Daughters of Supernumeraries and Widows ... £22
For all others £30

Such payments shall be due in three equal instalments, one at the close of each term, and shall be paid direct to the school.

Ministers whose daughters hold Scholarships shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(5) Notice of Removal from School. The Regulation for Kingswood School (§ 4 (6), p. 26) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to Trinity Hall School.

(6) Vacations. The School Year at Trinity Hall shall be divided into three terms.

(7) Travelling expenses shall be paid out of the General Fund.

6. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.

The Conference directs:

(1) Payments shall be made at Conference for the calendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents who have once begun to claim shall receive their payments annually. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Entrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

(4) Return of Educational Allowances. Any Educational Allowance may be returned within the calendar year in which it is received. Educational allowances received in previous years may be returned, provided (1) that the child is "on the foundation," and (2) that Simple Interest is paid thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum for such period as they have been held.

N.B.—All applications and payments in respect of the return of Educational Allowances should be made to the Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, The Avenue, Blackheath, S.E.

(5) Circuit Schedules. Not later than March 1 each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, The Avenue,

Blackheath, S.E., a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. No claim to be entered upon this schedule for children at the Schools.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. V. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

3. Irregular Chapel Cases.—The Conference receives the Report.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send to the several District Synods the particulars of those cases in which, in the opinion of the Committee, it is desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time, until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled.

The Conference further directs the District Synods to call the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the proportion of debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the District Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendents.

4. Mr. JOHN COOPER, of Manchester, is re-appointed, and Mr. WILLIAM MIDDLEBROOK, of Morley, is appointed, as Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

5. The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK is the General Secretary of the Chapel Committee.

GIFTS OF CHAPELS AND OTHER TRUST PROPERTY.

The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented—

1. To Mr. H. S. Williams, of Heathfield, Swansea, for the gift of a Mission Hall and Five Cottages at Waunwen, in the Swansea (English) Circuit.

2. To an anonymous donor (per Mr. Thomas Walker, Bolton), for the gift of a Minister's House in connexion with the Bolton Mission, at a cost of £1,500.

3. To Mr. Thomas Cole, of Sheffield, for the gift of land and property adjoining Norfolk Street Chapel, Sheffield, of the value of about £6,000, in memory of his father, the late Mr. Thomas Cole, with a view to the erection of a Central Hall.

The Conference adopted the following Resolution:

Death of Mr. William Tunstill.

"By the death of Mr. William Tunstill of Reedyford and Nelson, the Committee has lost one of its oldest and most valued Members, who for a period of more than twenty years has discharged the duties of General Treasurer with conspicuous ability, and with a dignity and fidelity which those who have been intimately associated with him can never forget. The Chapel Committee has been favoured in respect of the office of Treasurer with a succession of distinguished men, who, at no small sacrifice, have generously placed their services at the disposal of the Connexion in this important department of our work. Amongst those who have thus served their generation by the will of God, no name is worthy of greater honour than that of Mr. William Tunstill. A man of sound judgment, of rare capacity, great force of character, high principle, and unaffected piety, he did much during his long term of office to shape the policy of the Committee, and it may truly be said that he has left a permanent mark upon the administration of our Chapel Affairs. The Conference recalls with thankfulness the signal service which he rendered at a critical period in the history of the Chapel Fund. The delicate and exacting nature of the responsibilities which devolved upon him at that time can be known only to a few. It was largely due to his loyalty, sagacity, and devotion that the lines of our present administration were so well and truly laid. As a member for many years of the Board of Trustees for Chapel Purposes and Treasurer of the Central Buildings Trust (Oldham Street), as well as in the ordinary work of the Chapel Committee, his counsels were of the utmost value, whilst his influence as a public man has been through all these years a source of strength to the department. The Conference gratefully cherishes his memory, both as a fellow-helper and as a true man of God. It places on record its high estimate of his character and of his work, and assures the members of his family of its heartfelt sympathy with them in their sorrow."

SOUTH WALES DISTRICT CHAPEL FUND.

„ John Wilkie, Falkirk, „ Robert Yorston, Glasgow

N.B.—1. The Officers of this Fund, as last appointed, were: Treasurers, Mr. Herbert B. Law and Mr. William Ormiston; Hon. Lay Secretary, Mr. C. J. Davidson, M.A., B.L. The Ministerial Secretary will be appointed at the meeting of the Committee in connexion with the Financial Synod.

2. The Lay Treasurers and the Honorary Lay Secretary of this Fund, for the time being, are ex officio members of the Scotland District Synod during the transaction of the Financial and Statistical Business of the District.

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix VI.)

2. The Conference, recognising the great benefits the Fund has conferred on Metropolitan Methodism and the cause of Christ generally, calls on all Metropolitan Methodists, and especially on the Trustees and all others interested in the one hundred and twenty Chapels already aided by this Fund, to sustain it to the utmost of their power, that sufficient means may be provided for the further development of Methodism in this immense and ever-growing Metropolis. It trusts also that the Methodists of the Provinces will heartily assist their London brethren in this movement.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the General Treasurer, Mr. A. M'ARTHUR, D.L., to the other officers, and to the Committee of the Fund, for their services during the past year. The Conference deeply laments the death of the late Senior Treasurer, His Honour Judge Waddy. Mr. Waddy was one of the most prominent of the first promoters of the Fund, and all his life through sustained it wisely and generously. The Conference resolves that a suitable obituary notice be placed in the Minutes.

4. The following are the Officers for the ensuing year; viz. Mr. A. M'ARTHUR, D.L., and Sir CLARENCE SMITH, Treasurers; Rev. JOHN BOND, General Secretary; Rev. JOSEPH DIXON, Rev. JOSEPH OLPHERT, and Rev. T. E. WESTERDALE, Assistant Secretaries.

The following is the Committee for the ensuing year:

1. The ex officio Members; viz. the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary of the Conference; the Treasurers, General Secretary, and Assistant Secretaries of the Fund; the Secretary of the Chapel Committee; and the Secretary of the Home Mission Fund.

2. The Elected Members:

(1) By the Conference: fifteen Laymen of the London Districts who are Annual Subscribers, and such a number of Ministers as will equalise the number of Laymen and Ministers, including the Chairmen of the three London Districts, namely:

Rev. Josiah Banham,
" George Charter,
" Robert Culley,
" George Denton,
" T. Wynne Jones,
" Charles H. Kelly,
Rev. William Middleton,
" Isaiah Parker,
" William D. Walters,
Mr. Samuel J. Cole,
" William Colman,
" John Gibbs,

Mr. Thomas Holloway,	Mr. William R. Rider,
„ George W. Kilner,	„ James Smith,
„ George W. Munt,	„ Henry Somerford,
„ Henry T. Northcroft,	„ Charles J. Thomas,
„ Henry Northcroft,	„ J. William Thomas,
„ George Parker,	„ Richard E. Withers.

(2) By the London District Synods: four Ministers and four Laymen in each District, at its September District Synod.

Death of His Honour Judge Waddy.

Mr. S. D. Waddy was one of the founders of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund. He was a man of light and leading in Metropolitan Methodism, and especially in this department. He compiled tables of statistics with great labour, which furnished data for the advocacy of the Fund, and in all meetings his voice commanded most respectful attention. He rose to distinction at the Bar and in Parliament, and throughout his career he never faltered in his attachment to Methodism. He filled every office open to laymen in our Church, and occupied our pulpits as a Local Preacher with very great acceptance. He was generous in thought, word, and deed. By both temperament and conviction he was a Christian optimist. Men of his rare qualities are a great gift of God. The Conference mourns his loss, and prays that others like-minded may be raised up in his place.

HOME MISSION FUND.

Q. VI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Home Mission Fund, and other Home Mission Affairs?

A. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

I. Financial Statement.

1. The Conference receives the Treasurers' Account for 1901–1902, and Report of Income and Expenditure to the Conference of 1903.

2. The Conference rejoices to learn that a further advance in the income of the Fund is reported, largely owing to the improved interest taken in Home Missionary Meetings, and also to the increased number of such meetings. The Conference again calls attention to recent legislation which requires that a Home Missionary Meeting shall be held, and a collection at such meeting made, in every chapel and preaching-place in the Connexion, and expresses the earnest hope that alike for the benefit of our Churches and the support of the Fund every effort will be put forth to make Home Missionary Meetings instructive and effective.

II. Grants.

1. The Committee has voted £6,888 7*s.* to dependent Circuits, £5,763 towards the support of Home Missionary Ministers for the ensuing year, and £3,193 to District Home Mission Committees.

2. The applications for aid in several other cases have been postponed pending further inquiry.

III. Pledges to provide for Married Ministers.

1. Twelve Circuits are under pledge to provide for married Ministers at this Conference. Of these, seven will duly fulfil their obligations; viz. London (Highgate), London (Clapton), Rugby, Stafford, Leeds (Mission), Leeds (Armley), Sheffield (Brunswick).

2. In the other five cases compensation for delay will be paid to the Fund.

3. Additional houses will also be provided in the following cases: London (Mostyn Road) at the end of the third year; Chatham Mission at the beginning of the first year. Also, previously due: Brighton (Dorset Gardens), Folkestone (1899), Rhondda (1894), Rhyl (Welsh) (1891), Birmingham (Aston Park) (1902), Longton (1901), Sheffield (Park) (1902), and Crook (1897).

IV. Alterations, Amalgamations, or Divisions of Circuits.

The North Wales District shall be divided as follows: The First North Wales Disirict to include the following Circuits: Denbigh, Rhyl, Ruthin, Corwen, Llangollen, Cefn (Ruabon), Coedpoeth, Liverpool (Shaw Street), Liverpool (Mount Zion), Welsh Mission, Holywell, Llanasa, Bagillt, Mold, Llanfyllin, Llanrhaiadr, Llanfair, Hanley, and Stockton-on-Tees.

The Second North Wales District to include the following Circuits: Llanrwst, Abergele, Conway, Llandudno, Beaumaris, Amlwch, Holyhead, Carnarvon, Bangor, Tregarth, Pwllheli, Port Madoc, Blaenau Festiniog, Dolgelly and Barmouth, Towyn, and Dinas Mawddwy.

The Manchester (Welsh) Circuit to be transferred to the First North Wales District.

The Cannock Circuit to be transferred from the Macclesfield to the Birmingham and Shrewsbury District.

Brixham, Dartmouth, Blackawton, Street, Capton, Cornworthy, and Kingswear to be transferred as a separate Circuit from Torquay (Wesley) in the Exeter District to the Devonport and Plymouth District.

Upton-on-Severn, Ryall Grove and Ripple to be transferred from the Malvern to the Tewkesbury Circuit.

Cleobury Mortimer to be transferred from the Kidderminster to the Ludlow Circuit.

Norfolk Street and Pond Hill to be transferred from Sheffield (Norfolk Street) Circuit to the Sheffield Mission (Albert Hall) which shall be called the "Sheffield Mission (Central)."

The remaining places in the present Sheffield (Norfolk Street) Circuit shall constitute the Sheffield (Ellesmere Road) Circuit.

Parwich to be transferred from the Matlock to the Ashbourne Circuit.

The Newcastle (Elswick Road) and Newcastle (Dilston Road) Circuits to be united.

Diana Street to be transferred from the Newcastle (Brunswick) Circuit to the Newcastle Mission.

The Bedale section of the Wensleydale Mission to be separated, and constituted for the present a separate Circuit.

V. Connexional Evangelists.

The Conference consents to the re-appointment of five married Ministers and one unmarried Minister as Connexional Evangelists, if the Pastoral Session of the Conference has a sufficient number of Ministers at its disposal for the purpose.

VI. Special Mission Committees.

The Conference authorises the Synods in the cases aftermentioned to appoint Special Committees to advise and assist in the management of these Missions, and directs the Quarterly Meetings concerned to act in harmony with the Committees so appointed :

First London	London (Hertfordshire Mission).
Second London	Wandsworth Road Mission.
Second London	Surrey and North Hampshire Mission.
Third London...	Sussex Mission.
Bedford and Northampton ...	Huntingdonshire Mission.
Kent	Kent Mission.
East Anglia	East Suffolk Mission.
Portsmouth	South Hampshire Mission.
Devonport and Plymouth ...	South Devon Mission.
Cornwall	North Cornwall Mission.
Exeter...	Devon and Dorset Mission.
Bristol and Bath	Bristol Mission.
Bristol and Bath	Wiltshire Mission.
Bristol and Bath	Wye Valley Mission.
Cardiff and Swansea... ...	Cardiff Mission.
Macclesfield	Buxton (Devonshire Park) Mission.
Macclesfield	North Staffordshire Mission.
Liverpool	Severn Valley Mission.
Halifax and Bradford ...	Bradford Mission (Eastbrook Hall).
Nottingham and Derby ...	Nottingham (Halifax Place) Mission.
Hull	Hull Mission,
Whitby and Darlington ...	Wensleydale Mission.
Newcastle-on-Tyne	Newcastle Mission.
Newcastle-on-Tyne	Sunderland (Sans Street) Mission.
Scotland	Paisley Mission.
Scotland	Vale of Leven.
Scotland	Ayr Mission.
Scotland	Perth Mission.

VII. Commissions.

1. Northampton.—At the request of the Circuits in Northampton, the Conference appoints the following Commission to inquire into the condition and work of the two Circuits and the Trust property therein, and to make such recommendations as may be deemed necessary in respect of the same to the Trustees and Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits, to the Synod, and to the General Committees of the Home Mission and Chapel Funds, and to report to the Conference; viz. The Chairman and Financial Secretary of the Bedford and Northampton District, five Ministers and five Laymen to be specially chosen at the September Synod of that District, the General Secretary and Lay Treasurer of the Home Mission Fund, the Secretary and one of the Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund, with the Rev. Thomas Cook, George R. Graham, Josiah Mee, J. Ernest Rattenbury, Enoch Salt, John E. Wakerley, and Messrs. Charles W. Early, Harold Davis Green, Norval W. Helme, M.P., Thomas May (Reading), Robert H. Posnett, and William Walker. The Rev. Simpson Johnson, Convener.

2. Chatham.—The Conference receives with pleasure the Report of the Commission, rejoices in the progress made towards the establishment of a Mission and the acquisition of suitable premises for a Central Mission Hall in Chatham, and re-appoints the Commission, as under, to manage the proposed Mission and to promote the erection of the new Hall: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Ministers and Circuit Stewards of the Rochester and Chatham Garrison Circuits, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, John Bell (B), Richard Hall, John Hornabrook, Jabez Ingram, Simpson Johnson, W. Rodwell Jones, Charles H. Kelly, Peter Thompson; with Messrs. Walter W. Berry, William Brownscombe, J. Crowle-Smith, Alfred G. Curtiss, Henry Holloway, George Lidgett, B.A., John Osborne, James E.

Vanner, Ezra T. Wilks, and Peter F. Wood. The Rev. James Fletcher, Convener.

3. Portsmouth District.—The Conference receives the Report, and re-appoints the Commission, to inquire into the condition of Methodism and advise the Circuits and Synod thereon with special reference to the proposed extension scheme at Southampton, and the Circuits brought under the notice of the Conference by the reports of previous years. The following is the Commission: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the members of the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, Josiah Banham, John Bell (B), John Hornabrook, Simpson Johnson, W. Hodson Smith; with Messrs. Alfred E. Booth, George Curtis, Francis Darracott, T. Morgan Harvey, William Hedges, and John E. Stafford. The Rev. W. Langdon Brimmell, Convener.

4. Oxford District.—The Conference receives the Report, and re-appoints the Commission, as under, with the same instructions as last year: The Members of the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, the Lay Treasurer and General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Josiah Banham, John Bell (B), William Bradfield, B.A., James Chapman, John Hornabrook, Simpson Johnson, Enoch Salt, Dr. Stephenson, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.; with Messrs. Joseph Beckett, Arthur W. Black, J. Calvert Coates, William Hedges, Thomas Mace, John H. Mason, and William Mewburn. The Rev. T. Hardy Banks, B.A., Convener.

VIII. South Wales.

The Conference receives the Report of the special Committee on South Wales, and adopts the following Resolution of the Home Mission Committee thereupon—That the facts disclosed in the Report demand very serious consideration, and the adoption, as soon as possible, of such measures as will tend to remove the evils complained of, but recommends that definite action in the cases specified be postponed until the Welsh Assembly has received and dealt with the report of a Committee which it has appointed to consider and advise as to the steps that should be taken to adapt our work to the changed circumstances consequent upon the evident increase of the English language in South Wales and Monmouthshire.

IX. The Lincoln District.

The Conference receives the Report of the Special Committee appointed last year, and re-appoints the Committee with the same powers as before: The President and Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. Joseph Bush, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Henry T. Smart, and Dr. Stephenson; with Messrs. Charles S. Denniss, John Evison, Alfred Jermyn, S. Meggitt Johnson, William Middlebrook, and Thomas Walker; with four Ministers and four Laymen to be chosen by the Lincoln, Hull, Nottingham, and York Synods, respectively, at their September meeting. The Rev. Simpson Johnson, Convener.

X. The Irish Grant.

The Conference approves of the arrangement entered into with the Irish Conference, in accordance with the authority given to the Committee last year for the payment of a capital sum of £15,000 in lieu of the present grant of £800 per annum for Home Mission work and Contingent expenses in Ireland, such payment to be a full and final settlement of all claims upon this Conference or any of its Funds in respect of such work and expenses. The grant is to cease twelve months after the date of the payment of the capital sum.

XI. Grant for Temperance Work.

The Conference of 1899 having resolved that the Home Mission Committee shall assist the work of the Temperance Committee by a grant from the Twentieth Century Section of the Fund, to be administered by the Temperance Committee, in accordance with a scheme to be approved by the Home Mission Committee: The Conference approves (1) of the allocation of £10,000 for Temperance Work; and (2) that this sum shall be placed under the control of the Temperance Committee, to be spread over a period of years in such aggressive work as may commend itself to that Committee.

XII. Grant to Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.

The Conference receives and adopts the following report: In view of the large claims that have come upon the Chapel Committee for the Erection of Chapels, Sunday Schools, Mission Halls, Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes, etc., and the inadequacy of the amount allotted to it from the Twentieth Century Fund to meet all these claims, the Home Mission Committee, regarding the erection of Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes as a distinctly Home Missionary object, will set apart the sum of £20,000 to assist in the erection of such Homes, thus relieving to some extent the embarrassment which has arisen in the administration of the Fund, whilst at the same time promoting the interests of Home Mission Work.

XIII. "Joyful News" Mission.

1. The Conference hears with deep regret of the proposed retirement of the Rev. Thomas Champness from the work which for many years past he has so successfully conducted in connexion with the "Joyful News" Mission. The Conference gratefully recognises the blessings that have come to many of our Circuits, especially in the rural districts, through the labours of Lay Evangelists, assisted by Mr. Champness, and to our Local Preachers by the personal influence he has exerted in their training and improvement while they have been resident for brief periods in the "Joyful News" Home.

2. The Conference resolves to transfer the work of the "Joyful News" Mission to the Home Mission Committee subject to the following conditions; viz.

(1) That the arrangements made for carrying on the work shall be of such a character as will not involve the creation of a separate department, or any financial liability for the permanent maintenance of an Institution for the purposes of the Mission. With this in view the work shall be carried on either in rented buildings, or in buildings which, if purchased, shall be easily realisable, and held in trust to be used, or disposed of as the Home Mission Committee may direct, and with ample powers to the Committee for the appropriation of the proceeds of any sale of the property.

(2) That the workers receiving the benefit of the Home shall, as far as possible, and except in special cases, contribute to their own support, so that, with voluntary contributions given as heretofore to the Home, the entire annual outlay shall be defrayed without bringing any new financial obligations on the ordinary income of the Home Mission Fund.

(3) That the Home shall, if possible, be located in a country district in which the services of the residents may be made available as Local Preachers or Exhorters for as large a number of villages as possible.

(4) That the work shall come under the direction of a Sub-Committee to be appointed by the Home Mission Committee, and shall be in charge of a Minister acting under the direction of the Home Mission Committee.

XIV. Lay Agents.

The subject of making suitable provision for Lay Agents in old age or illness having been referred to the Committee by the last Conference for consideration and report, the Conference receives the following ad interim Report ; viz.

1. That in view of the great variety of Lay Agents at present employed throughout the Connexion, and the nature and origin of their employment, it is not possible to frame any general scheme for provision on retirement.

2. That any such provision on the part of the Connexion presupposes a formal engagement after due examination by the Connexion, and therefore cannot be made unless and until the Conference is prepared to take up that prior question.

3. In the meantime the Conference urges upon all Circuits, Missions, and Committees that employ such Agents, the duty of making some arrangement with and for such Agents by which they will be enabled to become members of the Local Preachers' Mutual Aid Society, or secure a Government annuity, or otherwise provide for the time of need.

XV. Re-organisation of the Army and Navy Work.

The Conference adopts the following scheme for the re-organisation of the Army and Navy Work:

1. With a view to the unity and efficiency of our Army and Navy work, it is desirable that, as far as possible, it shall be administered by one department only.

2. As the work is essentially Home Missionary in its character, it should, when suitable arrangements for the purpose can be made, be treated as a Section of the Home Mission Department, but on the understanding that so far as any work abroad under the direction of the Home Mission Committee is concerned, that Committee shall act in consultation with the Foreign Mission Committee.

3. In harmony with the foregoing, the Mediterranean Stations shall be transferred forthwith from the direction and charge of the Foreign Missionary Committee to that of the Home Mission Committee, and the Chaplains appointed to these Stations shall be regarded as Ministers in the Home Work. The Army and Navy Work in India and China, and abroad generally, with the exception of the Mediterranean Stations, shall, for the present, remain under the direction, and at the charge, of the Foreign Missionary Committee; but in all cases in which Ministers are employed exclusively in Army and Navy Work abroad they shall be regarded as Ministers in the Home Work so far as their relation to the various Connexional Funds is concerned, and the Foreign Missionary Committee shall not be required to make, on account of such Ministers, the special payments heretofore made to Connexional Funds for Ministers returning from abroad. Should such Ministers be transferred to the General Work of the Missionary Society, the existing financial arrangements shall remain in force.

4. The control and direction of the work in detail shall be undertaken by a Board of Managers, which, for the purpose of continuity, and to meet the requirements of legal documents, shall be designated the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. This Board shall be appointed by the Conference on the nomination of the Home Mission Committee, and shall consist of the President and Secretary of the Conference; the officers of the Home Mission Fund; the officers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society; the Secretary of the Board of Managers or Army and Navy Sub-Committee; the Secretary of the Army and Navy Committee in Ireland; six Ministers and six Laymen, being members of the Home Mission Committee, and ten Ministers and ten Laymen, selected by the Home Mission Committee on the ground of their knowledge of Army and Navy affairs, but not necessarily members of the Home Mission Committee.

All Minutes of the Board of Managers shall be presented to the Home Mission Committee, and shall take effect only by confirmation of that Committee, except so far as they relate to Stations under the Foreign Missionary Committee. In these cases the confirmation of that Committee must be obtained.

5. The work of the Board of Managers shall include:

(1) The entire control of all Ministers specially set apart to labour under the direction of the Home Mission Committee in Garrisons or Naval Stations at Home or Abroad.

(2) The general oversight of Army and Navy work in all places at home and abroad done by Ministers in Circuit work or on Mission stations, on the lines laid down by the Resolutions of the Conference.

(3) The general oversight and control of all Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.

6. The financial support of the work shall be provided as follows:

(1) War Office and Admiralty payments.

(2) Local Incomes, Offertories, Class Money, and Subscriptions.

(3) The Home Mission Fund, augmented by contributions to be specially collected for Army and Navy work.

7. The Chaplains appointed to the Mediterranean Stations shall be regarded as members of the First London District Synod, but shall not be required to attend the meetings of the Synod every year. These Stations shall be visited periodically by such person or persons as may be appointed by the Board of Managers with the sanction of the Home Mission Committee.

8. (1) All Army and Navy Chaplains shall be members of the Synods in which the Garrisons or Stations are situated, and shall be subject to such Synods, especially in the matter of inquiry as to doctrine, discipline, and efficiency in work, and shall act under the Board of Managers, and of the Minister appointed by Conference to be Secretary of the Board of Managers. They shall also, in harmony with the Standing Order of the Conference, send in their reports of work and returns of the number of Wesleyans under their care, to their respective District Synods for consideration and report. These reports shall be forwarded with the remarks of the Synod thereon to the Secretary of the Board of Managers.

(2) All Chaplains in Great Britain shall meet together at least once in each year with the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee, the Secretary of the Board of Managers, and such other persons as the Board of Managers or Home Mission Committee may from time to time appoint, for consultation and conversation as to the requirements, the actual discharge, and the prospects of their work.

XVI. Officers and Committee.

1. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. John Bond and Mr. Thomas Walker, Treasurers, and to the Committee, for their services during the past year.

2. The Rev. JOHN BOND and Mr. THOMAS WALKER are re-appointed the Treasurers for the ensuing year; and the Rev. HENRY J. POPE, D.D., is re-appointed Deputy Treasurer.

3. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., the Ex-President; JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary; the Treasurers and Secretary of the Fund; the Secretary of the Connexional Fund; the Treasurers and Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism; the Treasurers and Secretary of the London Wesleyan Methodist Mission; the Secretaries of the Missionary Society.

THE ARMY AND NAVY.

The Question of Chaplains' Commissions for Wesleyan Ministers Serving in the Army.

1. The Conference records its respectful appreciation of the offer made to the Wesleyan Methodist Church by his Majesty's Government to place a certain number of Chaplains' Commissions at its disposal for its Ministers serving in the Army.

2. The Conference having given the most careful consideration to the various important questions which this offer of his Majesty's Government involves, is of opinion that it will best promote the true efficiency of its work in the Army—which the Conference is convinced his Majesty's Government equally with itself regards as of first importance—by continuing to retain its Ministers engaged in Army Work in that complete and intimate relation to itself which has hitherto obtained, which the acceptance of Commissions would necessarily impair.

The Conference, whilst for this reason most respectfully declining the offer, assures his Majesty's Government of its abiding interest in everything that tends to promote the welfare of the British soldier, and that it will continue, as in times past, to place at the disposal of his Majesty's Government carefully selected Ministers for the special benefit, whether in peace or war, of Wesleyans belonging to his Majesty's Army.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes Fund.

The Conference expresses its gratification at the success of the special effort for the provision of additional Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes in various parts of the empire, and for the enlargement of those already established. The Conference commends this effort to the continued sympathy and help of the Methodist people, and hopes that the amount required may be ultimately obtained.

SEAMEN'S MISSION.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Seamen's Mission, and rejoices in the continued success attending its various efforts for the salvation of the men of the Merchant Service. It warmly commends the Mission in all its branches to the sympathy and support of the whole Church.

2. The Conference also rejoices in the opening of the Queen Victoria Seamen's Rest and the successful inauguration of the work there. It regrets, however, that a considerable debt remains on the building, and trusts that the Seamen's Mission Committee will quickly receive substantial assistance towards the removal of this debt.

3. Mr. GEORGE LIDGETT, B.A., is re-appointed the Treasurer of the Mission. The Rev. DAVID ROE is the Secretary.

CONNEXIONAL FUND.

Q. VIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Connexional Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Treasurer's Account for 1901–2, and the Statement of Income and Expenditure to the Conference of 1903.

2. The Conference is gratified at the satisfactory result of the Annual Collections, and repeats its commendation of the Fund to the generosity of our congregations, and directs Ministers to explain and urge its claims when the Annual Collections are made.

3. In view of the continuous growth of the Connexion, and the increasing demands necessarily made upon this Fund for Connexional purposes, as well as grants for Afflictions, Funeral expenses, Supplies, Circuit travelling, and similar purposes, the Conference re-affirms the old-established rule that self-supporting Circuits should bear such expenses in respect of their own Ministers without having recourse to this Fund.

4. The Conference directs:

(1) That the entire expenses of any Joint Committee summoned under the authority of the Resolution of the last Conference (see Minutes, 1902, p. 9, par. 2 (2)) shall be paid from the Funds of the Committee in respect of whose affairs the Joint Committee is summoned.

(2) With regard to the Rule by which Preachers on Trial have no claim upon the Connexional Fund for grants for Afflictions and Supplies, or any other extraordinary purpose; the Conference grants permission to the Committee to consider special cases amongst probationers in respect of Afflictions and Supplies which may from time to time arise, with a view to affording some assistance.

5. The following is the Committee: The Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary; and the WORN OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. IX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

The Conference is deeply affected by the death of the Rev. Walford Green, D.D., its Treasurer, who for many years has cared for and administered this Fund with rare ability and devotion, and with unexampled generosity. To him this has been a very "labour of love," his sympathy with old Preachers and Preachers' Widows finding expression in abundant labours to secure them the modest allowances which the goodwill of the Church desires they should have. The Special Effort of a few years ago by which the Fund was saved from serious financial disaster was initiated by Dr. Green, and carried to its successful issue by his unaided labours. He travelled the whole country on its behalf, and spared no pains or toil to accomplish the object on which he had set his heart. Methodist Preachers, especially, owe him a great debt of gratitude, and the whole Church will honour his memory. But it is not in honour alone that Dr. Green is, and will be, held: the rarer and better tribute of universal love is his—all Methodism uniting in affectionate recognition of his worth. This Conference records its very high appreciation of his character and service, and commends his family to the sure consolations of God.

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference receives the financial statement of the General Treasurers, showing that while the income from all sources had been £30,778, the expenditure was £32,007 15s. 6d., leaving a deficiency of £1,229 15s. 6d. This is accounted for by the delay in receiving the Class contributions, and by some exceptional payments; but the Conference calls the earnest attention of all the friends of the Fund to the necessity of securing an increased income. The Conference records its satisfaction that £641 1s. has been received on account of Legacies, and £1,563 7s. 3d. on account of the Special Effort.

3. The Conference regrets to find that the Class Contributions for 1902 show a considerable falling off in the returns from seventeen of the Districts, notwithstanding the gratifying increase reported from the other fourteen. Three Districts have not yet completed their returns. The Conference again directs that special attention be given in every Circuit to this important source of income.

4. The Conference regrets that, with a deficiency of £1,229 15s. 6d. on the income of the year, and having regard to the fact that the payment of the allowances to the Supernumerary Ministers and Widows constitutes the first claim on the Fund, the Committee has been unable to vote in full the special grants for affliction, recommended by the District Synods. Many of the cases were of a distressing character.

5. The scale of allowances made to Widows for the present year shall be ten shillings for each year the husband spent in the full work of the ministry, with a bonus of fourteen pounds.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who have made special donations; to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies; and to the District and Circuit Treasurers for their services during the year.

7. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to Mr. John Lees Barker for his valuable services as General Treasurer.

8. The Conference re-appoints Mr. John Lees Barker, and appoints the Rev. Marshall Hartley, as General Treasurers, and appoints the Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON as Secretary for the ensuing year.

9. (1) Allowances are paid half-yearly, in advance; the dates of payment being August 10 and February 10.

(2) Funeral allowances are paid for Supernumerary Ministers and for Widows of Supernumerary Ministers, when needed.

10. The Conference directs that Collections in aid of the Fund be made in all our chapels; that the claims of the Fund be specifically brought before the Members during the visitation of the Classes in December; and that efforts be made to obtain new annual subscriptions.

11. The following are appointed the Committee of Management: The Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary; Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY and Mr. JOHN LEES BARKER, the General Treasurers; ALBERT CLAYTON, Secretary; together with the

Rev. Dr. Allen,

The Committee shall superintend the general working of the Fund, and also consider and decide upon such peculiar cases of affliction and distress among the Supernumerary Ministers and Ministers' Widows as may be recommended by the District Synods for special and occasional relief.

12. The following are appointed the Sub-Committee for the Invalid Ministers' Rest Fund: The EX-PRESIDENT of the Conference,

Rev. Dr. Randles,	Mr. Alfred Brookes,
Mr. Elijah Meggitt,	„ William H. Strawe;

together with the Trustees of the Fund.

The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK is appointed Treasurer and Convener.

The Houses of Rest at Colwyn Bay and Grange shall be under the care of the Invalid Ministers' Rest Fund Sub-Committee.

All applications for terms of residence during the summer and autumn must be made not later than March 1 to the Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, Central Buildings, Oldham Street, Manchester.

N.B.—For the Discipline Committees of the several Branches of the Institution, see Question XXXVIII.

13. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) Wherever it is practicable, two Collections shall be made annually in each chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Institution; and these Collections shall be made, if possible, in December.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all Subscriptions and Collections for the Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year; and instructs the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by inquiry at the May Synod, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the beginning been recognised in the administration of the Institution, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such Students as have the means, or whose friends have the means, shall be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according to their ability, towards the cost of their own maintenance and education; and it directs the General Committee to consider and adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying this rule into effect.

(4) A minimum charge for maintenance shall be made, which every Student shall be expected to defray; it being, however, distinctly understood that the General Committee shall be empowered to remit the charge wherever, and in so far as, it may be found on inquiry that any Student is unable to pay. And further, all Students who are able, either themselves or by their parents and friends, to add, to the payment for maintenance, payment on account of education, should be urged to do so.

(5) The Conference directs the President to inform the General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resignation of any Probationer, or of any Minister who has not been ten years in the Full Work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept and application made to those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their Institution training.

14. The Conference learns with satisfaction that measures have been taken to provide for the growing demands of the Connexion for a trained Ministry, and recognises the urgent necessity for an increase in the annual income of not less than £3,300. The Conference directs the General Committee to take such steps as may in its judgment meet this increased expenditure. The Conference authorises an appeal to the Connexion for an increase in the Annual Collections and in Private Subscriptions. The Conference also sanctions an appeal for Annual Subscriptions to Circuit Boards and Trustees of Chapels, and also to Ministers who have been trained in the Institution.

5. The Conference empowers the Wesleyan Education Committee to make grants towards expenditure incurred by structural and other alterations demanded by the Board of Education in Day-school premises.

6. Administrative Resolutions. — The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) The Conference empowers the Education Committee to make Grants, on inspection, to new Schools to which the provisions of the Minute of the Education Department, dated June 21, 1878, apply, and for the probationary period during which, under the said Minute, such Schools cannot receive Grants in aid from the Department.

(2) The Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of the working of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

(3) The Conference directs that in all cases of difficulty in carrying on our Connexional Day Schools that are likely to result in the closing or transfer of such Schools, before such action be initiated the District Education Committee shall be consulted; it being understood that such consultation shall not interfere with the direction of the Conference requiring consultation with the General Education Committee.

(4) The Conference directs that in all ordinary cases of Day Schools conducted on Wesleyan Trust premises, no such Schools shall be discontinued so long as there is a reasonable prospect of their being carried on without serious embarrassment. The same general principle shall apply to Wesleyan Day Schools conducted in premises rented for the purpose under the management of a recognised Wesleyan School Committee.

When, however, the discontinuance of a Day School is proposed, before such proposal is carried into effect, the Superintendent shall consult the Trustees, the Managing Committee, and the Subscribers; and if in any case there is a considerable division of opinion, the case shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit. In all cases, the general principle laid down by the Conference respecting the Transfer of Schools —viz. that the Superintendents of the Circuits, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall consult the Education Committee—shall be adhered to.

(5) The Conference declares that it shall not be deemed to be within the power and option of a Superintendent to prevent the establishment or continuance of a Wesleyan Day School, so long as responsible parties pledge themselves to bear all the financial cost and risk.

(6) (i) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council—to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing,—the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the Rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto: the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School Management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.

(ii) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(iii) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

7. The Conference further directs as follows:

(1) All who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools shall communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(2) The Managers of every School shall require from the Teacher, at least once a year, a report as to the nature and extent of the Religious Instruction given in the School, in order that they may be satisfied that the truths of Scripture are regularly taught to the children.

(3) It is deemed desirable that the Managers shall arrange, in conjunction with the Teacher, for regular examinations of the School in Religious Knowledge; such examinations to be conducted, as to time and method, as circumstances may require.

(4) A General Report on the Religious Instruction given in the Day Schools, founded upon the Teachers' Reports from the several Schools, as well as upon the personal visitation of the Ministers, shall be submitted to the March Quarterly Meetings, when the Returns as to the Day and Sunday Schools of the Circuit are presented.

(5) The October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

8. Resolutions of 1891 and 1895.—The Conference directs that its declaration made in 1891, and repeated in 1895, be reprinted as follows:

(1) That the primary object of Methodist policy in the matter of Elementary Education is the establishment of School Boards everywhere, acting in districts of sufficient area, and the placing of a Christian unsectarian school within reasonable distance of every family. This is of special importance in rural districts, where our people have no alternative to the compulsory attendance of their children at Anglican schools.

(2) That there should be no increased grant of public funds, whether from the local rates or from the imperial taxes, to denominational schools, unless that increased grant is accompanied by adequate and representative public management.

(3) That no National System of Education which shall exclude from the Day Schools the Bible, and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers, suited to the capacities of children, will meet the necessity of the country.

(4) That our Connexional Training Colleges should be maintained in full vigour and efficiency.

(5) And, lastly, with respect to our Connexional Day Schools, the Conference repeats its often declared sense of the great services they have rendered to Methodism, and to the sacred cause of National Christian Education; and it emphasises their special importance in those localities where it is impossible to establish School Boards acting in districts of sufficient area, and having under their control Christian unsectarian schools.

9. Resolution of 1899.—That in any National System of Education, the Bible and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers suited to the capacities of children will meet the necessity of the country, and that the introduction of any Catechism into the Board Schools is highly objectionable.

10. Administrative Resolutions (Minutes, 1902, pp. 67-69) and the Resolutions of 1891, 1895, and 1899 on Education.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to bring the Administrative and other Resolutions on Education into harmony with recent legislation of the Conference; viz. the Officers of the General Education Committee, of the Committee of Privileges, and of the Chapel Committee; and six additional members to be added by the Education Committee, and six by the Committee of Privileges. The Rev. David J. Waller, D.D., LL.D., is the Convener.

11. Sunday Schools.—The third Sunday in October in each year shall be observed as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday Schools and young people.

12. The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of Catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our own Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.

13. The Conference resolves that, while it may be well to provide a separate service for very young children, it is most undesirable that scholars of eight years of age and upwards should be kept from the services in our chapels.

14. The Conference directs that the District Education Committee be consulted before a Sunday School is closed.

15. Day and Sunday Schools.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

16. The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 10 in each year.

17. District Sunday-school Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

18. Admission to the Training Colleges.—The Conference resolves that, after provision is made in the Training Colleges for eligible Wesleyan candidates, the members of other Methodist Churches may properly be welcomed to fill any vacant places, if they are prepared to attend the appointed religious services connected with the Colleges, on the distinct understanding that they are not expected to sever their membership with their own religious communities, or to receive any token of membership with the Wesleyan Methodist Church during their residence in the Colleges.

SECONDARY EDUCATION.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Secondary Education Committee during the year.

2. The Conference having referred to the Secondary Education Committee the question of establishing all or any of the Wesleyan Middle-class or other Proprietary Schools on a strictly Connexional basis, either as separate institutions, or by bringing all or any of them under a single Connexional control, the Committee was authorised to prepare forms of Trust Deed; and a draft of a Connexional Trust Deed was approved by the Conference.

3. The Conference approves and adopts a scheme for the constitution of a Board of Management for Secondary Schools. (See Appendix XIII.)

4. The Conference approves and adopts a scheme for the acquisition of Secondary Schools, their settlement on a Connexional Trust, and for bringing them under the control of the Board of Management for Secondary Schools. (See Appendix XIII.)

5. The Conference appoints the following Board of Management for Secondary Schools:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary of the Conference; Rev. Dr. WALLER, and Mr. PERCY W. BUNTING, M.A., Secretaries and Conveners.

(2) Twelve Ministers and twelve Laymen:

Bromyard Wesleyan Methodist High School for Girls, Limited	Rev. Dr. Waller, Mr. John W. Sankey.

The Conference receives with pleasure the Reports of WESLEY COLLEGE, SHEFFIELD, and QUEEN'S COLLEGE, TAUNTON, Limited. Although not Connexional Schools, these were established primarily in the interests of Methodism, and are under Methodist management. Each has rendered invaluable service to the cause of Christian education and to the Methodist Church.

The Conference re-appoints the Rev. J. Agar Beet, D.D., and Mr. Obed Hosegood, Directors of Queen's College, Taunton, Limited.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Q. XII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of The Children's Home and Orphanage?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of The Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IV.)

2. The Conference hereby authorises the President to affix his signature as Representative of the Conference to any sale of property recommended by the General Committee of The Children's Home.

3. The Conference hears with great satisfaction of the continued growth of The Children's Home and Orphanage. It rejoices to know that there are now more than 1,400 children under its care, and that a new Branch for delicate and afflicted children is shortly to be opened at Chipping Norton. The Conference again commends this great work to the practical sympathy of the Methodist people.

4. The Conference gratefully acknowledges the generous promise of Miss Fowler, of Liverpool, to give £20,000 for the establishment of a Branch of The Children's Home in the neighbourhood of that city.

5. Messrs. James E. Vanner and Thomas Barton Holmes are re-appointed the General Treasurers. The following are appointed Local Treasurers for the ensuing year: Messrs. RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the Religious Observance of the Lord's Day?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report, and re-affirms its steadfast belief in the divine authority and perpetual obligation of the Lord's Day, and the conviction of the necessity that all effectual defence and assertion of the Lord's Day Rest must proceed on that basis.

2. In view of the great and rapid increase of Sabbath desecration in the country, and the special temptations placed in the path of the young, the Conference directs that the serious attention of the Connexion be more frequently drawn in all our Chapels and Sunday Schools to the existence of such dangers, and that a more resolute effort be put forth to prevent their continuance and growth.

The Conference also recommends that wherever practicable definite organisation for the promotion of better Sabbath observance shall be instituted in all our Guilds and Endeavour Societies.

3. The Conference commends the project of the Working Men's Lord's Day Rest Association to promote a National Convention in the ensuing autumn, to consider the grave crisis created by the alarming increase of Sabbath desecration in recent times, and to devise a remedy.

4. Mr. J. CALVERT COATES is re-appointed Treasurer; the Rev. JAMES FINCH and Mr. JOSIAH GUNTON are re-appointed Secretaries; and the following is the Committee for the next year:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary; Rev. G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., Temperance Secretary; and the Secretaries and Treasurer of the Committee.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes.

2. The Conference recommends that, on the last Sunday of November in each year, special reference be made in all Wesleyan Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of intemperance.

3. The Conference expresses its sorrow that the boon of the Sunday Closing of Public Houses, so long enjoyed with such advantage by other parts of the kingdom and empire, should be still withheld from England, and calls upon all our people to use their utmost efforts to secure a speedy enactment of a Sunday Closing measure for England, and commends the National Conference of the Free Churches, to be held on October 1, to the hearty co-operation of our Church.

4. The Conference expresses its gratitude to those Licensing Benches that have declared their determination seriously to consider the reduction of licences in over-licensed areas, and earnestly appeals to them to disregard any attempt to change their resolve vigorously to administer the existing laws for the protection of the public from the mischiefs of the liquor traffic.

The Conference further repeats its declaration of the necessity of new legislation for the more efficient control of a traffic which is a prolific source of disease, insanity, vice, crime, and manifold other evils. Meanwhile it deprecates any attempt to interfere with the discretion of the Licensing Authority with respect to the renewal of licences, and urges the Methodist people to use all proper means for preventing any legislation in this direction.

The Conference, therefore, protests most strongly against all proposals for legislation calculated to interfere with the discretion of the Licensing Authority with respect to the Renewal of Licences, and resolves that a copy of this Resolution shall be sent to the Leaders of the Government and Opposition in both Houses of Parliament and to the Rt. Hon. C. T. Ritchie.

5. The Conference rejoices on account of the recent legislation of the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies, prohibiting the sale of liquor to natives, and expresses a strong hope that similar legislation may speedily be adopted in other African Colonies and Dependencies.

The Conference regards it as a grave scandal that concentrated forms of alcohol, some of them containing as much as 4 per cent. of fusel-oil, should be permitted to be imported into West Africa, and urges upon his Majesty's Government the desirability of prohibiting the supply of liquor to natives, or at least of the prohibition of the importation of over-proof spirit; of placing such traffic as is permitted under the severest possible restriction; and of the prohibition of the transportation of alcoholic liquors by railway into the inland territories.

The Conference has heard with great satisfaction that the German Government is willing to consider the raising of the duty in Togoland, and hopes that his Majesty's Government will take steps to secure the co-operation of France and Germany, with a view to the protection of the native races of West Africa from the liquor scourge.

And the Conference further resolves that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Prime Minister, Colonial Secretary, and the Secretary for Foreign Affairs.

6. The Conference, while adhering to its declarations in relation to entire Sunday Closing and Local Option, nevertheless reaffirms its strong conviction that the Minority Report of the Royal Commission on the Liquor Licensing Laws provides a satisfactory basis for a large and efficient measure of Temperance reform; and urges all the friends of the Temperance cause to unite in seeking to obtain legislation upon the general lines of that Report.

7. The Conference repeats its recommendation, that in all our Bands of Hope the Quarterly Ticket of Membership shall be used, and that this ticket shall be given, not only to those who are members of the Band of Hope in the ordinary way, but also in our Sunday Schools, to all Scholars who, though not able to attend Band of Hope Meetings, may be led by their Teacher to enrol themselves in the Sunday-school Teacher's Pledge Book, or in the column of the Class Register now provided for that purpose.

8. The Conference recommends the appointment of a Circuit Temperance Secretary in every Circuit; and the Superintendents are directed to send the name and address of such Secretary to the Secretary of the Temperance Committee of the Conference not later than the end of September; but where no Circuit Temperance Secretary is appointed, the Superintendents of Circuits are directed to send to the Connexional Temperance Secretary, by the same date, the names and addresses of all the Secretaries of the Bands of Hope and Temperance Societies in their respective Circuits.

9. The Conference deeply deplores the widespread prevalence of Betting and Gambling and kindred practices, and expresses its grief that the newspaper press of this country stimulates these vices by the publication of sporting items, and its satisfaction that the Daily News has set a noble example in resolving not to publish this kind of information. It declares its hope that before long there may be some effective legislation for the suppression of these evils, and especially for prohibiting the publication of betting items by the newspapers. And the Conference urges all our people to exert themselves in all possible ways for the suppression of this vice, and especially for the use of the Anti-Gambling Pledge published by the Book-Room, and by seeking to influence Parish, District, and County Councils to use their powers against the practice of gambling in public places.

10. The Conference recommends that, in places where it is impossible to form an Adult Temperance Society holding frequent meetings, a Society shall be formed by the appointment of a Secretary, and by keeping a roll of abstainers.

11. The Conference deeply deplores the great evils arising out of the employment of barmaids in public-houses, and rejoices that public opinion has been aroused and a general desire expressed to abolish this most mischievous custom. The Conference earnestly appeals to the Licensing Authorities to take immediate action in order to prevent any new arrangements of this nature, and to take such other measures as they may be able, to bring about the speedy abolition of a system so injurious to those who are thus employed and to the whole community.

12. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The ex officio Members: the President of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Secretary; the Treasurer and Secretary of the Committee, the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Sunday-school Union, one of the Secretaries of the Lord's Day Observance Committee, the Secretary of the Social Purity Committee, and the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee.

4. The Conference gives power to the Committee to meet occasionally for purely Educational purposes, and to add to itself for these purposes persons interested in other Educational Institutions, their number not to exceed six.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Q. XVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Social Purity?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference reaffirms its unflinching opposition to every form of State Regulation of vice, and will strenuously withstand any policy which involves such Regulation.

3. The Conference directs the Committee to watch the operation of the rules and regulations laid down for the Army by the Government of India, and now adopted in Gibraltar, and to take such action as may be desirable to oppose anything of the nature of State Regulation, should it be attempted.

4. In presence of growing laxity of thought and practice in many quarters, the Conference urges upon all Methodists, and especially upon those who have to do with young people in Bible-classes, Guilds, and other Societies, the duty of watchful care over all moral interests, and of exercising an influence which may tend to lessen temptation to evil by the strengthening of sound principles, the discreet communication of necessary information, and the repression of all social customs which are hostile to a high-toned morality.

5. The Conference hears with thankfulness of the progress that has been made by the international movement for suppressing the trade in girls for immoral purposes, and rejoices that his Majesty's Government has co-operated in this movement.

It commends the efforts that are being made, to the support of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and trusts that such help as can be afforded by Wesleyan Methodist women, throughout the country, will be given.

6. The following are appointed the Committee for he ensuing year:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary; the Treasurer and the Secretary of the Committee.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful and hearty thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to its late President, the Rev. John S. Banks, D.D., for the ability and dignity with which he presided over the Sessions of the last Conference, and for the eminently acceptable and very valuable services he has rendered to the Connexion throughout the year.

2. Mr. J. Vanner Early is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Conference in Ireland, to be held in Dublin in June, 1904.

3. Mr. William Middlebrook is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly, to be held at Coedpoeth in June, 1904.

4. The Rev. R. Waddy Moss, D.D., is appointed as our Representative to the next General Conference of the American Methodist Episcopal Church at Los Angeles.

5. The Rev. Albert Clayton is appointed to ascertain, and to receive and forward to the respective Treasurers, the payments to be made, in accordance with our Rules, to the various Connexional Funds in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See Standing Orders, 32.)

6. The Rev. Ralph M. Spoor is directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1904, and is appointed an ex officio member of the Conference in its Representative Session.

N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1904.

A copy of the Agenda shall be sent to each member of the Legal Conference, resident in Great Britain, who is unable to attend the Conference.

7. Mr. William Middlebrook is appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

8. The Rev. George Denton is appointed Convener of Scrutineers of all votes, other than those for the election of Lay Representatives, in the Representative Session of the next Conference; and, as such, is an ex officio member of that Session.

Nomination Committee.—1. The Nomination Committee shall consist of (a) the sixteen Lay Representatives elected by the Conference who retire in 1906; viz. Mr. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., Mr. Thomas R. Ferens, Mr. Thomas G. Osborn, M.A., Mr. "Gipsy" Smith, Mr. Robert W. Helme, Mr. Tilden J. Bisseker, Mr. Isaac A. Mack, Mr. S. Rathbone Edge, M.A., Mr. Charles W. Slater, Sir Alfred Gelder, Mr. J. Wesley Walker, Major Herbert Hart, Mr. George W. M'Arthur, Mr. William Butterworth, Mr. J. Calvert Coates, Mr. Edward Stocker; (b) sixteen Ministers appointed by the Conference in its Pastoral Session; and (c) two Secretaries, one Minister, and one Layman.

2. Mr. Peter F. Wood is re-appointed Lay Secretary of the Nomination Committee, and is directed, in conjunction with the Rev. James Chapman, the Ministerial Secretary, to prepare lists of the persons recommended by the Committee for service on the several Connexional Committees.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretaries: (a) to convene the Meeting of the Nomination Committee, and to summon to it persons entitled to attend its Meeting; (b) to receive from the Committee of each Connexional Department a list of persons, ex officio and otherwise, who are proposed for appointment upon it by the Conference; (c) to present the lists so received to the Nomination Committee; (d) to keep the record of the proceedings of the Committee; and (e) to report to the Conference on its behalf.

4. The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Monday previous to the Meeting of the Representative Session of the Conference. At that Meeting the President of the Conference shall preside, or in his absence some Ex-President or other Minister whom he shall depute; and the Secretary, or some other deputed Representative, of each Connexional Department shall attend to give such information as may be necessary.

5. The Nomination Committee shall consider the lists sent forward by the several Committees of Connexional Departments; it shall take care that the Constitution of each Committee nominated is in accordance with the regulations of the Conference; it shall have power to amend the lists sent forward, as it may deem desirable; but only in cases of necessity shall it make any change in reference to either the Ministerial or Lay nominees of a District Synod, and every change shall be reported to the Conference.

6. The Conference directs that all Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall be printed in the Conference Agenda, as far as possible: the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and postal address of each Layman.

N.B.—A complete List of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their Christian names and postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes.

7. Secretaries of Departments shall duly inform all new members, ministerial and lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees.

The Custody of Connexional Documents.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and repeats the instructions contained in Standing Order 10.

2. The Committee shall consist of the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary; and the

3. The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON is appointed Custodian and Registrar, and also Convener of the Committee.

Office of the Theological Institution, Schools', Children's, and Auxiliary Funds.—The Conference adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix X.)

Common Cash.—1. The Conference adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix XI.)

2. The Conference resolves that the Common Cash and Connexional Funds Office shall be constituted a Department on the usual lines.

3. The Conference resolves that the Minister set apart for this work shall be described as "Secretary of the Office of Connexional Funds."

4. The Conference directs that the office, pending the building of the new Church House, shall be at the Conference Office, City Road.

5. The Committee is re-appointed, and consists of the Officers of the various Connexional Funds included in the arrangement.

Financial Appeals by Strangers.—Considering the many abuses to which the Connexion is continually exposed by applications from unauthenticated strangers from abroad to use our Trust property for financial ends, the Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the credentials of all such; and to express an opinion as to the advisability or otherwise of allowing the use of our Trust property for the contemplated appeals: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the EX-PRESIDENT; the SECRETARY; with

Rev. Josiah Banham,	Mr. J. Calvert Coates,
„ Albert Clayton,	„ Isaac C. Griffith,
„ Charles H. Kelly,	„ Henry Holloway,

„ Dr. Waller,	„ Ezra T. Wilks.

The Rev. ALLEN REES is the Convener.

Compulsory Supernumeraryship.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to negotiate with any Ministers whose cases may be referred to it by the Pastoral Session, with a view to their retirement from the Ministry.

3. The Committee is empowered to make financial arrangements to that end.

4. The following is the Committee:

Rev. Albert Clayton,	Mr. John L. Barker,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,	„ Williamson Lamplough,
„ G. Stringer Rowe,	„ Thomas Walker.
„ Peter Thompson,

The Rev. PETER THOMPSON is the Convener.

Methodism in Cambridge.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference authorises the Superintendent of the Cambridge Circuit to purchase an eligible site which has just come into the market if it can be secured at a satisfactory price, and to form a trust that shall represent both the Connexional interest in the University and town of Cambridge, and the Circuit and local interests.

3. The Conference authorises the Chapel Committee and the Home Mission Committee to lend the money for the purchase of the site at 3 per cent.

4. The Conference commends the scheme for the new Chapel and premises at Cambridge to the generous sympathy and help of the Connexional Funds and the Methodist people.

5. The Committee is re-appointed with the same instructions as last year. The following is the Committee: Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary;

„ Walter P. Workman, M.A., B.Sc.

The Rev. CHARLES E. WANSBROUGH is the Convener.

Arbitration between England and France.—The Conference warmly welcomes the proposal of a Court of Arbitration between this country and the French Republic, trusting that it will not only bring about a more settled friendship between the two countries concerned, but will tend to promote the cause of peace and good-will throughout the world.

Departmental Appointments.—The Conference provisionally resolves that in future no Minister shall be set apart for the work of a new Department without the question of such an appointment having been referred to the Synods for their judgment.

District Education Committees.—The Conference provisionally resolves that each Synod shall have power to associate with the District Education Committee other Ministers and Laymen interested in the subject of Day and Sunday Schools, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become members of the Synod.

Attendance at our Places of Worship in London.—The Conference appoints the following Commission to inquire into the same, and report: The President of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Secretary;

Rev. Josiah Banham,

„ J. Bamford Slack, B.A.,	„ Peter F. Wood,
„ James E. Vanner,	„ George W. Kilner.

The Rev. HENRY T. MEAKIN is the Convener.

Education Bill, 1902.—1. The Conference expresses its deep regret that in the Educational measures which his Majesty's Government have submitted to Parliament there has been no recognition of the principle so often affirmed by the Conference, namely, the placing of a Christian unsectarian school under adequate and representative public management within reach of every child. And being convinced that the Education Act of 1902 and the London Education Bill of 1903 neither provide for an efficient system of Education, nor are in harmony with the reasonable rights of Wesleyan Methodists and other Nonconformists, the Conference earnestly appeals to his Majesty's Government and to Parliament to repeal the above-mentioned measures, or so materially to amend them as, bringing them into conformity with the aforesaid principle, shall secure throughout England and Wales a national system of education under complete popular control. Such a system must, in the opinion of the Conference, provide for absolute freedom from all ecclesiastical tests in the appointment of Teachers.

2. The Conference is of opinion that the Managers of Wesleyan Day Schools should retain the schools under their own management until such time as the Education Act shall be repealed or amended in accordance with the principles laid down in the foregoing Resolution.

3. The Conference deeply regrets that in the Constitution of the County and Borough Educational Committees the reasonable rights of Nonconformists to share in the Educational management of Elementary and Secondary schools have been seriously ignored.

As at least one half of the number of children attending public elementary schools are the children of Nonconformist parents, the Conference earnestly appeals to the Councils, and to the Magistracy of England and Wales, both in Counties and Boroughs, to be governed in the administration of this Act by those principles of elementary justice which the services of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in common with those of other Nonconformist Churches to the nation demand.

4. The Conference again affirms its unwavering adherence to the principle of the Conscience Clause in all Schools aided from Imperial or Local sources. It regrets that in many cases advantage is taken of the compulsory attendance of Methodist children by Anglicans and Roman Catholics to teach the children, who are compelled to attend their Schools, doctrines repulsive to their parents and at variance with the truths of the Protestant Christian Faith. The Conference directs the Committee of Privileges to watch and report upon the operation of the Education Act of 1902 and the London Education Bill of 1903, in so far as they affect the Educational and Religious interests of Wesleyan Methodist children, and to take such steps as they may think necessary to protect Methodist parents or children from persecution.

5. That without expressing an opinion on what is known as passive resistance, the Conference expresses its profound sympathy with many men and women who have deemed it to be their duty as Christian citizens to resist by lawful means the payment of compulsory education rates. The Conference would earnestly call the attention of his Majesty's advisers to the great and growing gravity of this movement, and, as loyal subjects of the British Crown, would represent to them that in the interests of civil order and domestic peace it is essential that heed should be paid to the conscientious convictions of millions of the King's loyal subjects.

6. That copies of the aforesaid Resolutions be signed by the President and the Secretary of the Conference and forwarded in the name of the Conference to all his Majesty's Ministers and Privy Councillors, to all Members of both Houses of Parliament, and to all County and Borough Councillors and Magistrates in England and Wales.

Education Act, 1902.—The Conference earnestly recommends all Wesleyan Methodist parents who are compelled by law to send their children to Denominational schools, that, in all cases in which the "Kenyon-Slaney Clause" is not observed in the letter and in the spirit, they shall avail themselves of the Conscience Clause, and withdraw such children from religious instruction.

Methodist Union.—The Conference appoints twelve representatives to meet the representatives of the four denominations from which communications have been received to inquire concerning the constitutional, financial, and other conditions of the various Methodist Churches desiring union, and to report to the next Conference. The following is the Committee: Rev. John Gould, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg, John S. Simon, Henry T. Smart, Dr. Stephenson; Messrs. Henry Holloway, John B. Ingle, George Lidgett, B.A., J. Bamford Slack, B.A., James E. Vanner, and Hugh Wyatt. The Rev. Henry T. Smart, Convener.

Juvenile Smoking.—The Conference views with grave apprehension the serious growth of the habit of smoking amongst young boys, and appeals to the workers in our Sunday Schools and Bands of Hope to use their influence to dissuade them from this injurious practice.

Church Officers and the Liquor Traffic.—1. The Conference re-affirms its Resolutions of last year; viz.

(1) The Conference was never more alive than at the present time to the dire results of the Liquor traffic, and rejoices in the progress of Temperance sentiment and practice in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, but feels that to interfere with the constitutional method of appointing our Church Officers is undesirable, in the interests of Temperance work itself, as well as on other grounds.

(2) At the same time, the Conference recommends our people to keep themselves free from complicity with a traffic the results of which are so injurious to the interests of religion, morality, and social life.

2. The Conference, whilst deeply deploring the manifold evils, spiritual, moral and physical, arising from the existing liquor traffic, confidently relies on the continued growth of moral conviction in the community, by the blessing of God, to remove the present national disgrace and danger. It once more earnestly exhorts our people to keep themselves free from complicity with the traffic, and to give their active support to all well considered efforts on behalf of temperance reform.

3. The Conference cannot, however, impose disabilities upon those who sell drink which would not apply to those who buy and use it; neither is it prepared to interfere with the rights and responsibilities of Circuit authorities in the election of Church Officers.

4. Furthermore, the Conference believes that the great ends of the Temperance movement can be secured without resort to methods of coercion which raise the gravest issues respecting the constitution of the Christian Church and the rights of the individual Christian conscience.

Twentieth Century Fund Report.—The Conference directs that the Historic Roll shall be the sole Record of the Fund, and that no further Report shall be prepared.

Q. XXVIII. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, thirty-eight:

(1) WALTER VERCOE: born at St. Austell, June 11, 1821. His early surroundings were those of a simple, earnest, and godly Methodist home, and his conversion at nineteen years of age was followed by an intense longing to be used by God in public service. In 1845 he offered himself as a Candidate for the Ministry. For forty-three years he laboured chiefly in the northern Districts. He became a member of the Legal Conference in 1890, and for several years was Financial Secretary of the Bolton District. In all his Circuits he left grateful memories, and his conscientious zeal more than once led to glorious revivals. He was a man of stainless honour and unblemished reputation, a successful preacher, and an affectionate pastor. "In age and feebleness extreme" he still continued the gracious task of visiting our people, and was lovingly welcomed in many homes. He was a man of prayer, a humble Christian, a faithful colleague, a careful administrator, a loyal Methodist. After fifty-two years' service he wrote these touching words: "The Lord knows

I have loved my work, and love to think about it still. I love the Methodist Connexion; I love its institutions; I love its ministers; I love its people; and hope to die a true and devoted, though a 'worn-out,' Wesleyan Methodist minister." The labours and sorrows of four-score years literally wore him out. Death thrice invaded his home in the most sudden manner, and his life was shadowed by trials and bereavements, but he came to his grave as "a shock of corn fully ripe." He died in sleep at Urmston on August 10, 1902.

(2) John Hutcheon, M.A.: who was converted to God at the age of twenty, and after a distinguished course at Aberdeen University was accepted as a Candidate for the Wesleyan Ministry. In 1856 he was sent to India, where for eighteen years he rendered great service to the cause of Christian education as Principal of our colleges in Bangalore and Mysore. He was also a devoted and successful evangelist, and his name is still cherished in the Mysore District. After leaving India he spent two years in Australia and then returned to England, where for many years he did valuable work as a circuit minister and military chaplain. To the last he had the heart of a missionary, and lost no opportunity of promoting the cause of God among the heathen. In every position that he filled he was found faithful. He was a careful man of business who gave attention to every point in our discipline. His life was one of close and habitual communion with God. His preaching was intensely earnest, with holiness as its favourite subject, and bore much fruit in the conversion of men and in the spiritual enrichment of the Church. He was a wise and good shepherd of the flock of Christ. His power in prayer was remarkable. When he retired from the cares of active ministerial work he made it his special business to plead at the throne of grace for his brethren and all committed to their charge. He wrote: "I am very happy. I have got promotion. I am no longer a herald, but an intercessor." His last words were an attempt to repeat the twenty-third Psalm, which one of his children was slowly reading to him. He passed to his rest on September 5, 1902, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

(3) James Nicholson (B) : born at Bedford on December 10, 1834. He was a Methodist of the fourth generation, and as he grew up to manhood he became ardently attached to our Church and her institutions. In 1859 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and after three years of diligent study was appointed as a Missionary to Ceylon, where he was privileged to spend three terms of service, covering thirty years. His previous training as a printer enabled him to render conspicuous service to the mission press. He had the joy of taking a leading part in the remarkable revival of religion with which our Church in Colombo was blessed in 1865. His second term in Ceylon, after an interval of three years in Circuit work in Macclesfield and one in Paris, was spent mainly in the pioneer extension mission in the Matara Section of the Galle District. Here, in the midst of a vast heathen population, he laboured steadily and patiently in evangelistic work, and in the establishment of village schools, in spite of much difficulty and discouragement. His third term of service was largely occupied with administrative work, his last appointment being that of Chairman of the Colombo District. He was compelled by ill-health to return to England in 1892, and in the brief home ministry which followed, and in the retirement of a Supernumerary's life, his missionary enthusiasm knew no decline. Ceylon was always on his heart. He passed somewhat suddenly and most peacefully to the "rest that remaineth to the people of God" on October 18, 1902.

(4) Gregory A. Page : born in Dartford in the year 1818. He was the child of devout parents. In boyhood the influence of his mother and his Sunday-school teacher wrought powerfully upon him, and he was kept from open vice, though he was a wanderer from God until his sixteenth year, when, under a sermon preached by the Rev. Richard Rymer, he was convinced of sin and found no rest until he surrendered himself to Christ. At the age of eighteen he was appointed a local preacher, and in 1839 was nominated as a Candidate for the Ministry. He was at the Theological Institution for three years, making a most diligent and conscientious use of his opportunities. For forty-one years he exercised a powerful ministry. As an administrator and pastor he was wise, discriminating, tender, and faithful; in winning men to God he was blessed in a remarkable degree; his ministry being awakening, soul-saving, and edifying. He read much and well, and the people to whom he ministered respected and loved him as one who ever gave them of his best. His labours on behalf of temperance were continuous throughout his ministry. The eventide of his life was a period of peace, and in Pontefract he enjoyed a quiet resting-place, entering into all the interests of our Church life with loving sympathy. Only a few hours before his departure he joined in singing "Jesu, lover of my soul," and among his last words were, "The Spirit itself beareth witness with my spirit." Early on Sunday morning, October 26, 1902, he entered into rest in the eighty-fourth year of his age and the sixty-third of his ministry.

(5) Hugh Price Hughes, M.A.: born at Carmarthen February 6, 1847. His grandfather, the Rev. Hugh Hughes, was a Welsh Methodist minister of distinction, the first Welshman elected to the Legal Conference. His father, John Hughes, J.P., was a public-spirited medical man, strongly attached to Methodism. At the age of thirteen Hugh Price Hughes was led to decision for Christ, and in the following year was placed on trial as a local preacher in the Swansea Circuit. In 1866 he entered Richmond College, where his remarkable gifts were at once recognised. His first Circuit was Dover, where he became an ardent evangelist, a temperance advocate, and an enthusiast in the cause of social purity. Years of extraordinarily successful labour were then spent in the Brighton, Stoke Newington, Mostyn Road (London), Oxford, and Brixton Hill (London) Circuits. During his ministry at Brixton Hill he became editor of the Methodist Times. In 1887 he was appointed first Superintendent of the West London Mission, of which St. James's Hall was made the headquarters. Here his wide and generous aims and his remarkable powers of organisation and administration had ample scope. His powerful preaching led to the conversion of multitudes; and with great plainness and courage he applied the principles of the gospel to the social questions of the day. With the aid of Mrs. Hughes and his colleagues he organised the Sisterhood and other agencies which have made the West London Mission a fruitful example of philanthropic activity to the Christian world. In 1898 he was elected President of the Conference. The Conference over which he presided was remarkable for the inauguration of the Twentieth Century Fund. Into this great enterprise he threw himself with characteristic zeal, and contributed largely to its success. His presidential year was further distinguished by a series of District Conventions of ministers and Christian workers with a view to enrich the spiritual life and stimulate the activity of the Church. His addresses at these Conventions were intensely earnest and produced a deep impression. During his Presidency and for the remaining years of his life he was Chairman of the Second London District. In this position his powers of organisation and his ability to discern what was needed for the times found an important field for their exercise. He sought to continue the work of his predecessors in the strengthening of feeble stations, especially by combining them into strong circuits. With intense loyalty to his own Church, he joined a catholic interest in the Church at large, and especially in the Evangelical Free Churches. He was one of the founders of the National Free Church Council, and its President in 1896. In 1901 it became evident that his strenuous labours were affecting his health. During the United Mission of the Evangelical Free Churches in Manchester, which he was entering upon with characteristic earnestness and energy, his nervous system suffered a complete collapse, from which he never entirely recovered. After a long rest, however, he returned in September, 1902, to his work in the West London Mission. He and his friends indulged sanguine hopes that a measure of his former strength would be restored, but it was not the will of God. On the evening of Sunday, November 17, 1902, he preached with great power at St. James's Hall. On the afternoon of the following day he attended a meeting of the Christian Conference at Sion College. Whilst returning home he was seized with illness, and in about an hour, surrounded by loved ones, he breathed his last. On Friday, November 21, after one of the most memorable funeral services ever held in Wesley's Chapel, his body was committed to the earth at the Highgate Cemetery. A great wave of sorrow passed over all the Churches, not only of England, but of the world. It was universally recognised that a distinguished Methodist, a noble Christian, and a great citizen had passed away.

It is difficult to characterise such a man. He was a fervid preacher; a passionate denouncer of social wrongs; an orator, speaking with a vehemence almost startling; a debater of unsurpassed readiness and skill, and of extraordinary energy and force; and a journalist, writing with great intensity of conviction. All the gifts which he thus displayed were combined in his work as an evangelist, and consecrated by an intense passion for the salvation of men. The singleness of his aim, the frankness of his spirit, and the geniality of his nature caused him to be regarded with unbounded affection by those who knew him best. He was a whole-hearted Methodist, having unbounded faith in the doctrines, polity, and future of the Church he loved. In the counsels of Methodism, whether in Committees or the Conference, he took a prominent part. He was at the same time, in the true sense, a great Churchman, with a catholic spirit, ever seeking to help forward the whole Church of God. So individual a character, so fervid and vehement a spirit as his, almost of necessity led occasionally to sharp controversy with some of his brethren, but no man could well be more generous in spirit, or more ready to live on terms of friendly regard with those from whom he differed.

The rare combination of qualities which he possessed made him one of the most conspicuous and successful ministers ever given by God to the Methodist Church. Perhaps no Methodist minister has been more widely or deeply lamented, alike by his brother ministers and the Church he so sincerely loved and so unsparingly served. In his will he requested that on his tombstone should be inscribed the words, "Thou, O Christ, art all I want."

(6) ARTHUR H. MALE: born at Luton, December 10, 1850. He was the son of the Rev. Matthew T. Male, whose name stands high on the roll of Indian missionaries. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove and Kingswood, and at an early age felt impelled to follow his father's example and give himself for the evangelization of India. After a course of training at Richmond College, he was appointed to Calcutta, proceeding afterwards to Lucknow, whence he went as chaplain to the troops through the great Afghan campaign, including the famous march to Kandahar. He was subsequently stationed as chaplain at Malta. Here, too, came the call for service in the field among the troops engaged in Egypt, in the campaign that reached its climax at Tel-el-Kebir. In 1883 he returned to England, and his subsequent years were spent in the home work. He never lost his deep interest in India, nor did he in his Circuits fail to convey his convictions to the Churches under his charge. He was a preacher of a high order, and his expositions of the sacred Scriptures were full of light and inspiration. His last Circuit was Portsmouth (Wesley), and there he won all hearts. His congregations were struck by the power of his preaching, by his kindly and loving spirit, his chastened, Christ-like life. His keen, perceptive, and logical mind was placed under the subduing and guiding influence of the Holy Spirit. A wide knowledge of human nature and intense love for Methodism made him a wise counsellor and faithful colleague. Often in most agonising pain, he still manifested a cheerful spirit of resignation to the Father's will. He died on November 18, 1902, in the twenty-ninth year of his ministry, in the full assurance of faith.

(7) Thomas H. Wilkin: born June 20, 1851, at Gwinear, in the county of Cornwall. His father was a local preacher, and the surroundings of his home life were such as to lead him, while young, to give himself to God. He became a member of the Church in his fourteenth year. In 1874 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and sent to Richmond College. After two years there, he went to South Africa, where he became District Missionary in the Grahamstown District. This work often involved long journeys in the saddle, but it greatly delighted him, and his services were much appreciated alike by colonist and Kaffir. In the Zulu War of 1879 he was appointed chaplain to the Wesleyan troops serving in that campaign. During this service on the Tugela he was stricken down with enteric fever of a severe type. The effects of this, through more than twenty years of suffering, gradually wore down a constitution of more than ordinary strength. After the Zulu campaign he was appointed successively to the Port Alfred and Port Elizabeth Circuits, but the state of his health compelled him to return to England in 1882. The change to England so far restored him as to enable him to take Circuit work till the Conference of 1887, when severe affliction compelled him to become a Supernumerary. After five years he returned to the full work, in which he remained till his death. As a minister he was greatly beloved, not only for his forceful preaching, but because of his great diligence as a pastor. No duty was more sacred, no privilege higher, than to visit his flock. His long fellowship with suffering made him ready to sympathise with those who were afflicted. The end came on November 18, 1902, when he peacefully entered into rest in the fifty-second year of his age and the twenty-seventh of his ministry.

(8) THOMAS CHOPE: was born at Bideford in 1825. He was led to religious decision in early life, chiefly through the influence of his mother, and became a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. He entered the Ministry in 1848, in the full work of which he continued for forty-six years. His ministry was exercised in some of the most important Circuits of the Connexion with acceptance and success. His thoughtful expositions of divine truth were instructive and helpful to the members of the Church, while his faithful words to the unconverted and his intense zeal for their salvation made him a successful soul-winner. He was a good shepherd of the flock committed to his care, and his presence and ministry in the homes of the people were ever welcome and blessed. By his Christian character, kindly disposition, and untiring devotion, he gained the affection of those among whom he laboured. He was wise in counsel, an able and judicious Superintendent of Circuits and Chairman of Districts, and greatly beloved by his colleagues in the Ministry. He sought not only to conserve but to extend the work of God in his Circuits, and was successful in promoting the erection of new churches. Becoming a Supernumerary in 1894, he still rendered valuable service, in both preaching and pastoral work. During the last two years of his life he bore a painful affliction with perfect submission and unshaken trust. He was called home to God on November 24, 1902, in the seventy-eighth year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(9) John Mackintosh: born in 1838, his father being an honoured Wesleyan minister. When nineteen years of age he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and sent to Richmond College. After only six months' residence, he was called out to supply in the Portland Circuit, where he took part in a most remarkable revival, the fire of which was never extinguished in his heart. Throughout his entire career his preaching was characterised by warmth, directness, and force. He constantly had the joy of seeing his expectations realised in the conversion of souls. For more than half of the years of his active ministry he was in Yorkshire Circuits. But perhaps his greatest success was achieved in the Ludlow Circuit, where a firm stand for righteousness was followed by a revival which spread over the whole Circuit. He was a hard worker, a diligent pastor, and a firm disciplinarian. The Scotch strain in his blood showed itself in his sturdy independence. His candour and outspokenness were accompanied by kindliness of heart and deep sympathies. Physically and mentally robust, he had a fine, even flow of good spirits, which helped him over many a difficulty. He was a genial, considerate, and brotherly colleague, and a warm and faithful friend. His end was unexpected. While serving with great success as a Supernumerary Minister at Llanrwst, in the Colwyn Bay Circuit, he succumbed to a virulent attack of typhoid fever on December 8, 1902.

(10) John Clements: born at Shotley Bridge on October 26, 1841. His parents were Methodists, but his mother died when he was three years of age, a fact which gave him in later years a very tender sympathy for little children and young people, and a deep and active interest in their welfare. In his twentieth year, while reading Wesley's sermon on "Justification by Faith," he finally decided for Christ. When preparing for the legal profession, he received the call to preach the gospel, and entered the Ministry in 1866. He was a man of scholarly tastes and wide reading. A natural and easy manner, a humorous and logical mind, and a rare fund of apt illustration made him a forceful and attractive speaker, while his profoundly religious nature and diligent study of Holy Scripture rendered his preaching practical, earnest, and effective. A bright and sunny disposition and a manly Christian character, combined with the instincts of the true gentleman, gained for him the love and esteem of our people, in whose homes he was welcomed by young and old alike as a true and helpful friend and faithful pastor. As a Superintendent he was painstaking and conscientious. Possessing an accurate knowledge of Methodism and a natural aptitude for dealing with men and affairs, his strength as an administrator was conspicuous. His colleagues knew and loved him as a man of frank, generous, and brotherly spirit. Soon after the Conference of 1901 he manifested signs of nervous collapse, which steadily developed until his death at Ashford, in Kent, on December 17, 1902, in the sixty-second year of his age and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(11) GEORGE BOGGIS: born in London, January 31, 1842. He was engaged for some years in business life in Lancashire. Here he acquired those habits of promptitude, punctuality, and accuracy which were conspicuous in his after-life. He was converted under the preaching of Rev. Peter Mackenzie, and accepted for the Ministry in 1866. After nine years' work in the provinces, he went to London, where he laboured for eighteen consecutive years. In 1893 he received his first appointment to St. Just. Here he found a most congenial sphere. In all his Circuits he had witnessed conversions, but his greatest success was in this appointment. The Cornish people heartily appreciated his brotherliness, sociability, and evangelistic fervour. He possessed remarkable business capacities, and was successful in removing trust debts and in erecting chapels. His preaching was earnest and evangelical. He was a diligent pastor, knowing and loving his people, and known and beloved by them. While stationed at Ryde in 1900, he endured the great sorrow of his life, the loss of his wife, a blow from which he never recovered. He was reappointed to St. Just in 1902, but after three months' labour, while attending a missionary meeting, was seized with paralysis. At the end of a fortnight's illness, borne with Christian resignation, he entered his heavenly rest on December 23, 1902, in the sixty-first year of his age and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(12) JOHN H. LORD: son of the Rev. William Lord, was born at Buxton, April 22, 1819, and died on December 29, 1902, in his eighty-fourth year. He was educated for the medical profession; but while at the Medical Schools in Bristol, he attended a service at the Bethel, and at that service gave his heart to God. He became a local preacher, and shortly after entered the Ministry. As a preacher he was expository, instructive, and practical; as a pastor he was eminently faithful and diligent. His visits to his people were greatly appreciated, especially in homes of affliction and sorrow. He was a wise administrator and an esteemed and beloved colleague. He was Chairman of important Districts, and in 1881 was elected a member of the Legal Conference. At the Conference of 1873 he was appointed to the Governorship of Kingswood School, a post which he filled with distinction for twelve years. His business capacity, his high character, his chivalrous kind-heartedness, and his youthfulness, in spite of his years, won him the love and admiration of the staff and the boys alike. His character was a singular combination of gentleness and strength. He delighted in charity—the charity that deviseth liberal things. He was one of the saintliest of men, greatly beloved and esteemed. His pure and beautiful spirit was distinctly the fruit of grace and truth. On his retirement from the Governorship he also retired from the more active work of the Ministry, and at length settled down at Taunton, where he ended his days in great peace. His last words were, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." His memory is precious, and will long live in the hearts of those who were privileged to enjoy his friendship and ministry.

(13) HENRY R. BURTON: born at Bradbury, near Darlington, in the year 1831. He was brought up in a Methodist home, his father being a local preacher and class-leader, who held services in the kitchen of his farmhouse. He was converted in his fifteenth year whilst at school at Darlington, and just after he was twenty became a Candidate for the Ministry. After spending a year at Richmond College, he received his first appointment to Sevenoaks. For forty-two years he did the full work of a Methodist preacher earnestly, faithfully, and in a devout and prayerful spirit, which made his ministry rich in spiritual results. In the Warrington and Lincoln Circuits he was particularly successful. Among the sailors of the Seamen's Mission and the soldiers at Gosport his work was signally owned of God. In 1897 he was elected into the Legal Conference. His health broke down during his third year at Epworth, and at the following Conference he became a Supernumerary. He had a deep sense of the importance of the preacher's office, and found his greatest joy in holding up a living Saviour before perishing men. In the homes of the poor, by the bedside of the sick and dying, and in ministering comfort to souls in trouble, he was seen at his best. During his last illness, when his mind was wandering he still thought himself engaged in pastoral work, praying with the sick and comforting the sorrowing. Among his last words were: "I shall soon see the King in His beauty," "We shall all meet in heaven, no wanderer lost." Chastened by affliction, sanctified by grace, and perfected in love, death was to him a translation. He died at Wood Green, London, January 4, 1903.

(14) THOMAS L. PARKER: born at Haughton-le-Skern, near Darlington, April 7, 1827. When eighteen years of age he went to South Africa, and during a brief sojourn there experienced the pardoning love and mercy of God. Returning to England, he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and in 1853 he received his first appointment, and for sixteen years travelled in Scotland. He was scholarly and well read, frank, genial, gentlemanly, of a kindly nature, and loved of many. He was a man of deep convictions, cherishing a constant and vivid sense of a loving God. He was a good preacher, earnest, and expository; an effective platform speaker, taking great interest in Christian missions and the work of God generally; a diligent and helpful pastor. The doctrines of Methodism were the food and rejoicing of his soul, its fellowship an unfailing delight. His was a fruitful ministry, and "many will be the crown of his rejoicing in the day of the Lord Jesus." On retiring from full work, he continued to preach to the limit of his strength. His closing years were spent at Pontefract. As the end drew near he said, "It is all right; I have no rapture, but I have peace." On Sunday morning, January 11, 1903, he passed to the service and joy of the heavenly Sabbath.

(15) William E. Codling: born at King's Lynn, April 15, 1844. He was the only son of devoted Methodist parents. When he was fifteen years of age his mother died suddenly, and at her graveside he consecrated his life to Christ and His Church. In obedience to the call of God, he offered himself for the Ministry. After two years at Richmond he began his ministerial life at Barnsley. In a ministry of thirty-seven years, most of which were spent in Lancashire, he gave himself wholly to the service of our Church. He was interested especially in temperance work. He was for a short time co-secretary of our Temperance Committee, and for a longer period joint editor of the Temperance Magazine. The work in this department owed much to his wise advocacy and skilful guidance. His preaching was strongly Protestant and evangelical, and always instructive and stimulating.

He was especially faithful and conscientious as a pastor, and in public and private intensely loyal to our Church. In his later years he suffered much acute and prostrating pain, which was borne with brave and uncomplaining patience; he endured as seeing Him who is invisible. His last few months were spent at Southport, where he entered into rest, very peacefully, January 13, 1903, in the fifty-ninth year of his life and the thirty-eighth year of his ministry.

(16) JOHN P. ELTON: son of the Rev. William Elton, born at St. Helens, Lancashire, on February 2, 1843. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove School and Taunton College. Obedient to the call of the Spirit and of the Church, in 1866 he entered the Ministry. From his first appointment at Shrewsbury to his last at Peterborough he gave full proof of his ministry, and his memory is blessed by many. He was widely read, had fine literary and artistic tastes, and was a lover of all things beautiful in nature and character. He was a good preacher, an effective platform speaker, a diligent and sympathetic pastor, a wise administrator, and a firm believer in Methodism and its mission. While loyally attached to our own Church, he was truly catholic in spirit, and a keen observer of all movements—intellectual, moral, and social. Young in heart, alert, enthusiastic, it seemed as if he had many years of usefulness before him; but the end came somewhat suddenly, though it found him as "one who waits for his Lord." On the early morning of January 15, 1903, he passed through death into the better life.

(17) JOHN MCKENNY: born at Redruth, August 7, 1822. He was the youngest of eight children, and being early left fatherless had few educational advantages, but diligently sought to educate himself. As a child he came under powerful religious influence, and at thirteen years of age was led to decision for God at a cottage prayer-meeting. He began to preach at seventeen, and was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry before he was twenty. He entered Richmond College a year later. In 1846 he was appointed to the Camelford Circuit. Here he began to devote a day a week to prayer and fasting. After one such period of communion with God a gracious revival of religion commenced at the week evening service, the fruits of which remain unto this day. From that time his ministry was greatly blessed in the conversion of sinners. A considerable portion of his later ministry was spent in London. In all his Circuits he showed remarkable tact, energy, and devotion. He was a model Superintendent, simple, homely, genial, faithful, yet withal a most diligent student and expounder of Holy Writ. He had a rare and most gracious faculty for dealing with individual souls. As a pastor and class-leader he was diligent and successful, his earnest appeals and plain dealing being greatly aided by his quaint and irrepressible humour. After forty-six years in the full work of the Ministry, he became a Supernumerary in 1891. For several years afterwards he undertook pastoral duties in the Kentish Town and Lewisham Circuits successively. His ministerial jubilee occurred whilst he was residing in the Lewisham Circuit. His many friends presented to the new church at Catford, of which he had pastoral charge, a handsome pulpit as a memorial of his long and faithful ministry. In 1897 he finally retired from active work, and went to reside with his daughter at Hastings. Life's eventide was filled with loving service as long as strength allowed him to preach or to visit. Then came a period of weakness and suffering, till he entered into life on January 17, 1903, in the eighty-first year of his age and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(18) William S. Bestall: born October 11, 1817. In early life he was brought under religious and Methodist influences, and became deeply attached to the Church of his choice. He intended to enter the medical profession, but when called to the work of the Ministry his response was enthusiastic and whole-hearted. He was a great reader and an accurate thinker, and to the very end of his ministry he prepared his sermons with most painstaking thoroughness. He delighted in preaching, and his discourses, which were at once expository and evangelical, exerted a life-long influence on large numbers of his hearers. He administered many wide and laborious Circuits with sound judgment and great fidelity. He witnessed several genuine revivals, and some of his spiritual children are now in the Ministry. He took special interest in young men, and greatly aided them in their studies and difficulties. Always devoted to foreign missions, he rejoiced exceedingly when two of his sons became missionaries, two daughters the wives of missionaries, and his eldest son Circuit Steward of a Kaffir Circuit in South Africa. After forty-six years in the full work of the Ministry, he took charge for five years of a young cause at Ilford, where there is to-day a flourishing Church. He then retired to Clapton, where he loved to work as actively as possible. He conducted services to within a few months of his decease, and almost his last sermon was productive of a remarkable conversion. Thus he continued to "bear fruit in old age." The eventide was calm and bright. To the last he retained his interest in the current life and thought of the Church. He was confined to his room only one day. To his wife, children, and grandchildren who surrounded his bed he gave his blessing, and the glorious testimony, "Peace, perfect peace." He then fell asleep on January 18, 1903, in the eighty-sixth year of his age and the sixty-third of his ministry.

(19) JOHN PINKNEY: born at Kilham, in the Bridlington Circuit, August 12, 1817. He was brought up by an uncle who was a strict Churchman. Early in life, however, he was associated with Methodism, and having obtained forgiveness of sins and peace with God, he soon began to preach, and entered the Ministry in 1840. In 1843 he was sent to India as a missionary, and laboured with much acceptance and success in Negapatam, Mannargudi, Trichinopoly, and Bangalore. After twenty years' service abroad, he was compelled by ill-health to return to this country, and was appointed to English Circuits until 1874, when he retired from the active work. He continued to render valuable service as a Supernumerary, eventually settling at Heanor in 1887. He was upright and unselfish, refined and courteous in manner, and fervent and cheerful in his piety. He was a genial and lovable colleague, a loyal Methodist, and a faithful servant of God. As a preacher he was original and intensely practical. His sermons were prepared with great care. They consisted chiefly of expositions of doctrine, and were delivered with clearness and power. He was an enthusiastic missionary advocate. In this work his whole soul kindled, and every power he possessed came into effective exercise. Though much afflicted for many years, his sufferings were borne with exemplary patience and cheerfulness. In his increasing feebleness he was full of hope and confidence with regard to the ultimate triumph of the truth. On January 23, 1903, he entered into rest, in the eighty-sixth year of his age and the sixtieth of his ministry.

(20) W. Charles Williams: born at Aberystwyth about the year 1840. When seventeen years of age he was soundly converted, at Cardiff, under the ministry of the Rev. John Holmes, and identified himself with the Wesleyan Methodist Church. After his conversion, he at once gave himself heart and soul to Christian work. The call to the Ministry came to him clearly and imperatively, and in 1862 the Conference accepted him as a Candidate for immediate work. As a circuit minister, he gave himself to his duties with whole-hearted devotion. He was a thoughtful and helpful preacher, a wise and firm administrator, and a diligent and sympathetic pastor. Alike in the sanctuary and in the home people were uplifted by the spiritual force and the unction of his prayers. For some years before his death he suffered much pain, but through all he was patient and unmurmuring. In one of his favourite books was found written, "The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth me from all sin. Glory! glory! glory! I believe it! I believe it!" He died suddenly at Market Weighton, Yorkshire, on February 5, 1903.

(21) WILLIAM WATERS: was born at Islington, London, on August 10, 1846. He was led to Christ during the Rev. John Rattenbury's ministry in the Liverpool Road Circuit, and immediately began to work in connexion with a mission-room in Pentonville. Here he was instrumental in leading both his father and mother to the Saviour, and the success of his labours set the seal to his call to the Ministry, which he obeyed in the year 1868. It was a life-long regret to him that he was not permitted to go to the Theological Institution. He endeavoured to repair this loss by devoting himself diligently to study. He was a man of deep piety. His kindly sympathy made him a brotherly colleague and a faithful pastor. His sermons were carefully prepared, and he laboured with acceptance in some of the leading Circuits in Methodism. In every place it was his chief aim to promote a revival of the work of God. The increase of feebleness necessitated his retirement from active work after only thirty-three years' service. The shadow of his own ill-health was deepened by heavy family affliction; but the chastening discipline only mellowed his character. Throughout, his mind preserved a calm serenity, and his strong faith in God's unchanging love and gracious purposes never wavered. He passed away suddenly in the early morning of February 18, 1903. In him the world has lost a beautiful example of Christ's saving grace, and the Church a loyal, devoted, and successful minister.

(22) GEORGE DU VAL: born in Jersey on April 6, 1846. His conversion took place in early life, and he at once gave himself to the Master's service with whole-hearted consecration. For some time he was engaged as an evangelist in France, and was eventually received into the Ministry under the French Conference in 1879. His work in the Cevennes was pursued with untiring zeal, and will not soon be forgotten. The greater part of his ministry, however, was exercised in the Channel Islands. He especially excelled as a pastor, going in and out among the people of his charge with a diligence and fidelity which won for him a large place in their affection. To the tried and sorrowful, the sick and dying, he was eminently a "son of consolation." Many are the testimonies borne to the warmth and exceeding tenderness of his sympathy. During the last few years of his life his health was completely shattered, and his days were spent in extreme weakness. But all through this long season of retirement and frequent pain, his patience and submission to the will of God never failed. To those who were privileged to visit him, the manifestation of the gentler Christian graces emphasised what had been one of the most prominent lessons of his more active ministerial life. He was released from his sufferings, and, on February 19, 1903, entered into rest.

(23) James Kendall: born September 9, 1814; departed this life March 3, 1903. In early life, during a revival of religion, he was brought to a knowledge of the truth. In due course it became clear that he possessed gifts and graces which pointed to the Christian Ministry. To that work he was called, and entered upon it with singular devotion. He served with fidelity and efficiency for a period much beyond the average; and his solid gifts and sterling qualities endeared him to the people whom he served. His sermons, the result of prayerful study, were greatly valued. By judicious oversight he secured the peace and prosperity of his Circuits. Always and everywhere the Christian gentleman, from first to last his career was marked by singleness of aim and simplicity of purpose. He was pre-eminently a good man. His life was rooted in the unseen and eternal; it was a conscious converse with God in Christ; he lived in the atmosphere of devotion. He was dignified in bearing, lofty in character, highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. Naturally diffident, he was not wont to speak much of himself. After long and honourable service there came a period of comparative rest, in which working gave place to waiting. During the closing months there was no gloom; his cheerfulness was unfailing. The decay of the outer man was gradual and gentle. Without either fear or pain he died in faith, in the unfaltering conviction that he was not losing life, but gaining it.

(24) JOHN H. WILKINSON: born at Low Moor, Clitheroe, in 1849. At a very early age, being surrounded by good home influences, he was led to religious decision. With his mind once fixed, he held his place tenaciously and consistently unto the end. He found work in the Sunday school, and sought to help and guide his youthful companions, at the same time developing his gifts and preparing for further and higher calls to service. In the year 1877, although married, he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. His was a quiet and reflective disposition; he loved his study, though not a recluse; the sorrowing and needy had a warm place in his sympathies, and he had a tender feeling for struggling youth. He possessed a brotherly spirit, and was always accessible. He was pre-eminently a preacher. The ministry of the word was his special joy, and his sermons were expressed in simple but dignified language, and relieved and enriched by frequent illustrations. His departure took place very suddenly. On his return from a visit to one of the places in the Barnoldswick Circuit, he was suddenly overcome with faintness, and before help could be given passed away peacefully to his reward on March 5, 1903, in the fifty-fourth year of his age and the twenty-sixth of his ministry.

(25) Walford Green, D.D.: born at Whitchurch, Salop, January 5, 1833. He feared the Lord from his youth. Home training and parental example were powerful influences in the formation of his character. He was brought to religious decision through the preaching of the Rev. Benjamin Smith (A), and soon began to exhort others to come to Christ. His call to the Ministry was unmistakable. In his first year as a student at Didsbury College he volunteered for service abroad, and was sent to the West Indies. But his missionary career was soon cut short, and he had to return home in shattered health. After a remarkable recovery he spent twenty-seven years in prominent home Circuits, and was in his eighteenth year of service as head of the Office of Connexional Funds, and his fifteenth as Chairman of the Third London District, when, after a short illness, he was called home. He was chosen a member of the Legal Conference in 1882; elected President of the Conference in 1894; and sent as Representative to the Methodist Church of Canada in 1902.

His natural disposition was bright and genial, and was refined by the working of divine grace in his heart. The light of consecration to God shone brightly in his life. He communed with the Saviour and caught the radiance of His presence. He walked in the light of God's countenance; he lived in the open sunshine of God's love. He was a man of firm faith, a constant and careful student of divinity. He read the best books, and kept himself abreast of the thought of the day. But he loved most of all to study the word of God. Preaching was his delight; he was an enthusiastic sermoniser in his busiest years, and even to the close of his life. His sermons were carefully prepared and impressively delivered. His appeals were tender, earnest, faithful. He was fond of telling how his mother used to exhort him to exalt Christ in every sermon, and he certainly followed her advice. He took special interest in evangelistic services, and was never happier than when sinners were led to the Saviour. In concert with a brother minister he prepared a special

Handbook of Revival Missions, which was of great service, especially in Bradford. The great modern missions of Methodism had his hearty sympathy and support. As a circuit minister he was faithful and successful, minding all parts of our discipline, great and small. His knowledge of human nature and his keen power of sympathy made him greatly beloved as a pastor. His personality was peculiarly winning; the poor, the sick, the bereaved, and little children were attracted to him and led by him to the Shepherd and Bishop of souls. He was a loyal friend, especially happy in his home life and in social intercourse. As Chairman of the Third London District he rendered service beyond the common, nurturing and developing Methodism in both town and country, and watching over his charge with a most loving care. He had a strong grasp of business details, and took comprehensive views of Methodist affairs. He delighted in work, and lost "the duty in the joy." He was devoted to Church business, but did not "leave the word of God, and serve tables." So far from that, he gave himself "continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word." He was a wise counsellor and an efficient administrator. The funds of Methodism—especially the Auxiliary Fund and the Theological Institution Fund—owe much to his wise oversight. He loved the brethren, and was ever ready to recognise and to rejoice in the good work done by them. His example inspired others to cheerful activity. He was a "man of God . . . throughly furnished unto all good works." His death was unexpected, and the news of it brought upon our whole Church a sense of personal bereavement. Everybody loved him. He passed peacefully through the Gates of Life on March 12, 1903, in the seventy-first year of his age and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(26) JOHN S. ROBINSON: born at Penrith, March 15, 1837; died at Bournemouth, March 14, 1903. He was the son of Methodist parents, and was especially indebted to his mother's faithful teaching and godly example. When about eighteen years of age he was brought to religious decision by the ministry of the Rev. John Hannah, and soon began to undertake evangelistic work in a ragged school and in adjacent villages. In 1865 he was accepted for the Ministry, and was at once appointed to a Circuit. For thirty-five years he laboured in Circuits chiefly in the south and west of England, and in 1900 became a Supernumerary. He was a diligent student of Holy Scripture and general literature. His sermons were addressed rather to the reason than to the emotions. He had the advantage of a good voice and some elocutionary gifts, which he cultivated and consecrated. To the last he had a firm faith in the gospel he preached. His end was sudden and unexpected, but peaceful.

(27) John Drayton Thomas: born at Manchester, October 17, 1835, was the son of the Rev. John Wesley Thomas. Educated at Kingswood, he entered on a business career at Boston, where, under the ministry of the Rev. James Sugden, he gave himself to God. He began at once to seek the salvation of others, giving evidence of much ability and earnestness. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry by the Conference of 1859. For forty years he laboured in various Circuits with zeal, fidelity, and acceptance. He became a Supernumerary at the Conference of 1899, and in 1901 settled at Ramsgate, where for two years he enjoyed opportunities of frequent service, and was greatly beloved and esteemed. On Sunday, April 19, 1903, the day before he died, he preached and administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Towards the close of the following day the end came suddenly, without warning of any kind. He was a man of strongly marked characteristics. He was the soul of honour and a model of ministerial fidelity. Depth of principle and an ever-present sense of duty were the animating features of his life. His attention to his work in all its details was unfailing and scrupulous. His knowledge of our constitution and polity was exact and full, and served him in good stead in difficult and trying positions. He loved the work of the pulpit, and his preaching was terse, forceful, and richly evangelical. Pastoral work was done with assiduity and system, and his circuit visiting lists are a revelation of his unwearied diligence. He was a familiar figure in the homes of his people. He was a strong man, brave and uncompromising in his belief and declarations; but this conspicuous strength of character was combined and tempered by a tender, sensitive, and unassuming disposition. "He was a good man, full of faith and the Holy Ghost."

(28) THOMAS PUDDICOMBE: born at Faringdon, October 9, 1848, was the only son of the Rev. Alexander Puddicombe, and was educated at Woodhouse Grove and Taunton College. Early religious impressions, nurtured in a godly home, deepened into conviction of personal acceptance with God and a call to the Christian Ministry. In 1872 he was sent to Headingley College, where he laid foundations of scholarship which were afterwards constantly built upon. He had an acute and vigorous intellect, and a passion for first-class literature. Of political and ecclesiastical matters he was a close observer and a keen critic. His preaching was marked by reverence, careful, and often felicitous, exposition, a firm grasp of vital doctrines, insight into human nature, mental balance, spiritual sympathy, and a vigorous delivery. Greatly interested in young people he formed theological classes, and contributed frequently to the periodical press, especially the Preacher's Magazine. Genial and frank with his colleagues, tender-hearted towards those in trouble, he lived in the Master's presence. In 1901 he was appointed Superintendent of the Newcastle (Elswick Road) Circuit, and at the Conference of 1902 was appointed Secretary of the District. In these offices he displayed method and administrative ability. He was looking forward to the Synod in May, and had completed his preparations for it. But his work was done. On Sunday, April 26, 1903, he preached at Consett, lectured at the same place on the Monday night; but on Tuesday, April 28, "he was not, for God took him."

(29) Abel Wood: born at Stockport, December 19, 1830. He was brought to a saving knowledge of Christ when he was eighteen years of age. Three years later he preached his first sermon. His ministry began in 1855, and for forty-one years he remained in active work, rendering in all his Circuits quiet and unostentatious, but faithful and diligent, service. His sermons were thoughtful, expository, earnest, and evangelical, full of evidence that the preacher himself did not neglect either mental or spiritual discipline. His conduct of worship was characterised by the reverence of a man of God, and his daily walk and conversation strengthened his influence in the pulpit. His practice was in harmony with his teaching, and his experience with his creed. His courtesy, gentleness, and self-forgetfulness were conspicuous. He was a judicious administrator, a conscientious and affectionate pastor, a brotherly colleague, a man of great uprightness, and one who gave much charm to the sacred relationships of home. In 1896 he became a Supernumerary in the Bradford (Great Horton) Circuit, where he maintained the happiest associations with the other ministers and with the Society, and cheerfully co-operated with them to the utmost of his ability. The sufferings through which he had sometimes to pass were borne with quiet patience and confidence in God. On Saturday, May 2, at the usual hour of evening prayer he commended his family to God with special fervour, and then retired to rest; but early on Sunday morning, May 3, 1903, he expired in his sleep, changing without a struggle the rest of earth for that "Sabbath rest" into which he had given diligence to enter.

(30) Josiah T. Slugg: began life under the most favourable auspices. He was the grandson of the Rev. Thomas Slugg and the only son of a well known Manchester Methodist, a man of considerable mental powers. His early years were therefore spent in an atmosphere imbued with intelligence and godliness, and his knowledge of Christ and His salvation grew with his growth, compelling him to forgo a promising business career for the work of preaching the gospel. He became a Candidate in 1872, and afterwards spent three years at Didsbury. In the work of the Ministry he speedily made his mark as a man of original gifts, wide reading, and great kindliness of spirit. His sermons were practical, and aptly illustrated by events of social and national life. The play of a kindly humour gave a singular charm to many of his public utterances. He was a keen student, and his contributions to our literature revealed independent thought, especially on the threatening problems of modern life, and were expressed in crisp, vigorous English. In social life his personal simplicity and openness of character won for him abiding friendships. He succeeded always in seeing the best in others. The charity that thinketh no evil was unmistakably his. In the homes of our people, and by his brethren, his memory is treasured with grateful affection. He was a man much beloved. In the weary days of his last illness, in spite of sleeplessness and nervous distress, his mind remained alert, and his spirit grew ever more tender and devoted. Hoping almost to the last for restoration to better and nobler work for his Master on earth, he passed peacefully to rest on May 20, 1903, in the fifty-second year of his age and the twenty-ninth of his ministry.

(31) Samuel Arnold: born at Spalding in 1853. He was brought up in a truly Christian home, and led to Christ when nine years old by his Sunday-school teacher. In 1876 he offered for the Ministry, and was accepted for the foreign field. At Richmond he won the love and trust of all who knew him. The Conference sent him to the Calcutta District in 1879, and there he had the honour to be the first to preach Christ to the vast native populace of Rungpur. In 1882 Mr. Arnold was compelled, by failure of health, to return home, and so suffered the greatest disappointment of his life. A period of rest and the care of loving hands enabled him to enter the home work, and in each of his Circuits he laboured with great acceptance and success. His character was lofty; his sympathies wide; his faith deep and well defined. As a minister he was large-hearted, but very loyal to his own Church; as a preacher he was earnest, sympathetic, and sincere. To his brethren he was both cordial and true, while a gift of quiet humour gave especial pleasure to friends who knew him well. His Indian service left its mark upon him. In pain and patience, as a loyal servant of Christ, he "bore the brands of the Lord Jesus." He died unexpectedly, but peacefully, in the early morning of June 15, 1903, having preached with remarkable impressiveness a few days before the end.

(32) MATTHEW INGLE: third son of the late Rev. Timothy C. Ingle. Born February 12, 1828, at St. George's, East London. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove School, and was trained for the medical profession at Guy's Hospital, London, qualifying as a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England in 1850. Until the year 1858 he practised as a surgeon, first at Woodville and afterwards at Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Leicestershire. During these years he was an active and successful Christian worker, taking his full share of duty as a Sunday-school teacher and local preacher. Ultimately he became impressed with the conviction that he ought to devote his life wholly to Christian service. With this view he became a student at Queen's College, Birmingham, with the intention of entering the Ministry of the Church of England. From this course, however, he was dissuaded by conscientious reasons, and through the instrumentality of the late Rev. Thomas Jackson he offered himself to the Wesleyan Ministry, and was appointed to Norwich in 1859. His health, never robust, eventually broke down in 1879, when he became a Supernumerary for a year. On recovering, he was able to continue his ministry for nine years, but at the end of that time he suffered a relapse. After another year's rest he was able to resume work for four years more, when he became a Supernumerary in charge of Hessle, Yorkshire, and afterwards for a short time at Portishead, in the Clevedon Circuit. For the last six years of his life he was unable to take duty, and after a week's illness he passed peacefully away on June 16, 1903. His ministry was faithful and successful. He gave careful attention to the preparation of his sermons, and delighted both in his ministerial and pastoral work. As a visitor of the sick he was most acceptable. In every Circuit he endeared himself to our members, and his memory is held in grateful recollection by poor and rich alike.

(33) WILLIAM LUDLOW: born in Birmingham, April 24, 1835. His parents were devoted Methodists, and amid the influences of a pious home he grew up from his youth in the fear of God. When about seventeen years of age he yielded himself fully to Christ. He soon after began to preach, and in 1862 was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry. For over forty years he proved himself a faithful minister of Christ, labouring with much acceptance and success. He possessed superior mental ability and strong individuality of character. His preaching was practical, evangelical, and experimental, and often accompanied with much unction and power. He was a diligent pastor and a painstaking Superintendent, in all things showing himself faithful. Owing to failing health he retired from active work at the Conference of 1897; but he still took as deep an interest as ever in all matters touching God's cause. It was evident, however, that there was a gradual decay in both his physical and mental powers, which was the cause of much anxiety and sorrow. A severe attack about three weeks prior to his death completed the work which had been gradually going on. The once vigorous mind lay prostrate, and in a sad hour, when reason had failed, the end came. He died on June 19, 1903, in the sixty-ninth year of his age and the forty-first of his ministry.

(34) Josiah M. Mountford: born at Hildeston, Staffordshire, July 10, 1811. He was brought to conviction of sin by reading a religious tract, and conversion soon followed. In 1838 he entered our Ministry, and laboured for some time in Western Africa. He returned to England in 1841, and with only a break of twelve months rendered forty-five years' faithful service. As an administrator he was loyal to the constitution of his Church. His preaching was clear and strong, his appeals were to the heart, he laboured for souls, and if he leaned to the legal side of truth it was with tenderness. He excelled as a pastor, and to this day his prayers offered in the homes of the people are spoken of as "impressive and comforting." One who knew him for years described him as "the old saint" who "walked with God." In his long retirement as Supernumerary he was ready to assist in Circuit work, and it was his delight to aid the funds of his Church according to his means. He was devoted to foreign missions and deeply interested in the Million Scheme. In the restless nights of his protracted illness, which was patiently borne, he found comfort in song and prayer. To within three days of his death he took a lively interest in Methodist and general affairs, and to hear of the bi-centenary meetings refreshed his spirit. In his last illness he said, "I shall soon be going, and I am looking up. I should like to go soon if it is God's will, and if His will, suddenly." He peacefully passed to his rest on June 27, 1903, in the ninety-second year of his age and the sixty-fourth of his ministry.

(35) William Burt Pope, D.D.: born at Horton, in Nova Scotia, February 19, 1822. His father was a Wesleyan missionary from Devonshire, and the home, in all its changes of fortune and of occupation, was full of reverence and of the fear of God. At a Methodist school in Saltash were laid the foundations of the ripe and wide scholarship that soon began to be consecrated to the glory of God. In his nineteenth year he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and sent for further training to the Theological Institution at Hoxton. Two years later he entered upon service in the circuits of Methodism; and in every place the flock, over which the Holy Ghost had made him an overseer, learnt to love increasingly the quiet man who walked with God. Already he showed his marvellous capacity for work, and the range of an intellect against which no door into human knowledge seemed closed. Familiar with half a dozen languages besides his own, he was a mathematician by choice, a theologian by Providence. The poets of his own land and the mystics of all were his delight. Amid his absorption in his studies, no duty of his ministry was allowed to be neglected; the sick, especially, looked not in vain for his visits, and children loved him. On the failure of Dr. Hannah's health in 1867, Dr. Pope was appointed to succeed him as Theological Tutor at Didsbury, whence he soon reigned over the thoughts and mental affinities of a large section of his brethren. Ten years later he was elected President of the Conference, when, as in his subsequent Chairmanship of the Manchester District, it became manifest that to his other gifts were added a knowledge of affairs, and an unexpected degree of skill in administration. His work at Didsbury was the great work of his life. As a theologian he was intensely loyal to the central truths of the Christian faith, above all to the divine Person and the atoning work of the Saviour, and to the supreme and all-pervasive influence of the Holy Spirit. In temperament and personal habitude, more closely akin to St. John than to St. Paul, he combined some of the highest qualities of both. Most at home in the thought and teaching of the earliest ages of the Church, he was acquainted with the best thoughts of every age, mediæval or modern. For many years he enriched the Magazine of his Church by contributions, of which the rare and unique qualities were quickly recognised by its readers. His Compendium of Christian Theology is as remarkable for its perfect balance and symmetry as for its faithfulness to the whole word of God. His Fernley Lecture on "The Person of Christ," expanded and annotated in a series of editions, still ranks amongst the best technical treatises on that subject ever written. The translation of Stier's Words of the Lord Jesus is superior in smoothness of style to the original, and supplies gospel students in this country with a deep and searching investigation into the meaning of the Lord's words. Amongst his other literary productions are an exegetical commentary on St. John's Epistles, several volumes of sermons and addresses, and a pattern of homiletical exposition in The Prayers of St. Paul, in which the reader is conducted by a guide who knew the way into the innermost sanctuary of Christian experience. Over the majority of his students Dr. Pope exerted an influence that was almost a charm. In the pulpit he was unconscious of self, absorbed in his subject, sometimes carried beyond himself by the Spirit, so that as he proceeded, quietly thinking aloud, his voice thrilling with restrained fervour, visions of God were opened, and the depths of the listener's heart were searched. His gifts were crowned with the distinguishing grace of humility. A shy and saintly man, much given to self-examination, a Christian mystic who dwelt in the presence of God, he became an apostle of meekness and of love. No one was more convincedly a Methodist than he—no one more conscious of the larger fellowship that binds together all the people of God. In him were found, in the words of one of his favourite Epistles, whatsoever things are honourable, just, pure, lovely. In the inscrutable wisdom of God, the closing years of this great man's earthly life were spent in darkness, induced by disease. On Sunday evening, July 5, 1903, the clouds broke, never for him to gather again, and his pure soul passed peacefully into light.

(36) Agur B. Gardiner: born at Holmfirth, January 20, 1840; died July 6, 1903, at Radcliffe (Manchester). He was converted to God in 1858 at a mission service, and joined the Methodist Church. Soon afterwards he began to preach, and in 1862 became a Candidate for our Ministry. After a short period of training he was sent to the Gold Coast, where he served for nearly two years. A temporary failure of health compelled him to return to this country, where he laboured for thirty-six years, chiefly in Yorkshire and Lancashire. His pastoral fidelity and his judicious administration of Circuit affairs secured the respect and affection of the people among whom he worked. He gave special attention to those who were sick and in trouble; his prayers in the homes of the afflicted being refreshing and comforting, while his counsels were tender and helpful. His preaching was evangelical and practical. His sermons were carefully prepared and delivered with great earnestness. Always seeking to bring men to the Saviour, his appeals to the heart and conscience were searching and impressive. As a friend and colleague he was kind, loyal, and considerate. About five years ago his health was seriously affected, and he frequently suffered acute pain. At the Conference of 1901 he was obliged to become a Supernumerary. For the last eighteen months of his life he was confined to his bedroom. His sufferings, which were at times exceedingly severe, were borne with the greatest patience, and with unfaltering trust in his Lord and Saviour. Conscious almost to the last, he passed in great peace to his eternal reward, in the sixty-fourth year of his age and the fortieth of his ministry.

(37) William Bond: born at Louth, November 17, 1811. His parents were members of the Church of England, and he himself also attended its services. At the age of eighteen, soon after entering upon a business career, he was invited by a companion to go to the Methodist chapel; and later, at a prayer-meeting held at the house of one of the members after a Sunday evening service, he was enabled to cast his burden of guilt upon the Saviour, and to believe with his heart unto righteousness. Feeling a call to the ministry, he studied early and late to qualify himself; and, being accepted at the Conference of 1834, was sent at once into Circuit work. For fifty-one years without a break he devoted himself unsparingly to the work of the ministry, and rendered acceptable and honoured service, including a term as Chairman of the Carlisle District. Testimonies to his usefulness are still borne in many parts of the land. He was thoughtful, studious, wise, and strong in administration, gentle and patient, a lover of peace, and a healer of strife. It was a pleasure and a privilege to know him. Retiring to Dover in 1885, he spent the eventide of life quietly trusting in his Saviour, preaching and visiting wherever he had opportunity, and by his life and example testifying to the truths of the gospel. The call home came suddenly while the Cornwall Conference was in session at Camborne. A slight chill, caught on the sea-front at Dover, brought on an attack of acute bronchitis, and after three days' illness he passed peacefully away on the morning of Sunday, July 26, 1903, in the ninety-second year of his age and in the sixty-ninth of his ministry.

(38) Henry Parry: who died August 5, 1903.
The Obituary of Henry Parry will appear next year.

2. In Ireland, two:

(1) William Conlin: born near Clones, March 11, 1832. Whilst still very young he lost both parents. During his apprenticeship he was led to a personal knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ. Almost immediately he began to work for God, and in 1857 was unanimously received by the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Conference as a Probationer for its Ministry. For forty-two years in the full work, and for two years as a Supernumerary with pastoral charge, he laboured earnestly and faithfully. He was a man of very devout and humble spirit, and counted it an honour to serve Christ in any sphere to which the Church appointed him. In all his Circuits he secured the esteem of those amongst whom he laboured, and in a quiet and unostentatious spirit did useful and enduring work. At Banbridge and Roscrea God graciously encouraged him with remarkable revivals of religion. Early in his ministerial life he was called to the responsible position of Chairman of a District. His last appointment was to one of the most laborious Circuits in the Connexion. He threw himself into the work with remarkable energy, and for three years did not miss a single appointment. At the Conference of 1901 he removed as a Supernumerary to Rathmines, and during the first few months there he was ever ready to render any assistance in his power to the ministers of his own or neighbouring Circuits. Then came the beginning of the end, and after a long and weary illness, borne with much patience, in full confidence in his Saviour, he passed to his eternal reward on July 11, 1902, in the seventy-first year of his age and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(2) GEORGE BARNES: born at Derryarnish, near Ballinderry, co. Antrim, on March 3, 1833. His parents were devoted members of the little Moravian Church in his native village. At sixteen years of age he was savingly converted to God, during a service held in the Methodist Church in Lurgan. He joined the people among whom he had found the Saviour, and, though a man of catholic spirit, he never from that moment wavered in his loyalty to the Church of his adoption. He was accepted by the Conference of 1857 as a Candidate for the Ministry. From that time until his retirement from active work, his ministry was exercised chiefly in laborious fields of labour; but, however difficult and unpromising the sphere, he always rendered faithful and effective service. As a preacher, he was expository and evangelical, and as a pastor, painstaking and sympathetic. In the year 1891 he retired from the full work of the ministry, but to the end he gladly engaged in the work he loved, and was ever ready to preach the gospel when opportunities presented themselves. His last sermon was preached in Newtownards Road Methodist Church, a few weeks before his decease, from the words, "I saw a great white throne." His testimony as to perfect peace in prospect of his near departure was beautiful; the Saviour, whom he commended through life, sustaining and comforting him to the end. On September 15, 1902, at Belfast, he passed peacefully away in the seventieth year of his age and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, eight:

(1) George Gower Cocks, B.A.: born December 21, 1876. The son of the Rev. James G. Cocks, he was educated at Kingswood School, where his decision for Christ was definitely made. After holding an educational appointment in Cape Colony for two years, he returned to England with a view to entering the Ministry. He was accepted, and sent to the Institution at Richmond, where he acted as sub-tutor for a year. In 1899 he was appointed to the Vice-Principalship of Royapettah College, Madras, of which two years later he became Principal. Into work of all kinds for the good of his own and other students, especially in the south of Madras, he threw himself with an ardour and an unceasing devotion that undermined his strength. In the foundation of our growing work among the educated classes in the important student centre of Triplicane, he bore a part which will be long remembered. His wide sympathies, his manliness and ardent sincerity, and the self-forgetting strenuousness of his life, won him the affection and esteem of all who knew him.

As a preacher and speaker he was always welcome, combining with rich natural gifts carefulness in preparation and spiritual fervour. At noon on August 5, 1902, while teaching, he was suddenly smitten down. A second attack followed four hours later, and in it he passed suddenly away. The next day, in the presence of a multitude such as probably had never before been seen in a Christian cemetery in Madras, his body was borne to the grave by students, Christian and Hindu, whom he had helped by his words and life.

(2) THOMAS SPARGO: born at Chacewater, Cornwall, in the year 1857. He was converted to God in 1871, and after two years' experience as a local preacher was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. At Richmond College he greatly impressed his fellow-students by his deep spirituality and brotherly kindness. He was sent to South Africa in 1881, and in the several Circuits where he travelled was in labours most abundant. In Molteno, Seymour, Salem, Hilton, and Cathcart he will long be remembered as a man of saintly character, a devoted pastor, and a faithful and useful preacher of the gospel. At Hilton, the very fine boarding schools, erected mainly through his judicious and persistent efforts, are his special memorial. Throughout his ministry he suffered from physical weakness, which entailed an extraordinary amount of self-denial and heroic endeavour in the prosecution of his beloved work. When he realised that the end was near, he calmly set his house in order and waited the call of the Master. After a week's illness, during which he was unconscious, he fell on sleep at Cathcart, August 29, 1902, in the forty-sixth year of his age and the twenty-second of his ministry.

(3) FRANCIS MOON: born at Holcombe, Somerset, in 1831. His home training led to his early acceptance of Christ, and he became a local preacher whilst still a youth. He was accepted for the Ministry by the Conference of 1854, and sent at once to the Bahamas District. During thirty-five years in the active work, and for thirteen years as a Supernumerary, his days were spent for that colony. Only twice did he revisit England—in 1870 and 1878, on the latter occasion after a serious illness, which had brought him to the gates of death. Stationed for various periods in every Circuit in the District, his knowledge of our people was unrivalled, and his prayerful interest in them unfailing. A man of deep, fervent piety, he was mighty in prayer. His preaching, chaste in diction, was always thoroughly evangelical; his aim being to present every man perfect in Christ. As a pastor he was most diligent, and in his retirement still kept in touch with the Master's work as a class-leader. For some years he had suffered pain, and was lately advised to go to a New York hospital. But it was useless, and an immediate return home was ordered. On the voyage he was seized with paralysis of the brain, and after some weeks of suffering entered quietly into rest on October 4, 1902, in the seventy-second year of his age and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(4) Joseph Claudius May: born in Freetown, Sierra Leone, on August 14, 1845. He was the son of the late Rev. Joseph May, one of our pioneer native ministers. Converted to God in the fourteenth year of his age at a prayer-meeting held in our church at Wellington, he was not long after appointed a prayer-leader and a Sunday-school teacher, and in 1864 became a local preacher on trial. In May, 1865, he was sent to England for education, and studied for more than six years in the Training Colleges at Borough Road, Westminster, and Taunton. Whilst in England he became an accredited local preacher. On his return from England in 1871, he was an Inspector of our schools till 1874, when he was appointed the first Principal of our Freetown High School. This post he filled with great success and distinction till the day of his death. He began with eight pupils, and lived to see the number increase to about two hundred. Hundreds of young men in the colony and other places on the West African coast owe much to his teaching and influence. He entered the Ministry in 1875. His sermons were instructive and evangelical, and were delivered with much earnestness. He was strictly conscientious, and his humility and Christian urbanity were remarkable. Such was the confidence his brethren had in his ability that for sixteen years in succession he was elected Secretary of the District Synod. A stroke of paralysis soon after he retired to bed on the night of October 18, 1902, deprived him of speech and consciousness. He passed away on the 24th of the same month in the fifty-eighth year of his age and the twenty-eighth of his ministry.

(5) Enoch Jeffries: born in 1843. He arrived in India in the days immediately preceding the Mutiny, and, as a soldier, faithfully discharged his duty to his country, and proved that it was possible to lead a Christian life in the army. Leaving the colours, he procured a civil appointment under Government, which he relinquished for the Ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in India, feeling that he was definitely called to devote the remainder of his life to the work of preaching the gospel. In the year 1891 he was transferred to the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and for ten years laboured with much zeal in Mhow, Umballa, and Poona, his ministry being continually accompanied with "signs following." At the Synod of 1902, owing to failing health, he was compelled to give up active work, though he cherished the hope of returning to it after a short rest. But on November 30, 1902, whilst in Karachi, he was called to his reward, and died a triumphant death. He was a diligent student of God's word, a devoted pastor, a powerful evangelist. He loved work among the soldiers, and was a faithful Methodist preacher.

(6) Charles Harmon: born at Andover, Hants, March 12, 1832. From his earliest days he was subject to religious influences, and at eighteen years of age found peace with God and joined the Methodist Church. He at once devoted himself to evangelistic work, and in the year 1862 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and sent to South Africa. For the first three years of his ministry he was the colleague of the late Rev. George Blencowe, and in 1874 was appointed by the Natal Synod to share in the honour and responsibility of establishing the work of our Church in what is now the Orange River Colony. He spent almost all the remaining years of his life in that province, where he was instrumental in the erection of several places of worship, and where his labours were owned of God in the conversion of many souls. He became a Supernumerary in 1902, when he made his home in Durban, where his ministrations were greatly appreciated. He was a good man, faithful in life and doctrine, courteous and friendly in manner, earnest and industrious throughout his whole ministry, and respected and loved by all who knew him. He was on a visit to Bloemfontein when he was seized by brief and fatal illness. He died December 24, 1902.

(7) Theophilus Augustus Faux: born of godly Methodist parents at York, Sierra Leone, on July 15, 1869. Under the religious training of his grandparents he gave his heart to God in August, 1882. His desire to publish the glad tidings of salvation led him from time to time to speak privately to some of his schoolfellows, exhorting them to flee from the wrath to come. In 1892, while a tutor in the High School, he was accepted as a local preacher on trial, and as a Probationer for the Ministry in 1897. He laboured with earnestness, zeal, and acceptance. Of frank and winning character, he commended the gospel by his godly simplicity and fervour, and gave promise of a ministry of much usefulness among Christians and heathen alike. The last year of his life was marked by two ardent desires—one, to attain the blessing of perfect love; the other, to be used in the conversion of the heathen in and around Sierra Leone. He died on February 7, 1903, after a very short illness, in the thirty-fourth year of his age and the sixth of his ministry.

(8) JOHN P. PARINBANAYAGAR: born in 1853 at Vannarponnai, Jaffna, Ceylon. His father was a Christian, but his mother a Saivite, belonging to a prominent family in the centre of educated and aggressive Hinduism. His father died, and the boy was not brought up as a Christian, but attended our schools and meetings until an attack of cholera forced him to think seriously and to pray. He was led to Christ by one of our Tamil agents, and in spite of much opposition on the part of his family was baptized at the age of nineteen by the Rev. Dr. Kilner. He began working for the Saviour at once, and in 1880 was received into the Ministry. His service was characterised by fidelity, endurance, and cheerfulness. He was a devout Christian and a delightful colleague, commanding the respect and affection of all. Long residence in hard country Circuits left him still apparently strong in frame, but after a term of service in Colombo he failed in health, and died in the peace of God, after a day's illness, at Mannar on April 18, 1903.

Q. XXIX. Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. XXX. Who have ceased to be recognised as Ministers amongst us?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

(1) J. Daggett Rainforth, B.A., who has voluntarily retired from our work.

(2) George J. H. Northcroft, who has also retired.

2. In our Foreign Missions,

Elias Paul Fonseka, Ceylon Minister; Batsu Raghaviah, Indian Minister; Henry 'Ntsiko, African Minister; and Hezekiah Atundaolo, who have voluntarily retired.

Q. XXXI. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial stationed for the ensuing year?

A. As follows:

[N.B.—1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 908, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. In the event of his death, resignation, or incapacity, the Minister next named, provided such Minister be in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, is the Superintendent. In case there is no Minister in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, appointed to or remaining in the Circuit, the Chairman of the District is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers who are or shall be stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline in each and everyone of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.

3. The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meeting and Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District, except when otherwise ordered by the Conference.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XXXIII. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY; or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers: the Rev. JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; the Rev. DR. NICHOLAS, nominated by the Irish Conference; the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., or the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated February 28, 1784.

2. The Rev. JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., the Rev. ALFRED SARGENT, and the Rev. JAMES CHAPMAN are appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Dublin on Tuesday, June 21, 1904.

Q. XXXIV. What other Official Appointments are made?

A. (A) 1. The Rev. EZRA NUTTALL is appointed the President of the next South African Conference, to be held at Queenstown in the month of April, 1904.

2. The Rev. JULES GUITON is appointed the President of the next French Conference.

(B) 1. The PRESIDENT of the Conference will preside at the Annual Meeting of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly of Wales, to be held at Coedpoeth in June, 1904. The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON is appointed to accompany the President. The Rev. HENRY J. POPE, D.D., and the Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK are ex officio members of the Assembly. The Rev. THOMAS MANUEL is appointed President of the Assembly.

2. The Rev. JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., the Ex-President, is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man Synod, to be held at Douglas in May, 1904.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XXXV. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the Examinations of Candidates for Ordination?

IN THE SYNOD.

A. (A) 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works (see p. 327) is satisfactory.

2. Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves of our Discipline.

IN THE CONFERENCE.

(B) 1. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. An explicit declaration of his belief in the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XXXVI. What is the Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report:

The Examination was held on December 5, 1902, and March 24, 1903, one Fourth Year Paper coming as usual on the previous evening, March 23.

The results of the past year's work will be found summarised below. The Honours List contains 102 names out of a total of 249. The option of taking the New Testament Book in Greek instead of English continues to attract a considerable majority of the Probationers. Fourteen elected to attempt a higher paper than that for which their Tutors returned them, while only four took the contrary course; last year these numbers were twenty-three and three respectively. Not all these praiseworthy attempts were successful, but the failures were not reported, according to the rule. Apart from these there were only twenty-seven re-examinations this year, instead of forty-one—an encouraging result. There is one failure which stands unredeemed, apart from those of a Probationer who has since resigned.

There has been an exceptional amount of illness, accounting for nearly all the thirty-eight postponed papers. Illness accounts for nearly all of the eleven cases in which the full number of papers was not taken.

The results for the optional Greek Testament subject (iii. a) and the advanced Hebrew (iv. a) are necessarily given separately, since in estimating Honours or Failure the marks are reckoned as two grades above the figure at which they stand.

The system of marking now adopted stands thus:

Honours Marks.

1* indicating Exceptional excellence.
1 „ Excellent.
2 „ Very good.

Pass Marks.

4 indicating Fair.
5 „ Moderate.

Failure Marks.

6 indicating Poor.
7 „ Very poor.

The mark 5 is now defined as implying a minimum of thirty per cent. of the full credit obtainable on a paper. In papers iii. a and iv. a, the mark 6, defined as twenty per cent. and over, is the lowest allowed to pass.

The general results of the examination are as follows:

FIRST YEAR.—105 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows:

	1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure
In subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are marked as they stand, 151 papers	0	11	28	37	46	28	0	1
In iii (a) and iv (a), 39 papers ...	0	1	5	10	14	7	2	0

The Non-Collegiates wrote 158 papers in the following subjects: Findlay: Epistles of St. Paul; St. Mark's Gospel in English; Psalms, Book I., in English, and Davison: Praises of Israel; Elementary Greek (including two second-year men). The valuation marks of these were as follows :

1*	1	2	3	4	5	Failure
4	21	38	37	24	19	15

The fifteen failures were in the Greek paper, in which forty passed, twenty-two with Honours.

SECOND YEAR.—53 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows :

	1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure
In subjects which for the Honours List are marked as they stand, 125 papers	3	15	24	18	41	22	0	2
In iii (a) and iv (a), 58 papers ...	1	5	6	15	22	7	2	0

THIRD YEAR.—50 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows :

	1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure
In subjects which for the Honours List are marked as they stand, 128 papers	1	6	20	45	31	25	0	0
In iii (a) and iv (a), 52 papers ...	6	5	14	12	10	5	0	0

FOURTH YEAR.—41 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows :

	1*	1	2	3	4	5	6	Failure
In subjects which for the Honours List are marked as they stand, 161 papers	6	17	24	34	53	27	0	0
In iii (a) and iv (a), 32 papers ...	0	2	3	9	10	5	3	0

A few Probationers, of various years, took as a part of their examination the following subjects of the London B.D. course :

N.B.—(1) A place in the Honours List is assigned to those who (i) take the full number of subjects required, and in other respects fulfil the conditions of the Examination as laid down in the Minutes of Conference, and (ii) obtain an average mark not exceeding 3 for the subjects taken.

(2) Those whose average mark does not exceed 1 are placed in the First Class of Honours. Those whose average mark is 2, or between 1 and 2, are placed in the Second Class. Those whose average mark is 3, or between 2 and 3, constitute the Third Class. In estimating the average mark, 1* and 2 will be taken as giving the same total as 1 and 1. Thus an examinee whose marks are 1*, 2, 1*, 2, 1, is placed in the First Class.

(3) The marks of those who take iii. a and iv. a are reckoned for the Honours List as two grades higher than corresponding marks in the English subject.

(4) The names in each year stand in order of merit; but, on account of the difference in subjects, no attempt is made to compare one year with another.

(5) In Greek and Hebrew there are two papers—an easier and a more difficult. It is plain that it would not be fair to classify those who took the easier and the harder papers together, without distinguishing them in some way. The Committee has consequently attached diacritic marks to the names in the Honours List as follows: (a) Higher Greek and Hebrew; (b) Greek and Hebrew—one Higher, one Lower; (c) Lower Greek and Hebrew; (d) Greek, but not Hebrew; (e) neither Greek nor Hebrew.

(6) It is of course obvious that failure in any subject altogether disqualifies for Honours.

(7) Those who are marked with a dagger (†) postponed the whole or part of their examination.

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS.—(1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation. In cases of doubt the Secretaries shall have power to appoint assessors.

(2) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, three General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3) Arrangements shall be made at the September District Synod for the Examination of Preachers on Trial in the District. The places of Examination shall be chosen with a view to reducing as much as possible the travelling expenses involved. For this purpose it shall be allowed, where deemed advisable, that Probationers from different Districts may be examined in the same centre. Every Probationer may claim the third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Connexional Fund and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide. The Conference recommends that examination centres be so arranged at the September District Synods (or, where necessary, by consultation between the General Secretaries and the District Examination Secretaries) that no Probationer shall have to travel more than thirty miles by rail to his examination.

(4) At the September District Synod a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, with Assistant Secretaries if necessary, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Where the distances allow, at least two Probationers shall be examined at each centre. The Secretaries for adjoining Districts shall confer before the end of September, with a view to fixing suitable centres for the Examination of Probationers stationed near the borders of the Districts. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued shall be forwarded to the Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5) The Examination shall be held in two parts, the first in the month preceding Christmas, the second in the spring; and it shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days, which shall be fixed from year to year.

(6) The Examination Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers, shown by numbers, together with such remarks upon them as he may think desirable.

In the case of the First and Second North Wales and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the examination of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Synod, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on Trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on Trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the Minutes of the District Synod. The Resolutions of the District Synods on the Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send, in May, to each District Synod having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the Examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on Trial.

3. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee for the ensuing year; viz. the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY; the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; the General Examination Secretaries; the Rev. William Perkins, Dr. Rigg, and Dr. Stephenson.

The Rev. Dr. JAMES MOULTON is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

4. The Rev. DR. MOSS, G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., and Dr. JAMES MOULTON are re-appointed General Examination Secretaries.

5. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1903–1904*; viz.

(4) For Preachers in the Fourth Year of trial:

December.

i. Rigg: Comparative View of Church Organisation (Third Edition).
Lightfoot: Essay on the Christian Ministry.
ii. (a) and (b) Romans ix–xvi.
ii. (c) Romans.

April.

iii. (a) and (b) 1, 2, 3 St. John and St. Jude.
iv. (a) Psalms xc–civ.
(b) Psalms xc, xci, ciii.
(c) Psalms, Books IV. and V.
v. Wesley's Works: Sermons xxxi–liii (Book-Room Edition); and Notes on Hebrews and St. James; and Appeals.

6. In view of new arrangements to be presented to the Conference of 1904 (see section 22, below), the subjects for 1904-1905 are to be announced provisionally by the Committee in April, 1904.

7. The Conference requires every Probationer who is acquainted with Greek and Hebrew to take the Greek and Hebrew subjects which are specified in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer who has been a Student in the Theological Institution shall be examined in these Greek and Hebrew subjects, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, having taken into consideration his attainments on leaving the Institution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot reasonably be required in his case. In each year two Greek and two Hebrew papers shall be provided, of different degrees of difficulty; and, not later than October 1 in each year, the Committee shall decide, on the recommendation of the Tutors, what Probationers cannot reasonably be expected to take the more difficult papers. If other Probationers wish to take the easier paper in Greek or Hebrew, they shall be at liberty to do so, but will thereby become ineligible for Honours. In the case of Hebrew, the subject set for the easier paper shall be specially selected to suit the acquirements of elementary students. Those who take the advanced paper shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

8. The subject marked iii. in the list for each year may be taken either in Greek or in English by those Probationers who, in the portions of the Greek Testament prescribed for their respective years, take the advanced papers. All who take the subject in Greek shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

9. The Conference requires every Probationer of the First, Second, and Third Years respectively to be examined in the four subjects set for his year. Probationers of the First Year who have yet to go to the Institution, and have not studied Greek, are encouraged to take an examination in June in the elements of New Testament Greek, with a few verses of a Gospel in Greek. The marks in this examination shall be reported to the Tutors of the Theological Institution. Non-collegiate Probationers who take this course shall be examined in December and April on simple English works in Biblical History or Theology. Those who do not attempt Greek will take one ordinary First Year subject in December and one in April. Those who elect to take subjects from the ordinary list for the First Year shall receive special credit.

10. Probationers of the Fourth Year, and all Candidates for Ordination, shall take in April a paper on portions of Wesley's Works, to be chosen from year to year. Every Probationer of the Fourth Year shall be examined also in the subjects marked i., ii., iii., and iv., in the subjects for his year.

At the discretion of the General Secretaries, some relaxation of the rules in (9) and (10) shall be permitted in the case of candidates for Divinity examinations in the Universities of London and Wales.

11. Whenever a Probationer obtains a lower grade than 5 (see p. 317) for any paper, representing a minimum of thirty per cent. of the full credit obtainable, he shall be reported to the Synod as having failed. There will be no re-examination as heretofore.

12. In the Examinations on the Hebrew Bible and Greek Testament, questions on points of grammar shall form an essential part of every paper set.

13. In the subjects marked iii. a and iv. a (which carry the special recognition referred to in (7) and (8) above), the allowance shall only be made in the case of those who attain the mark 6, which is defined as a minimum of twenty per cent. of the full credit obtainable on a paper. Those whose marks fall below this shall be reckoned as having failed. But when any Probationer fails in attempting a subject higher than that which he is required to take, there shall be a report of the fact.

14. In no case shall the Examination, in whole or in part, be omitted without the sanction of the General Examination Secretaries, the Chairman of the District, and the Superintendent of the Circuit. A special report of each such omission shall be presented to the May Synod.

15. The Honours List shall in future contain the names of those Probationers only who have passed in the full number of subjects and taken them upon the appointed days. The names of any who through illness, or other serious emergency arising at the time of the Examination, have omitted to take the papers, shall be reported to the Conference, with the reason in each case. It is essential that the earliest possible notification of such emergency be made to the Rev. Dr. James Moulton, Didsbury College, Manchester.

16. Every Probationer shall, not later than September 21, 1903, inform the Rev. Dr. James Moulton what subjects he will present for Examination.

17. Every Probationer, whether appointed to a Circuit or on the List of Reserve, shall be examined in the subjects of his year.

18. If any Student be removed from the Theological Institution for Circuit work later than Christmas Day in any year, he shall not be expected to take the subjects prescribed for the examination of Probationers; but his examination shall be left in the hands of his College authorities, who shall examine him in subjects, generally four, to be chosen by the Tutors. The Examination of men on the President's List of Reserve who have not entered upon the four years of probation shall be arranged on a similar principle.

19. Probationers who leave College for Circuit work before Christmas Day in any year shall take the April Probationers' Examination of their year.

20. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be Tuesday, December 1, 1903, and Friday, April 15, 1904. For the Fourth Year there will also be a paper in the evening of Thursday, April 14. The Conference directs that these days be kept free from Circuit engagements for the Probationers.

21. The Examination Committee is instructed carefully to consider the record of every Probationer in his Ordination year, and to make a special report to the Conference in unsatisfactory cases. Where the question of health is raised by omissions to take examinations, a report shall be made to the Designation Committee.

22. The Conference empowers the Examination Committee to draw up during the year a scheme of re-arrangement of the Examination, which shall be communicated provisionally to the Probationers in April, 1904, and submitted to the ensuing Conference.

23. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

24. The Examination Committee is instructed to prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the scriptural doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year. This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. The Conference directs that when the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. The list for the year 1903–1904 is as follows:

the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution, and the General Examination Secretaries.

26. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Board of Examiners for their services during the past year; and to the Rev. Dr. Moss, G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., and Dr. James Moulton for their services as General Examination Secretaries.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XXXVII. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. (1) In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod.

(2) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District.

Preliminary Examination.

2. (1) This Examination shall be conducted before the Session of the District Synod, and include (a) one three hours' paper on the English Bible, requiring a general knowledge of Scripture History, and of the nature and contents of the Old and New Testaments (see Minutes, 1902, page 336); (b) one three hours' paper including the following subjects:

(i) An Exercise in English Composition. Four alternative subjects shall be set, from which the Candidate shall choose one. Not more than three quarters of an hour shall be spent upon this exercise. The subjects will be varied in character, and will represent topics in which preachers should be interested. In marking, regard will be paid to quality rather than quantity.

(ii) English Grammar and Easy Analysis.

(iii) English History and General Geography.

(iv) Arithmetic up to Decimal Fractions.

The questions will be of an elementary character, to be more precisely described in the syllabus supplied to intending Candidates.

(2) The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. The Examiners for this year are the Rev. T. Hardwick Mawson, J. Greenwood Tasker, J. Alexander Clapperton, M.A., George Allen, B.A. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a), and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers appointed year by year by the Conference. The following are appointed for this year: Rev. John H. Goodman, Thomas J. Choate, and James Critchison.

The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday, April 14, 1904.

(3) Candidates who have matriculated at the London University, or have passed an equivalent entrance examination at any other University in the United Kingdom, or have passed the Oxford or Cambridge Senior Local Examination, or obtained a King's Scholarship as Candidates for Admission into a Training College, are exempt from the preliminary Examination.

(4) The maximum for paper (a) shall be 100, and for (b) 100; the marks to be reported separately. The maximum attainable shall be printed against each question. In paper

(b), 25 marks shall be assigned to each of the four sections; viz. (1) English Composition, (2) English Grammar and Analysis, (3) English History and Geography, (4) Arithmetic. The marks gained in paper (b) shall be subject to a deduction, not exceeding 10, for faulty spelling. Exemption from paper (b) shall be granted as heretofore. All Candidates must take paper (a). The marks and exemptions shall be reported to the Synods.

(5) In both papers the minimum for a satisfactory examination will be one half, instead of one fourth, as hitherto, of the maximum number of marks allotted to the whole paper; and no Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum number of marks in each section of the Preliminary Examination shall undergo the usual Examination by the District Synod unless in the judgment of the Synod he possesses such special gifts as to justify an exceptional procedure.

Sermons.

3. (1) Every Preacher who is recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E. They are requested not to fix marks of value.

(3) In the case of Candidates from the Zetland District, arrangements shall be made by the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the second trial sermon to be preached in England.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript.

(4) District Synods are empowered to examine by Special Committee those Candidates who, for exceptional reasons, are prevented from being present at the appointed time of Examination; every such case to be specially recorded in the Minutes of the Synod, and reported to the Conference.

July Committee.

4. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 10, 1904.

(1) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:

(i) The Southern Section, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the President of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents living in the London and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. Robert Culley; together with twenty-one other Ministers of the three London Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts.

(ii) The Northern Section, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. Albert Clayton; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts.

N.B.—1. The elections shall in every case be by ballot.

2. The Tutors of the Theological Institution shall conduct the Oral Examination of Candidates before the Committee.

(2) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows: one for the Southern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synod of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synods of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

Each Manuscript Sermon shall be read by two of the Ministers so appointed, and a meeting of the Sub-Committee thereafter held, when the Reports of the readers shall be considered and the valuation fixed which shall be recommended to the Committee.

July Examination.

5. (1) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(2) The Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(3) (i) To correlate the Preliminary and the July Examinations a change of terms is advisable. There will now be four papers in all, which may bear the following titles:

(A) THEOLOGICAL: Part I. (on the English Bible), taken in April.
Part II. (on Christian Doctrine), taken in July.

(B) LITERARY: Part I. (Composition, Grammar, History and Geography, and Arithmetic), taken in April.
Part II. (General), taken in July.

(ii) The written examination papers at the July Committee shall each be set for three hours, as follows:

(A) THEOLOGICAL, Part II.

The questions set shall test the Candidate's knowledge of the leading doctrines of Evangelical Theology as taught in our Church. Special importance will be attached to accuracy in quoting Scripture; and it will be assumed that Candidates have carefully studied Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament.

(B) LITERARY, Part II. The paper will include:

(α) English Language and Literature.
(β) General History.
(γ) Mathematics:
Higher Arithmetic,
Algebra to Simultaneous Equations,
Euclid, Bk. I.
(δ) Elementary Science and Logic.
Alternative questions will be set in various subjects.
(ε) Latin and Greek.
(ζ) French and German.

(iii) Exemption from the Literary Paper, Part II., shall be granted to all who have passed the Matriculation Examination at the University of London; or at the University of Wales; the Preliminary Examination of the Victoria University; the Oxford Senior Local Examination; the Cambridge Senior Local Examination; and the Oxford and Cambridge Schools Examination Board (Higher Certificates).

(iv) The following scheme is adopted for combining and grading the marks in the above papers for presentation to the July Committee:

Maximum 300 (Part I., 100; Part II., 200).

250 and over = grade		1*	130 and over = grade		4
220	„	„ 1	100	„	„ 5
190	„	„ 2	75	„	„ 6
160	„	„ 3	50	„	„ 7

Under 50 = 0

(4) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows: the First and Second London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester District Synods shall each appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of the two Sections.

(5) In connexion with each Section of the Committee two Medical Examiners shall be employed, one of whom shall be a specialist on residence in a tropical climate.

(6) The Rev. T. Galland Hartley, General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Peter Thompson, are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(7) All communications relating to Candidates, and the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Synods, must be addressed to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E.

(8) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. Robert Culley are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. Albert Clayton to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

6. System of Marking in Examinations.—In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted: number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest. The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

7. Candidates from the Three London Districts shall appear before the Northern Section of the July Examination Committee, and Candidates from the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts before the Southern Section.

8. Designation of Candidates.

(1) In the form filled in by Candidates for the Ministry, instead of the definite statement as to the nature of the offer, the following is substituted:

If you are accepted, and sent to the Theological Institution, your designation to Home or Foreign work will not be made till after two years' residence there. You are, however, requested to state now whether

(a) You have at present a strong preference for Home or Foreign work;

(b) You know of circumstances which are likely to make a designation to the Mission field unadvisable.

(2) Toward the end of the College year, the men of the second year in each College shall have opportunity to indicate whether, for reasons stated, they wish to be designated for Home work, or for Foreign work, or desire to leave themselves entirely in the hands of the Church.

(3) This information, together with the recommendation of the College Staff regarding each man, shall be sent to the Designation Committee; which shall thereupon prepare for Conference lists of men whom it recommends for Home and for Foreign work respectively.

(4) In cases where the July Committee recommends a man for immediate service, that Committee shall also advise the Conference as to whether he should be appointed to Home or Foreign work.

9. Candidates from the Welsh Districts.

(1) The Conference directs that Candidates from the First and Second North Wales and South Wales Districts shall be examined alternately by the two Sections of the Examination Committee, and that a Minister be elected to be a Member of this Committee by both the First and Second North Wales Synods or the South Wales District Synod, according as the Examination is held at Didsbury or Richmond.

(2) Candidates from the Welsh Districts are required, if able, to preach two sermons in connexion with the Annual District Synod, one in Welsh and one in English.

(3) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work.

10. Candidates from Ireland for Foreign Mission Work.—(See Minutes, 1886, pp. 203, 204.)

11. The names of the Candidates who come before the Candidates' Examination Committee shall be presented to the Conference in three sections: (1) those who are unanimously recommended; (2) those upon whom a divided vote was taken, with the result of the voting (in recording the voting, the number of neutrals shall be given); (3) those who are unanimously declined.

N.B.—When a Candidate has been recommended by a divided vote in the Examination Committee, he shall be only provisionally accepted until the entire list of Candidates has been considered, when the Conference shall finally decide his case.

12. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

13. Training of Candidates for the Welsh Ministry.

(1) In cases in which Candidates for the Ministry recommended by the Welsh Synods possess exceptional qualifications, and in which the District Synod and the Examination Committee are of opinion that a course of training at a Welsh University College would be of special advantage to the Candidates and to our work in the Principality, such Candidates may be permitted to spend some time in connexion with a University College, without cost to any Connexional Fund, before they are formally recognised and accepted as Candidates for the Ministry by the Conference.

(2) While pursuing his studies at a University College, every such Candidate shall be placed under the special pastoral care of a Minister resident in the town in which the College is situated, who shall present a special report on his conduct and preaching work during the year to the District Synod and to the Welsh Assembly.

(3) At the close of his term of study at the University College, every such Candidate shall, on the recommendation of the District Synod, and provided the Conference be satisfied as to his continued fitness for our work, be fully accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and shall afterwards receive such training in our Institution as the Conference may direct.

(4) The Conference appoints Didsbury College as the place where Candidates who are members of the Welsh University may qualify for a degree in Theology.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the Discipline Committees for the Theological Institution?

A. 1. The General Discipline Committee shall consist of all the Members of the Local Discipline Committees who are also Members of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and shall meet at the least twice a year; the first Meeting to be in anticipation of the second Quarterly Meeting of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and the second to take place before the fourth Quarterly Meeting of the same General Committee.

2. Each Local Discipline Committee shall meet quarterly, and at every meeting inquiry shall be made whether there is any objection to each Student.

N.B.—This inquiry shall include all questions affecting his moral and religious character, observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competency for our work, and health.

3. In any case of discipline, when the Local Discipline Committee shall so decide, a Meeting of the General Discipline Committee shall be called to consider the case; and on receiving notice thereof, the General Secretary shall, in consultation with the President of the Conference, arrange for such meeting. The place and time shall be fixed by the President.

4. Subject to the foregoing provision, the Local Discipline Committees shall retain the power of summary action in urgent cases, and in cases of idleness or incompetence.

5. The Local Discipline Committee, on dismissing a Student from College, shall have power to determine all points concerning his status, employment, and maintenance until the next meeting of the General Discipline Committee, whose decision shall take effect until Conference.

6. All cases of discipline during the year, at any Branch of the Institution, shall be reported to the General Discipline Committee at its meeting immediately before Conference.

7. The Governor of the Institution House shall answer for the Students to the Conference.

8. All questions affecting the moral conduct, theological soundness, and general behaviour of the Students shall, in accordance with the custom observed from the beginning of the Institution, be referred to the Discipline Committee of the Branch, and the Discipline Committee shall report to the Conference; but in cases where the action of the Discipline Committee affects the residence of a Student, the action so taken shall be final, but shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

9. The Conference shall appoint from year to year for each Branch of the Institution ten Ministers, who, in addition to the Tutors and Secretary of such Branch, shall constitute the Discipline Committee. The Secretaries of the Missionary Society shall be ex officio members of the Discipline Committee of the Richmond Branch.

The Rev. T. GALLAND HARTLEY is the Secretary of the General Discipline Committee.

10. The following are the members of the Local Discipline Committees:

Richmond Branch.—The Tutors and Local Secretary; the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Rev. James Chapman, Albert Clayton, James Critchison, Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Rigg, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Enoch Salt, Peter Thompson, William J. Tweddle, and Dr. Waller.

Birmingham Branch.—The Tutors and Local Secretary; the Rev. William H. Booth, J. Holland Brown, Joseph Bush, Edward R. Edwards, George R. Graham, T. Hardwick Mawson, Stephen Parkes, Joseph Posnett, H. Arnaud Scott, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Q. XXXIX. Who are the Members of the Missionary Society Committee of Discipline?

A. The Ministerial Officers and Members of the Missionary Committee, together with the following Ministers, being three from each London District: The Rev. George Charter, George Denton, Frederick Elton, Henry J. Foster, John H. Goodman, Jabez Ingram, J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., Alfred H. Vine, and Arthur Wood, B.A.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.

Q. XL. Who is appointed the Ministerial Secretary of the Nomination Committee, and what Ministers are elected to that Committee at the ensuing Conference?

A. 1. The Rev. James Chapman.

2. Rev. Richard W. Allen,
„ Thomas J. Choate,
„ Samuel F. Collier,
„ T. Galland Hartley,
„ Richard Harding (B),
„ W. Rodwell Jones,
„ J. Scott Lidgett, M.A.,
„ Edward P. Lowry,
Rev. William Middleton,
„ Joseph Nettleton,
„ John Pellow,
„ Alfred Roebuck, B.D.,
„ T. Moorhouse Thorp,
„ Owen Watkins,
„ Herbert B. Workman, M.A.,
„ Dinsdale T. Young.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XLI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on Book Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Book Committee.

2. The Conference resolves:

(1) The Book Committee shall consist (a) of the following ex officio members: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the SECRETARY of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents residing in the London and adjoining Districts; the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Tract Committee, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union, the Secretaries of the Missionary Society, the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Tutors at the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Honorary Librarian of the Allan Library; and (b) of twenty-five Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident in the Metropolitan Postal and Police area.

(2) A Finance and Consultation Committee, consisting of fourteen Members, including the Officers of the Book-Room, shall be appointed by the Book Committee from its own Members at its first meeting after Conference.

(3) Readers shall be annually chosen by the Book Committee at its first meeting after Conference; and one or more of these shall be selected by the Book Steward to read any Manuscript offered for publication, who shall make confidential reports to the Book Steward and Editor.

The Book Steward shall report to the Committee, and the Committee shall have power to accept or reject Manuscripts.

(4) The Tract Committee shall consist of the Officers of the Book-Room and twelve other Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident within the same area as the London Book Committee. The names of the Tract Committee shall be printed in the Minutes of Conference.

The Tract Committee shall report, through its Secretary, to the Book Committee.

3. The Book Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary; Dr. Rigg, Dr. Jenkins, Richard Roberts, John Walton, M.A., Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Dr. Waller, William L. Watkinson, Frederic W. Macdonald, Ex-Presidents; Arthur Wood, B.A., Secretary of the Tract Committee; Robert Culley, Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union; William Perkins, William H. Findlay, M.A., Secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary Society; John Bell (B), Assistant Secretary of the Home Mission Fund; George Fletcher, Dr. Beet, Alfred S. Geden, M.A., Tutors of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution; Nehemiah Curnock (B), Honorary Librarian of the Allan Library; and John Bond, James Chapman, George Charter, Albert Clayton, William H. Clogg, Frederick B. Cowl, James Critchison, Henry J. Foster, John H. Goodman, Dr. Arthur E. Gregory, Simpson Johnson, J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., William Middleton, Frederick M. Parkinson, Jabez Parkyn, James Pratt, Allen Rees, Alfred Sargent, Peter Thompson, William J. Tweddle, Alfred H. Vine, John E. Wakerley, William D. Walters, Dr. Wenyon, and Thomas E. Westerdale.

4. The Methodist Tract Committee shall consist of the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Book Committee, the Rev. Frederick B. Cowl, Nehemiah Curnock (B), Josiah Flew, Frank Hall, Simpson Johnson, J. Ash Parsons, Benjamin Robinson, Charles Lee-Dunham, R. Bevan Shepherd, M.A., John E. Wakerley, Thomas E. Westerdale, and Arthur Wood, B.A.

The Rev. ARTHUR WOOD, B.A., is re-appointed the Secretary of the Tract Committee. Communications should be addressed to him at 9, Highbury New Park, N.

5. The old rule as to payment of Ministers' Book Accounts shall be observed; viz. that remittances be made quarterly, and all balances paid at the Conference.

6. For the future the Grants to Connexional Funds shall be paid out of the profits actually made during the Connexional Year then ending, and not out of profits to be made, in part or wholly, during the year then ensuing.

Future Management of the Book-Room.

The Conference of 1902 provisionally adopted the following Resolutions, and referred them for consideration to the May District Synods:

1. Both the Book Steward and the Connexional Editor shall be Ministers.

2. The Book Committee shall consist of an equal number of Ministers and Laymen, resident in London, or elsewhere.

3. The Committee shall consist of the President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference, the Book Steward, the Editor, and twenty-five other Ministers, and an equal number of Laymen.

4. The profits from the trade of the Book-Room shall be devoted as heretofore, unless the Conference in its Representative and Pastoral Sessions shall otherwise direct.

5. Provided always that this new arrangement shall in no way infringe upon or alienate the rights of the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the original and vested properties of the Book-Room estate.

The reports of the May District Synods having been presented, the Conference did not adopt the Resolutions, but resolved to refer the subject of the future management of the Book-Room for consideration to a special Committee.

The special Committee shall consist of the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY of the Conference, the Rev. Charles J. Back, Nehemiah Curnock (B), Dr. Davison, John Gould, Dr. Arthur E. Gregory, Charles H. Kelly,

Dr. Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg, Alfred Sargent, Owen Watkins, William L. Watkinson, and Herbert B. Workman, M.A. The Rev. Charles H. Kelly is the Convener. (See Minutes, 1903, p. 360.)

Q. XLII. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Pastoral Session, and sent to the District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. None.

Q. XLIII. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at the May Synod, when Ministers only are present?

A. Class-leaders' District and Connexional Committees (see p. 363).

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to its President, the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, for his forceful, timely, and eminently profitable sermon, preached in the Wesley Chapel, Camborne, on Sunday morning, July 26, 1903.

2. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., for his luminous, powerful, and impressive sermon, preached in the Wesley Chapel, Camborne, on Sunday evening, July 26, 1903.

3. The cordial thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., for his wise, appropriate, and impressive Charge delivered to the newly ordained Ministers in St. Mary's Chapel, Truro, on Tuesday, August 4, 1903.

Retirement of Senior Ministers.

THE REV. JAMES H. RIGG, D.D.—In recommending that the Rev. James H. Rigg, D.D., be made a Supernumerary, after having served in many spheres of the ministry of our Church for fifty-eight years, the Conference desires to express its deep and tender affection and veneration for him, and its profound appreciation of the services, eminent alike in their ability and fidelity, which he has rendered in so many ways to the community and to the Church. As a prolific writer, by strength of conviction, grasp of principle, energy of style, and breadth of knowledge, Dr. Rigg has widely influenced public opinion, especially on Educational and Ecclesiastical questions.

During the thirty-five years in which he has been Principal of the Training College at Westminster, he has contributed to guide at critical junctures the Education policy of the nation, and to safeguard the Educational interests and institutions of Methodism.

Belonging to the whole Church, liberal and catholic in his sympathies, and rejoicing in the unity of the spirit, he has nevertheless proved himself in unavoidable controversies a powerful champion of the principles and polity of Wesleyan Methodism, and of the interests of Evangelical Protestantism.

As an ecclesiastical leader of our own Church during the last half-century, he has shown a perfect sympathy with its spirit, a complete acquaintance with its history, and systematic and practical understanding of its theology and polity and consummate power and readiness in debate.

Of the Committees for the management of our great Departments, he has been, through almost the whole course of his ministry, one of the most influential members; and in all he has shown a mastery of the principles and details of administration, and especially on the Foreign Missionary Committee, of which he has been for twenty years one of the General Treasurers.

Twice he has occupied the Chair of the Conference: the first time in the memorable year in which Laymen were admitted as Representatives, and in which the Thanksgiving Fund was inaugurated. Both of these movements owed much to his statesmanlike sagacity and indomitable energy.

The Conference desires especially to acknowledge the conspicuous services which Dr. Rigg has rendered to the Second London District throughout his long connexion with it. As its Chairman for many years he has given the most zealous and minute oversight to all its affairs, and has promoted its interests in every way; but especially by planting Home Missionary Stations and building churches in its neglected parts, as well as by the careful selection, wise direction, and constant encouragement of the ministers appointed to them. To his personal interest and enlightened policy is to be ascribed the remarkable development of the district during the last generation. The Conference desires respectfully to tender to Dr. Rigg its heartfelt congratulations on the completion of so long and so distinguished a course of public service, and, above all, humbly to render its gratitude to Almighty God for the gift of His servant to the Church, and to offer its earnest prayer that grace, mercy, and peace may be multiplied upon him to the end of life.

The Rev. Thomas Champness.—In recommending that the Rev. Thomas Champness be permitted to become a Supernumerary, the Conference desires to record its high appreciation of his many services during an active ministry of forty-six years. In early life he was a devoted Foreign Missionary, and subsequently he served many important Home Circuits with unfailing fidelity. For fourteen years he has been entrusted with the management of the "Joyful News" Mission. He has been especially the friend of Village Methodism; and by the equipment and employment of evangelists, by opening his house for the training of young local preachers, and by the circulation of Methodist literature, he has served his generation and promoted the kingdom of Christ. He has had, by the providence of God, unique natural gifts, and he has always added to them diligent toil, so that, as a plain and earnest preacher of the gospel, he has been greatly beloved by the humble and poor. The Conference thanks God for his long and faithful service, and prays that his comparative retirement may be a happy and peaceful eventide of life.

THE REV. W. F. SLATER, M.A.—In complying with the request of the Rev. W. F. Slater, M.A., to become a supernumerary, the Conference places on record its cordial appreciation of his high Christian character, and the invaluable service he has rendered to Methodism and the cause of Christ during the forty-nine years of his ministry. As Circuit Minister and Superintendent, as District Chairman, as Tutor for sixteen years at Didsbury College, as a learned and able contributor to Christian Literature, and as a diligent labourer in other departments of public work, he has proved himself a help to many, especially to young men who had entered, or who were about to enter, our ministry. It is a matter of thankfulness to God that the use of his gifts and attainments have been given unreservedly to the service of the Church with which his life has been identified, and to the interests of which it has been consecrated. The prayer of the Conference is that the term of his retirement may be a long and beautiful sunset, enriched throughout with the peace of God and the hope of glory.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. ENOCH SALT is thanked for his services, and is re-appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. GEORGE DENTON is thanked for his services, and is re-appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1904; and is an ex officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—1. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year (see Standing Order, 30): The Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary; Charles H. Kelly, Book Steward; William L. Watkinson, Editor;

Rev. James Chapman,	Rev. Dr. Rigg,

The Rev. JOHN TELFORD, B.A., is the Convener.

2. Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward obituaries of deceased Ministers to the Convener, immediately after the May Synod.

Designation Committee.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee, consisting of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference and twenty other Ministers; five of whom shall be chosen by the Home Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively; one by the staff of each College from among themselves; and one by the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly. The SECRETARY of the Conference is the Convener of the Committee.

2. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference, to consider and report upon:

(1) The designation of Students for Home or Foreign Work.

(2) All cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

(3) The health and general fitness for our work of the men on the President's List of Reserve.

(4) The number of Candidates required for the Ministry.

Ministers under Discipline, and other Cases.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. In view of the great services rendered by this Fund in helping to secure the withdrawal of unsuitable men from our Ministry, the Conference commends the Fund to the support of all the Ministers.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, to administer the Fund, and to deal with the cases as they arise. (See Minutes, 1893, p. 226.)

with power to add to their number.

The Rev. NEHEMIAH CURNOCK (B) is the Convener.

Foreign Honorary Degrees.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-affirms Standing Orders 48 (2) and (3).

3. The Conference resolves that in addition to the statement of the sources of Degrees the prefix (Hon.) shall be put before all British or Foreign Degrees in Arts, Law, and Science, if they be Honorary.

4. The Conference directs that in future Honorary Degrees shall only be recognised if they proceed from Corporations, which have a full University Status.

Methodist Law, and other Matters.—The Conference refers to this Committee the following points:

1. Whether it is advisable to amend or to re-affirm the resolution of the Conference of 1872 (see Minutes, vol. xviii., p. 650) which declares that "the Chairman of the District ought not so far to set aside the office and the responsibility of the Superintendent of a Circuit as to take the Chair at any Meeting for the administration of discipline in any Circuit other than his own, unless the District Synod in special circumstances otherwise directs."

2. Whether the regulation (Minutes, 1900, p. 481) which provides that "no Minister shall remove the name of any person from the Class-Book who has not been carefully visited" shall be modified.

3. Whether any limit of time shall be fixed beyond which a member of Society left without a ticket shall not be allowed a trial before a Leaders' Meeting.

4. Whether the present time limit in cases of appeal to the Conference against acts of discipline shall be further restricted.

5. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year: The Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, President of the Conference; JOHN S. BANKS, D.D., Ex-President; JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary;

Rev. Dr. Allen,
" Joseph Bush,
" Albert Clayton,

" Dr. Stephenson,
" W. Henry Thompson,
" Dr. Waller,
" Charles E. Wansbrough,
" Owen Watkins,
" Thomas E. Westerdale.

The Rev. JOHN S. SIMON is the Convener.

Manual for Candidates for the Ministry.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and provisionally accepts the Manual prepared.

2. The Conference refers to the Committee the Memorials and suggestions from the Memorials Committee thereupon, together with notices of motion affecting candidates for the ministry, for consideration during the year, and to report to the next Conference.

3. The Conference directs that any copies of the Manual published during the year are to be marked as published "under correction." The following is the Committee:

Rev. J. Alexander Clapperton, M.A.,	Rev. J. Conder Nattrass, B.A., B.D.,
,, Albert Clayton,	,, Frederic Platt, M.A., B.D.,
,, Dr. Findlay,	,, John G. Tasker,
,, Arthur Hoyle,	,, Peter Thompson,
,, Dr. James Moulton,	,, H. Lefroy Yorke, M.A., B.D.

The Rev. Dr. James Moulton is the Convener.

Examination of Preachers on Trial.—The Conference directs the Probationers' Examination Committee to prepare during the year a scheme of re-arrangement of the Examination to be provisionally communicated to the Probationers next April and then presented to the Conference.

Returns of Bible-classes and P.S.A.s.—The Conference directs that the Secretary of the Sunday-school Union obtain the information from the Secretaries of the Districts.

Conference Plan.—The Conference resolves that Standing Order 33 be amended, so as to provide for the issue of the Conference Plan not later than June 24, instead of June 15.

Transfers of Welsh Ministers to the English Work.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the whole case of transfers from Welsh to English work: The President of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretary;

Rev. Dr. Allen,	Rev. George Marris,
„ John Bell (B),	„ Dr. Moss,
„ John Bond,	„ Rice Owen,
„ George H. Camburn,	„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
„ Thomas J. Choate,	„ Richard Roberts,
„ Albert Clayton,	„ Peter Jones Roberts,
„ George Denton,	„ G. Stringer Rowe,
„ Ishmael Evans,	„ H. Arnaud Scott,
„ Charles H. Floyd,	„ John E. Wakerley,
„ Edward Humphreys,	„ Dr. Waller,
„ Dr. Hugh Jones (B),	„ Thomas E. Westerdale.

The Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON is the Convener.

Ministerial Changes during the Interval of Conference.—The Conference directs that whenever any change of preachers which it may be necessary to make in the interval of Conference takes place, such preacher, or preachers, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Synod into which he or they may be thus removed.

Assistants to Class-leaders.—The Conference pronounces that whilst in case of need a member of Society may be appointed to assist the Leader, such assistant has no seat in the Leaders' Meeting.

Future Management of the Book-Room.—The Conference, having received the reports of the District Synods on the scheme provisionally adopted for the management of the Book-Room, appoints a Committee to consider the whole question and report to the next Conference.

The following is the Committee: The President of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretary; and the Rev. Charles J. Back,	Rev. Dr. Henry J. Pope,

„ Nehemiah Curnock (B),	„ Dr. Rigg,
„ Dr. Davison,	„ Alfred Sargent,
„ John Gould,	„ Owen Watkins,
„ Dr. Arthur E. Gregory,	„ William L. Watkinson,
„ Charles H. Kelly,	„ Herbert B. Workman, M.A.

The Rev. CHARLES H. KELLY is the Convener.

Nomination of Ministers to Departments.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference provisionally resolves that if any question seriously affecting ministerial character or fidelity should be raised upon a proposed name in the Representative Session of the Conference, the nominations for designation for appointment to the office in question shall be postponed without discussion to the Representative Session of the following Conference, when the nominations shall be made under the regulations affecting nominations in cases of emergency for immediate appointment. By this arrangement the objection would be considered and decided by the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the Representative Session of which it has been raised.

N.B. As this Resolution has not been before the Representative Session of the Conference, it will not be sent down to the Synods this year.

West Indian Affairs.—The Conference in its Representative Session having consented to abrogate the Constitution of the West Indian Conferences, and to resume control of the Methodist Churches in those islands from January 1, 1904, the following Minute as to the status of Ministers and Probationers in the West Indies, under the new conditions, is adopted:

1. Ministers in the West Indian Islands who were sent out from England, and have a right of return to this country, are not affected in any of their rights or claims, ecclesiastical and financial, by this action.

2. Ministers in the West Indies, other than those sent out from England, whose names were on the Minutes of the Yearly Conference in 1884, remain in connexion with the Yearly Conference, their service being limited to the West Indies; and their financial claims are unaltered.

3. Ministers and Probationers in the West Indies who have been received by the Local Conferences since 1884 shall be received into the same connexion with, or probation for, the Yearly Conference, their service being limited to the West Indies, with certain exceptions, as entered on the Journal of this Conference.

N.B.—Ministers included under this Resolution shall count their years under the new régime as from the Yearly Conference preceding the West Indian Conference at which they were received.

Prison Chaplains.—The Conference instructs Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which Cnnuty or Borough Prisons are situate to furnish each year in September to the Ministerial Secretary of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail, as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners, and that this instruction be entered among the Standing Orders of the Conference.

SECTION III.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED PARTLY IN THE REPRESENTATIVE AND PARTLY IN THE PASTORAL SESSION.

I. Kingswood School: The Question of Management.

1. The Conference resolves:

(1) That the position of affairs at Kingswood offers a favourable opportunity for placing the Management of the School under one Head, without prejudice as to the question whether the single Head should be Ministerial or Lay.

(2) That the interests of the School will be best served by the appointment of the present Headmaster to the entire control of the establishment.

(3) That the new arrangement shall come into operation at the Conference of 1903.

(4) That an unmarried minister be appointed as a Resident Assistant Master, and that for this year the Rev. Marshall Hartley shall be appointed the Governor.

II. Training and Equipment of Class-leaders.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference provisionally resolves:

(1) That a Connexional Committee to be called the Class-leaders' Committee be annually appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session; the Committee to consist of an equal number of Ministers and Lay Class-leaders.

The object of this Committee shall be to devise and take the general oversight of methods for maintaining the supply and increasing the efficiency of the Class-leaders so that the Class-meeting may become yet more attractive and profitable.

(2) That at the September Synod of each District a Class-leaders' Committee be appointed, to consist of the Chairman, the Financial Secretary, and four other Ministers and six Lay Class-leaders who are already members of the Synod.

SECTION IV.

THE CONFERENCE OF 1904.

1. THE Conference to be held in the year 1904 shall meet in Sheffield, on Tuesday, July 19, at half-past Nine o'clock.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall meet at the Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, E.C., on Wednesday, July 6, at Ten o'clock.

(2) The Chairmen of Districts are required to send to the Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON, 49, City Road, London, E.C., not later than June 11, perfect copies of the District Minutes, including an account of the Numbers in Society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March Visitation in 1904.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

2. (1) Ministers chosen to complete the Representation of Departments in the Conference during its Representative Session: the Rev. John Bell (B), G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Dr. Arthur E. Gregory, and Charles E. Wansbrough. (See Minutes, 1877, p. 213 (d).)

SIGNED ON BEHALF AND BY ORDER OF THE CONFERENCE,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, PRESIDENT.

JOHN HORNABROOK, SECRETARY.

CAMBORNE, August 5, 1903.

The PRESIDENT'S address is Beverley, 1, Nightingale Lane, Balham, London, S.W.

The SECRETARY'S address is Hazelwood, Middleton Road, Cheetham Hill, Manchester.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. Supplies, List of Reserve, Students.

1. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister, when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits.

2. Payment of Supplies.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connexion with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

3. List of Reserve.—(1) The retiring President shall furnish to the Committee on Transfers, etc., a Report as to the health and fitness for our work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on the List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

(2) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference.

(3) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

4. Students.—(1) Accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution, unless the Conference otherwise direct.

(2) The term of residence in the Institution shall be, except in special cases, three years.

(3) Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Local and General Discipline Committees, shall be regarded as commencing his probation at the Conference next ensuing.

If he receive an appointment at the Conference, or be sent by the President as a Supply before Christmas, the year shall count as the first of his probation, and he shall be entitled, after being received into Full Connexion, to the usual allowances of a Minister in Full Connexion.

But if he be not so appointed by the Conference, or sent out by the President as a Supply before Christmas, or if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately after he has been received into Full Connexion, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This Resolution does not carry any disability with regard to any other funds than the Home Mission Fund.

(4) In the case of Students who have not completed their term at the Institution (whether in their first, second, or third year of residence), but are called out by the President to supply before Christmas, the year shall, in accordance with our ancient usage, be reckoned as the first of their probation.

(5) Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution to complete their term.

(6) Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom, or have passed any equivalent Examination—e.g. the Final Examination of the Incorporated Law Society, or of the Royal College of Surgeons shall not of necessity spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of their Tutors and Local and General Discipline Committees, the term of their residence may be shortened. And, in such cases, their probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing, but subject to the Regulations in regard to the probation of Students who have completed their term of three years. (See above, Section 3.)

(7) When it is decided by the Local and General Discipline Committees that, on the ground of unsatisfactory progress, or for reasons of discipline, the full period of three years' training at the Institution should in the case of any Student be shortened, the ministerial probation of such Student shall not be reckoned as beginning until the Conference at which he would have completed his three years' training.

(8) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(9) The Representative of each Branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(10) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall, if no other course be open to them, return to the Institution, and there await the call of the President.

(11) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(12) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment.

(13) The employment of Students as Supplies, otherwise than by the President, during their vacation, shall continue as heretofore to be matter of private arrangement, in regard to which neither the President nor the Home Mission Committee shall have responsibility; except in those special cases in which the Home Mission Committee may grant Supplies, for short periods, to Chairmen of Districts.

(14) A proportion of the Missionary Students shall be trained in the Home Branches of the Theological Institution, and the vacancies so created at Richmond shall be filled by Candidates for the Home Work.

(15) Not more than one third, nor fewer than one fourth, of the Candidates allocated in each year to the Richmond Branch shall be Candidates for the Home Work; and an equal number of Candidates for the Foreign Work shall be distributed among the Home Branches.

(16) All Students for the Foreign Work who, having completed their term, may be placed on the List of Reserve, shall be provided for at the Richmond Branch.

(Minutes, 1812, 1857, 1876, 1879, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1891, 1897.)

II. The Connexion.

5. Title of the Connexion. — Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of the Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Minutes, 1891, p. 321.)

6. Ministerial Members of Connexional Committees. — No Minister, who is not an Officer of a Departmental Committee, shall remain upon that Committee as a Member more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for a further appointment thereon by the vote of four fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

7. Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—(1) A certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation; the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four fifths of the members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

(2) A complete list of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 319.)

8. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four fifths majority being distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

9. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new Members, Laymen and Ministers, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

10. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: The printed Agenda of the Conference; the Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions from year to year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Reports of special Committees or Commissions appointed by the Conference; any legal opinion obtained from time to time by the direction of the Conference; and a Record of all Legacies and Funds left to the Connexion, of the place where the Trust Deeds are deposited, with the names of the Trustees, and the provisions (if any) for the renewal of the Trust; and when the Legacies have been finally disposed of, the Minute Books of the Trustees, showing the arrangements made; with other Documents the safe custody of which the Conference may hereafter direct. (Minutes, 1882, pp. 287, 288.)

III. The Conference.

11. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows: London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull. (Minutes, 1898, p. 354.)

12. Two Sessions Daily.—With a view to the dispatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily. (Minutes, 1886, p. 297.)

13. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held on the second morning of the Representative Session, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises; and shall be followed by a conversation on the state of the work of God. The doors shall not be open to visitors until after the Sacramental Service. (Minutes, 1898, p. 360; 1901, p. 110.)

14. Open Session.—An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on one evening of the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1890, p. 422.)

15. Conference Arrangements.—(1) In order to afford sufficient time for the proper discharge of the business of the Conference, an Evening Session shall be held on each day of the Representative week, if necessary.

(2) The reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall take place in the Conference Chapel itself, on the Thursday of the Representative week, in the Evening Session.

(3) As a rule, one member of the Irish representation and one from the South African Conference shall be heard annually, one from France every alternate year, and Representatives from the General Conferences of the American M.E. Churches, of Canada, and of Australasia, whenever they are appointed. Visitors from the Annual Conferences of the countries last named shall only be introduced to the Conference.

(4) Deputations from other Churches shall be received in the last hour of the morning Session of the third day of the Conference. (Minutes, 1902, p. 107.)

16. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex officio member of the Pastoral Session of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

17. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be, ex officio, the Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Minutes, 1895, p. 216.)

18. Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial.—In response to the inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Minutes, 1887, p. 289.)

19. Disciplinary Inquiries.—The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

20. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher, excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connexion with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class-leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

21. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our doctrines. A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of the Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of doctrine and discipline. (Minutes, 1900, p. 230.)

22. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years, and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year. In addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, such Ministers may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive for that year a sum not exceeding £80; of which one half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 233, 234.)

When a Minister who becomes a Supernumerary for one year is not a member of the Annuitant Society, the extra Grant from the Auxiliary Fund shall be less by the amount which would have been due to him from the Annuitant Society. (Minutes, 1887, p. 261.)

Each case shall be examined by a Mixed Committee of seven Members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

Should the Conference deem it indispensable, the Grant may be allowed for a second year. (Minutes, 1878, p. 234.)

23. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212; revised, 1895.)

24. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any other reason than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund in both its branches.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Minutes, 1896, p. 321.)

25. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his re-appointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218; 1899, p. 246.)

26. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the full work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Minutes, 1897, p. 244.) See Standing Order 1 (3).

27. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from the Auxiliary Fund during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described; and he shall pay the yearly assessments to the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children on the same scale as Ministers appointed to Departments; and he shall then continue to receive the benefit of those Funds in the ordinary course.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connexion with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215.)

(5) In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

28. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office of emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding, unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief of our doctrines.

(6) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(7) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215; 1893, p. 362.)

29. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(4) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee; and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Minutes, 1891, p. 23c.)

30. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued; and the list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday morning of the third week of its Sessions.

31. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

32. Memorandum of Agreement.—The following is the revised scale of payments to be made to the Connexional Fund by (a) Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches, and (b) married men received as Candidates:

(a) 1.	To the Home Mission Fund ...	£160.
2.	To the Fund for the Maintenance of Ministers' Children ...	£25 4*s.* for each child.
3.	To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows Fund ...	£7 for each year counted, upon admission by the Conference.

(b) To the Fund for the Maintenance of Ministers' Children ... £26 5*s.* for each child; thus placing such child on the Fund.

(Minutes, 1902, p. 113.)

33. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 24 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Sessions; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 291.)

34. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At the commencement of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred, without discussion:

(1) All cases, needing further inquiry, touching the character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;

(2) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or

(3) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 202.)

35. Appeals in Cases of Discipline.—No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 229.)

36. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connexion with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connexion with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to their respective Affiliated Conferences. (Minutes, 1891, p. 231.)

37. Obituaries of Ministers of Affiliated Conferences.—On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1899, p. 211.)

38. Native Ministers and the Yearly Conference.—For the Resolutions of the Conference on this subject, see Minutes, 1895, pp. 217–220.

39. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Forty-eight Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and that Committee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

IV. The Stationing Committee.

40. Election of Representative in District Synod. — The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Synod. (Minutes, vol. i. [1791], p. 256; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

41. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) As soon as possible after the Annual District Synod, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a list of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this list being sent by the Representatives to the Secretary of the Conference not later than June 1; such lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

(2) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 25 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete lists of—

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District; and (c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

(3) A list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(4) From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1875], p. 709.)

42. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(5) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(6) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First Draft and the Final Draft, respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—Members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

43. The President and Secretary and the Stationing Committee.—(1) As the President and Secretary for the time being are ex officio Members of the Stationing Committee they shall in future attend it only in their public and official character as persons specially charged with the general interests of the whole Connexion; and neither of them shall be considered eligible to be sent by any particular District as its local Representative.

(2) The President and Secretary of the preceding Conference, having attended the meetings of the Stationing Committee at their commencement, shall continue to be official Members of it during the whole of its sittings for that year; even when it may be necessary, for the completion of its business, that it should occasionally assemble after the election of the new President or Secretary shall have taken place. (Minutes, vol. v. [1824], p. 528.)

44. Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

45. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee may, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

46. Re-appointment of Ministers to Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous. (Minutes, 1890, p. 207.)

N.B.—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Minutes, vol. xvi. [1866], p. 589.)

47. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, pp. 193, 194.)

48. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Examination Committee has been obtained.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor of Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1893, pp. 227, 228; 1895, p. 225.)

49. Numbering of Circuits and Stations.—(1) Except those in which no Minister's House is provided, all Stations appearing in the Minutes shall be numbered.

(2) The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meetings and in the Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District, except when otherwise ordered by the Conference. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1901, p. 171.)

V. Departments.

50. Designations and Nominations for Appointment to Departmental Offices.—Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the names of three Ministers in nomination for that office; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one. The Pastoral Session of the Conference shall designate for appointment one of the three nominated by the Representative Session.

In any case of emergency which may arise during the Representative Session, involving immediate appointment, a similar course shall be taken.

In case of an emergency arising after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1890, p. 423.)

51. Method of Nominating Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—On the presentation of three names by the Committee of any Department, according to rule, for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall take at least one ballot; and then, if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session. (Minutes, 1892, p. 312.)

52. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1883, p. 183.)

53. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

54. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 105.)

VI. Army and Navy Work.

55. Instructions to Chairmen and Superintendents in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

56. Reports and Returns to District Synods.—All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors :

(1) The number of declared Methodists in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for December 31 of each year.

(2) The number of Members of Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(3) The average attendance at divine service during the year.

(4) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

57. Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

58. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

59. Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties. — Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives, and families to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

VII. Synods.

60. District Synods, 1904.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 8 and 15, with the exception of those of the First North Wales, Second North Wales, South Wales, Nottingham and Derby, Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts.

61. Lord's Day Observance.—The Temperance Committee of each District shall take direct oversight of the Lord's Day Question. (Minutes, 1896, p. 331.)

62. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the September Synod of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations concerning certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the island, according to the provisions of the "Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885," of the Isle of Man. (Minutes, 1885, p. 285.)

63. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—(1) The election shall be by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to provide for himself, his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

64. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a Member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a Member of á Synod. Any Layman nominated in a Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 420.)

The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 421.)

65. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Representative Session, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Minutes, 1895, p. 325.)

66. The Regulations in regard to the District Committees having charge of Foreign Missions and Education shall apply also to the District Temperance and Local Preachers' Committees; namely, that one Lay Member shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of four fifths of the Synod. (Minutes, 1902, p. 114.)

VIII. Chairmen.

67. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of a Chairman of a District, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. See Standing Order 50. (Minutes, 1886, p. 295.)

68. Resolutions on Pastoral Work and Probationers in their First Circuit.—A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

69. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at the May Synods in reference to the several points of discipline specified on pp. 516-522 of Minutes, 1902.

70. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same town, shall meet at least once in every month for mutual conference and prayer, to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 281.)

71. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May Synods whether the Regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1862], p. 327.)

72. Changes of Ministerial Appointments.—Whenever any change of Ministers which it may be necessary to make in the intervals of the Conference takes place, the Minister or Ministers so removed shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Synod in which he or they reside. (Minutes, 1903, p. 360.)

73. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Journal, 1894.)

74. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges appointed by the Conference between Ministers residing in various Circuits shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the Synod. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

75. Neutrals in Voting.—In all voting upon cases of discipline, or upon Candidates proposed for the Ministry, the number of neutrals shall be recorded. (Minutes, 1894, p. 226.)

76. Trial Sermons of Candidates for Ordination.—Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May Synod, preach in the presence of three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

77. Examination of Candidates for Ordination.—(1) Before any Probationer, having travelled four years, is recommended by his Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, vol. iv. [1815], p. 122.)

This Oral Examination may be omitted if the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory. (Minutes, 1896, p. 197.)

(2) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our discipline. (Minutes, 1897, p. 207.)

78. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Probationers who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

79. Probationers' Reading.—The Examination Committee shall prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. (Minutes, 1897, p. 221.)

80. Probationers and the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Probationers shall preach during the Synods. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

81. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Probationer enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a report upon each year of the Probation which has been spent abroad. This Report shall be laid by the Chairman before the May Synod. (Minutes, 1896, p. 229.)

82. Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution, but, on the recommendation of their Tutors, the term of their residence may be shortened. And in such case, their Probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203; see also Minutes, 1895, p. 334, § 8.)

83. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—The Stationing Committee shall prepare, year by year, for the Conference decision, a list of appointments to which this privilege may be granted. In cases of special emergency which may arise during the year, application for a dispensation to a Probationer to administer the Sacraments shall be made to the President through the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1892, p. 219; 1902, p. 359.)

84. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his colleague or colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

(2) Those Candidates for the Ministry who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special Report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], p. 91.)

(3) Arrangements shall be made by the May Synods for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. PETER THOMPSON, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E. (Minutes, 1889, p. 194.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript. (Minutes, 1889, p. 193.)

(4) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

85. System of Marking in Examinations.—(1) In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

(2) The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Minutes, 1888, p. 214.)

86. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts.—Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

87. Circulars to Members of the Synod.—The Chairman shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of his Synod requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the May Synod; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402.)

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the September Synod.

All Ministers who are members of the Synod shall also be summoned thereto by circular. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

88. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—Circuit Stewards are recommended to have an inspection of every Minister's house by an independent sanitary expert, at every change of Minister, and to hand a certificate of the good sanitary condition of the house to the incoming Minister.

The Synods shall inquire, at their September meetings, whether this recommendation of the Conference has been carried out. (Minutes, 1893, p. 327; 1894, p. 323.)

89. Suggestions to Conference from the Synods.—A copy of any Suggestion from a Synod to the Conference relating to a Connexional Department shall be sent immediately after the Synod to the Secretary of the Department concerned. (Minutes, 1891, p. 323.)

90. Copies of District Minutes.—Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. Simpson Johnson, 49, City Road, London, E.C., not later than June 11, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1799], p. 24; vol. vii. [1835], p. 554; vol. xx. [1877], p. 514; 1881, pp. 307, 308; 1890, p. 326.)

91. Minor Synod.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor Synod is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Synod shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, and the Chairman of the District other two; the six thus chosen, together with the Chairman of the District, to constitute the Minor Synod.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members of the meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 94; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; 1894, p. 217.)

In the case of the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit, the two members of the Minor Synod added by the legislation of 1894 shall be nominated by the President of the Conference. (Minutes, 1897, p. 241.)

92. Substitute for the Chairman of a District.—When the Chairman of a District is unable to attend any meeting of his Synod, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the Synod from among the Ministers then present. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

93. Trial of the Chairman of a District.—In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference to either his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a Meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as Convener of the meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them.

If the guilt of the accused be proved, the Meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the chair; and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman.

The above Resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Minutes, vol. vii. [1835], p. 581) relative to the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Minutes, 1894, p. 217.)

IX. Superintendents.

94. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers appointed to the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as practicable, in order to converse freely respecting the affairs of their Circuit. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1806], p. 348.)

95. Reading of Resolutions on Pastoral Work.—These Resolutions, as far as the words "counted for a forest," shall be read at each May Synod, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry at the May Synod concerning the due observance of this Regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356–366.)

96. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements, on their

Circuit Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], pp. 91, 92.)

97. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Probationers appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 121.)

98. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1838], p. 360.)

99. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the new year; and that, in connexion with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

100. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those Places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Minutes, 1896, p. 230.)

101. Quarterly Fast-days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are Fridays, October 2,

December 18, 1903; March 25 and June 24, 1904. (Minutes, vol. i. [1767], p. 73; vol. v. [1821], p. 249.)

102. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation. (Minutes, 1880, p. 265.)

103. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some Places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–454.)

If, upon inquiry, it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service. (Minutes, 1878, p. 186; 1885, p. 278.)

104. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers for each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

105. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. Dr. HENRY J. POPE, 49, City Road, London, E.C.

106. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 541 ; vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

107. Trial of Trustees.—If a charge is brought against a Trustee, then there shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting before which the charge is investigated the Trustees of the chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected ; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

108. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire-proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property be carefully preserved therein

109. Register of Trust Deeds.—A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed for the purpose by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting.

110. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Minutes, 1891, p. 259.)

111. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that in some Places a desire has been expressed to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Minutes, vol. vii. [1834], p. 420; 1885, p. 185.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Minutes, 1894, p. 323.

112. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a Member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt; the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a colleague, and cannot therefore consult a weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

113. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1807], p. 405.)

114. Junior Society Classes.—In connexion with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. (Minutes, 1894, p. 218.)

115. Joint Circuit Committees.—For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Sunday-school Committee, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be held occasionally. (Minutes, 1891, p. 329.)

116. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also with the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit

Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402; 1885, p. 276; 1892, p. 311; 1893, p. 319.)

117. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit, he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in and approved by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Minutes, 1895, pp. 435, 438; 1898, p. 360.)

118. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Minutes, 1898, p. 361.)

119. Prison Chaplains.—Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which County or Borough Prisons are situate are required to furnish each year in September to the Ministerial Secretary of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail, as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners. (Minutes, 1903, p. 362.)

X. Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

120. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting. (Minutes, 1893, p. 319.)

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Minutes, 1884, p. 191; 1893, p. 319.)

121. Election of Representatives to the Synods.—(1) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, who represent especially the financial interests of the Circuit, each Circuit shall, at the March Quarterly Meeting, elect as members of the Synod either one or two Laymen who are considered suitable on general grounds to take part in the counsels of the Synods in the May and September following.

(2) Circuits employing one or two Ministers shall elect one Representative to the Synod; Circuits with three or more Ministers shall elect two Representatives. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

122. Church Membership and the Synods.—No one is eligible for a seat in a Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Minutes, 1892, p. 309.)

123. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

124. Lay Representation in Synods.—(1) Each Circuit shall be represented in the Synod by its Circuit Stewards, or, in their unavoidable absence, by substitutes, in accordance with the existing regulation on that subject.

(2) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, the March Quarterly Meeting of the Circuits may elect, as members of the Synod at its next meetings in May and September, Laymen, who are considered suitable on general grounds, in the following proportion; viz. (a) Circuits having one or two ministers shall elect one representative; (b) Circuits having more than two ministers may elect one additional representative for each minister in full connexion over the number of two. (Minutes, 1902, p. 111.)

125. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the May Synod; also, a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

126. Candidates for the Ministry.—In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the Synod. (Minutes, 1895, p. 204.)

127. Division of Circuits.—Before a Synod consents to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to debts existing thereon. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270–273.

128. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall in future be fully stated in the Minutes of the Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits.

These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

129. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one third to the Home Mission Fund; one third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A return of the gross amounts collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of such amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Synods. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 528; and vol. xx. [1877], p. 398; also 1885, p. 195.)

130. Quarterly Meeting Inquiry.—In every Circuit Quarterly Meeting inquiry shall be made from the Chair as to the amount received on behalf of Foreign Missions during the quarter, and the payment thereof to the District Treasurer. (Minutes, 1902, p. 14.)

131. The Weekly Offertory.—The Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 286, 287.)

132. Auxiliary Fund.—Whilst anxious to secure separate and accurate returns of the amounts raised in the Classes, the Conference urges upon the Circuits the necessity of the average of Sixpence per Member being made up in each Circuit; and sanctions this being done in such a way as may be approved in the respective Circuits—provided that the Public Collections, usually made in July, be separately returned. (Minutes, 1890, pp. 265, 266.)

133. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 221, 222.)

134. Financial Statement at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference directs that at each June Quarterly Meeting this shall be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Minutes, 1889, p. 288.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 423-425.

135. Statistics of Day and Sunday Schools.—The statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

136. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 111.)

(2) Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year.

But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 367.)

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial. (Minutes, 1891, pp. 331, 362.)

(4) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. ENOCH SALT, 9, Lambert Road, Brixton Hill, London, S.W., not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference. (Minutes, 1889, p. 285.)

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(6) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 368.)

(7) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(8) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 424.)

XI. The Local Preachers' Meeting.

137. Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History; and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Minutes, 1874, vol. xix., p. 455.)

138. No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the Fifty-three Standard Sermons of Mr. Wesley and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity as there explained. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155.)

139. All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Minutes, 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624.)

140. Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Minutes, 1895, p. 437.)

141. A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan. (Minutes, 1895, p. 314.)

142. Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit.

(This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on trial.)

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned. (Minutes, 1895, p. 436.)

143. Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Minutes, 1898, p. 250.)

144. The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155.)

145. Before any place is taken off the Plan the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting shall be obtained. (Minutes, 1895, p. 439.)

146. Local Preachers' Meetings.—In every Local Preachers' Meeting the Superintendent shall inquire quarter by quarter as to the reading of Local Preachers on Trial, and especially as to their reading of Wesley's Sermons and Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, 1902, p. 359.)

XII. Sunday and Day Schools.

147. Sunday-school Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; and also at all meetings of the Committee, and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at anyone of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman; except in the case of a Teachers' Meeting, when one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Minutes, vol. xvii. [1868], p. 384.)

148. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The senior Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

N.B.—Where there are more Superintendents than one, should any difficulty arise as to which Superintendent should be counted the senior, the point may be determined at the meeting when the election of Representatives takes place. The word "senior" is intended to refer to seniority as Superintendent of the School, not to seniority in age.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex officio Representative, a special Representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the school at the annual Teachers' Meeting.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special Representative shall be elected in like manner. The special Representative or Representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for Representatives.

(5) Where there are two sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the annual Teachers' Meeting, elect from among their own number as a Representative some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when Representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present, the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such chairman being a member of the Church. (Minutes, 1894, pp. 313, 314.)

149. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 176; 1882, pp. 224, 225; 1890, p. 279; 1896, p. 230.)

150. Correct Returns from Sunday Schools.—With a view to securing more correct returns from Sunday Schools, it is an instruction to the Secretary or Secretaries of each School that, wherever practicable, the Schedule of Returns be submitted to the Local Committee before such Returns are presented to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1885, p. 278.)

151. Examination of Pupil Teachers.—The Annual Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March. The questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; the Examination held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September Synods, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and the written answers forwarded to the General Secretary, to be valued by a Central Board of Examiners elected by the General Committee. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], pp. 534, 535; vol. xx. [1877], p. 409.)

In connexion with Central Examinations, meetings of Teachers and Pupil Teachers shall be held, under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Education Secretary.

SECTION VI.

ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

The Address

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Dear Brethren,—

Once more we send you our hearty greetings, in thankfulness for your continued goodwill towards us, your interest in the welfare of all men, and your faith in the power of the gospel. Any pastoral counsel we give issues from our confidence in your purpose to realise the fullest Christian life; and our wish that each member of the Church may enjoy the richest grace of God, and that as a community we may become "perfect and entire, lacking nothing." A true Church has many offices and manifold work. Individuals may concentrate their energies on some branch of work; but the Church must strive to be complete, seeking to meet the various needs of human nature and the progressive calls of the time, in order to serve the will of God. Therefore we trust each member will rejoice in the work of others as well as in his own, drawing as much aid and inspiration from it as possible.

The past year has been one of much activity in Church work, and we trust of actual growth. During the year we have suffered losses which have filled us with sorrow. Hugh Price Hughes, Walford Green, William Burt Pope, brethren to whom we have been accustomed to look as leaders, are no longer with us; consequently the grave responsibilities of our position are more acutely felt by those who remain. We pray God in His providence to use such discipline for the well-being of the whole Church. The administration of the Twentieth Century Fund has begun, adding to the labour and solicitude of many in order to secure the most efficient use of the money. We have been surprised and delighted to find that the splendid liberality which brought the Fund to such a large sum has not exhausted your power or your readiness to give. That portion of the Fund which is set aside to help in building Mission Halls, Schools, and Chapels has elicited a remarkable response throughout the country. New erections to the value of £3,000,000 are proposed. Those who beforehand estimated the probable expenditure anticipated that, on an average, at least 25 per cent. must remain as debt. But our people have planned such liberal things that the proposed remaining debt is on the average only 18 per cent. For such an unexpected result we are devoutly thankful, and we trust the spiritual work will be planned and carried out in an equally thorough and enthusiastic spirit.

We thank God that the membership of our Church continues to grow. Of course the strength and healthiness of a Church can never be tested by mere numbers. More depends upon depth of principle, obedience to our Lord, and sympathy with the whole of His revelation, each member realising the wealth of His power, and actively co-operating in the work He has committed to His disciples. Nevertheless there are advantages in a careful record of our numbers; the figures suggest thought, and direct energy to improvements in the methods of using our organisation. We ask your renewed attention to two points: (1) The large number of our members who are young people; 200,000 are connected with Sunday schools, 96,000 being scholars. Probably one third of our members needs special training and encouragement on account of youth. (2) The large number who have ceased to meet in class. If we could ascertain the ages of these, we should find many of them young people. Although something may be due to lack of depth of character, or depth of conviction, the rocky ground on which seed still falls, much of the failure is due to lack of thoroughness in the details of our work, lack of thorough teaching or of wise guardianship. We would impress upon you the duty which ministers and older members owe to the young. Particular care ought to be taken of them as they pass into the responsibilities of life. Perhaps the most critical period for many is immediately after marriage. Subtle influences which once drew them to places of worship, to school, and to church fellowship, now cease to act with equal force, or act in another direction. Cares, disappointments, house duties, it may be new expenses, make it more difficult for them to take the active part they once did in Church meetings.

Let us pay more careful attention, therefore, to young people who begin to absent themselves. Let us make arrangements for frequent visits to them, tenderly and patiently watching over them in this critical period, otherwise they may form habits not easily broken. Personal interest in each one will tell in the long run. No doubt it is easier to act under the contagious fervour of numbers, to feel anxious for the salvation of a crowd; but to watch over single souls who have strayed may be more necessary in our day. Few features of the life of our Lord are more surprising and instructive than His interest in individuals; they never became "masses" to Him. When describing the good Shepherd our Lord said, "He calleth His own sheep by name, and leadeth them out." Remembering these words, and the skilful, untiring thoughtfulness with which He adapted His teaching to the character and temptations of each person, we learn, not only a consolatory truth for ourselves, but an intimation of our own duty; for responsibility rests not on leaders and ministers alone, but upon every member. In this way we "that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves."

The subject of Education has been brought before us this year with peculiar emphasis, and has aroused eager and serious discussion in Conference. Anxiety will continue to be felt, lest injury be done to truth and to the minds of children. We must be vigilant and try to discover the surest means of preventing injury and securing benefit; not forgetting that the temper with which we discuss this question is itself educative. There is an aspect of this question seldom named in public, even when dealing with religion, and one which early Methodists insisted on strongly—the influence of the home. When all is said and done, home education is the most important. The family is God's school for training souls. We ought not, we cannot hand this work over to schoolmasters. Fathers and mothers exert a subtle influence which no teacher, however sympathetic, can command. Value this power you have over your own children, and study how to use it well. "Children are a heritage from the Lord." A heritage may be wasted or improved. Whoever improves this "heritage from the Lord" has a piece of property for all eternity. If children are well trained at home, we need not fear so much the harmful influences of disbelief or priestcraft. Show children how deeply you reverence everything noble and holy, how much you admire what is frank, kindly, and gracious in behaviour, how you value above all else obedience to God, fellowship with Christ, and whatever will help to the more perfect enjoyment of these; then you may trust them to find their way through the temptations which inevitably beset them. Whoever learns to admire what is best will instinctively dislike what is bad, in religion as in literature and art. Besides, the Holy Spirit of God will help, and take advantage of all sacred memories. An atmosphere made genial by the light of Heaven will be created by a Power mightier than men.

On this subject of Education we have another word to say. If we have reason to fear that the religious education given in day schools is defective or false, we must pay more attention to the work of our Sunday schools. Teachers themselves need guidance, and would welcome real help. Teaching is not an art easily mastered. We urge, therefore, that the art be studied, and the true ideal of education in Sunday schools be considered. To supply instruction in Bible history is only a part of education, though an important part. There must be a careful endeavour to call out and strengthen the moral character, to give large and profound ideas of duty in all the relationships of life, because for the moment the teacher is taking the place of parents, perhaps of negligent parents. The topics are inexhaustively fresh if we understand how to set them out. Holy Scripture supplies guidance as no other book does. The variety of literature in it is itself suggestive. Poetry and parable, description and argument, conversation and letters, practical command and theology, stories of family and national life; in so many forms are great truths presented to catch our imagination or fire our ardour. Ought we not to imitate, and use all methods of reaching the mind and heart of children? Especially ought we to note neglected subjects, and guard against threatening dangers and errors. The more danger there is of bad influence or erroneous teaching the more carefully must we strengthen what is sound and set forth what is true by the most effective means. At a time when men are discussing and studying the best methods of teaching arithmetic and geography, we may not be slovenly in teaching religion; and when skilful men are teaching false doctrines attractively, we must seek to bring out Truth in all her loveliness.

The growing importance of the work of teaching makes us anxious to increase the efficiency of all our ministers by a more thorough training. If they are to guide teachers and defend the truth, they need a full equipment. We therefore especially call your attention to the claims of our Theological Institution, and ask you to support us in all efforts to improve the organisation of our colleges. Larger contributions are urgently needed in order to make provision for the increased number of students who are preparing for the ministry.

Recently we have celebrated the Bicentenary of the birth of John Wesley, and naturally have been led to review the wonderful results which have sprung from the deep piety of that Lincolnshire home. The Spirit of God has blessed the work which began in the Epworth nursery, until now the more familiar we are with the history the more are we filled with astonishment. Since we have shared in the benefits, it would be strange if our mouth were not "filled with laughter and our tongue with singing: then said they among the nations, The Lord hath done great things for them. The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad." But as no people can be noble who despise or neglect their finest traditions, so none can advance who are content to glory in the history of past struggles and devotion. Our wisdom will be to consider the secret causes of that great history. Home training, deep personal piety, entire consecration of all powers, and the culture of every kind of gift; a wide, sane, and hopeful outlook,—these were the human conditions of divine blessing.

One branch of this labour we must never forget: it was not limited to our own country. Wesley had the heart of a missionary; like St. Paul he might say, "Yea, making it my aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named . . . but, as it is written, They shall see, to whom no tidings of Him came, and they who have not heard shall understand." The world-wide duty of the Church, the world-wide destiny of the kingdom of our Lord, must never be forgotten by us. By inheritance we are a Missionary Church. For this reason we have been gladdened by the success of the Foreign Missionary Conventions which have been held during the past year; partly, of course, on account of the increased liberality of our members; but still more because the greatness of the work has been more solemnly realised, and a happier consciousness of the spiritual force which abides in the gospel has been quickened. We beg you to take care that the effects of these meetings do not quickly pass away through forgetfulness. In thought and in prayer dwell upon the wider issues of Christianity, and keep before your hope the universal glory of our Lord. Then you will find joy in taking your share in the sacrifices and struggles of our missionaries, and will participate in the triumphs of righteousness and truth.

The same missionary spirit must animate us in our work at home. Wesley strove to lift the whole life of the people of his own land. He insisted on cleanliness, frugality, industry, sobriety, and methodical self-discipline. Though no party man, he did not neglect to urge upon magistrates and rulers such measures in legislation and government as he believed would secure the truest welfare of the greatest number of people. Yet he ever kept before his mind what is the chief aim of the Christian worker—viz. the regeneration of nations by divine grace, creating new life in individuals. The interest he took in objects political and philanthropic, yet subordinating all to the work of saving souls, suggests how we ought to think and act in our own sphere and time. Deep feeling has been roused by the discussion of some moral questions. Drunkenness is so common, and produces so much wretchedness and crime, that we must sympathise with every attempt to lessen the evil through legislation and magisterial action; and must be indignant when the evil is strengthened by the counsel and power of those in authority. The conditions amid which a great part of the population is living are so bad that every Christian must be moved to pity, and long for some authority to step in with power to remedy. Philanthropic work, on a large scale, may in the future be taken up and controlled by Municipalities and the State. These movements demand thought and action on your part. Many will find it necessary to take some share in public controversies, either as representatives or private citizens. At such times do not forget that you are the disciples of Jesus Christ; and that though we have great liberty, with consequent difference of opinion, the unity of the Spirit must be maintained. We have no liberty to be unfair, hasty, or to use reckless language. No cause suffers from being advocated with sobriety and kindliness. The nobler the principles and interests at stake the stronger are the reasons for fairness and dignity. It is particularly important to act and speak on all political and civic affairs in such a way that, when we meet in Church councils and for Christian work, there may be the least possible feeling that we are in a strange atmosphere, the least weakening of brotherly friendship, the smallest loss of faith in the reality of the divine life within ourselves and others. Besides, we must remember there is one essential thing the State can never supply—the spirit of sympathy. Christian charity is a temper which needs for its growth and maintenance a higher inspiration than a vivid sense of human need. The pitifulness taught by Christ and His Cross goes deeper than public compassion. It sympathises with the entire man. We rejoice in all efforts to improve men's earthly lot—better housing, free access to knowledge, relaxation from toil and worry; but we must ever bear in mind that the souls of men are most in need of help and salvation. The fact that social work is so unselfish, and has something of the largeness and noble emotion of Christian charity, may hide from us the fact that little account is taken of the inner conflict between good and evil, between temptation and grace; we may lose sight of the great final issues of time and eternity. Nearly all men admit that religion has some value. But what is its place? Which comes first—the world or God? We are the disciples of Him who said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

Two things are needed to preserve the true spirit of our work: (1) To call the attention of men to their own deepest spiritual needs, and the only source whence these can be supplied. An old lesson is being forced upon us in these days, a lesson which the history of our Church illustrates, especially its history in this county of Cornwall, that no power is adequate to deal with the evils of the world save the divine. The grace which lifted the miners and fishermen of Cornwall can renew the world. If God does not help us, there is no prospect of real happiness, certainly none of real blessedness for men. Therefore we must strive to make men aware of their deeper needs, basing our appeals to them on broad, solid reasons such as are given in Scripture—the value of the soul, and its possibilities through God's grace. The failure of legislation to bring about what men hope for, the failure of commercial prosperity to do away with poverty and wretchedness, may help us to turn their eyes to the Redeemer "who has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel."

Then remember (2) how necessary it is to maintain our own fellowship with the great realities of the unseen world, in order to compel men to see how precious is this fellowship. The nurse must guard her own health by scrupulous cleanliness, regular exercise, and breathing fresh air, or she may become unequal to cheerful toil, and set her patients a bad example. Before we can do much for others we must have abounding life ourselves. Nearly all the greatest deeds have been done by souls made great through constant intercourse with infinite Wisdom and Love. If we have little within ourselves—shallow thoughts about men and God, little experience of the sublimity of spiritual realities—we shall be poverty-stricken in our power to help others; when men love holiness, they will bless the world. In saintliness there dwells a charm the vicious feel; and though they may not at once imitate, in their secret heart they own its beauty. Especially do we urge upon you the need of thoughtfulness and sincerity in public worship. No single duty receives so much attention in Scripture. Nothing attracts so much the notice of the world. No act is so prophetic of the rapture and glory of the future life. No movement of spirit brings us into fuller communion with God in the greatness of His power and His gracious love for His saints. As a consequence of the loftiness of this service, there is none which makes such demands on all the powers of mind and heart. Worship demands thought, imagination, faith and love, will and action. Prepare yourselves for it. Whilst there are men who dislike and avoid worship, they instinctively feel its awe and significance, and wherever they see true reverence and joy acknowledge their power and solemnity. Neglect of worship may be due to our own weariness and joylessness; adoration of our Lord is not always our delight, and can only become a delight as we ponder humbly the truths revealed to us, and accept God's grace with thankfulness. Poor, low thoughts concerning God make dreary services. Whatever be our interest in the welfare of men, we must enter on all labour with the sense of the divine presence—a cheerful, strong, wise, and tender spirit, the result of adoration and prayer to Him whose eye was the first to pity and whose arm brought salvation.

Seeing that the service of our fellow-men and the worship of God cannot be separated from the habitual life of the soul, we impress upon you the need of daily consecration. Consecration is not the act of a moment, requiring no repetition. Often as God renews His gifts we should renew our self-surrender. The simplest matters of daily practice are all the better for being connected in our thoughts with eternal truths. Observe how the apostles join details of behaviour with the most sublime doctrines and facts of our holy faith: truthfulness with brotherhood, industry with loyalty to Christ, liberality with the Incarnation and the Cross, the trivial duties of household servants with the entire Christian revelation. Such constant and lofty thought will supply grace and dignity to conduct, and keep your hearts in peace. There is reason to fear lest enthusiasm for holiness decline among us. Many influences combined have relaxed the discipline of our Church over some details of practice. Nevertheless it will be a sorry result if there be no discipline at all. When a man is left to himself, he ought to be more thoughtful, honouring the trust reposed in him, and should see in personal responsibility a reason for more exact care. Therefore we counsel you to have fixed principles, and take pains to turn principles into rules of life. Do not leave what you will do or not do to the impulse of the moment. Consider beforehand what you can and ought to do with your strength, money, knowledge, time, and influence. The moment of action and temptation is not the moment in which to decide what is right or wrong. Settle that in your hearts earlier, in the presence of God. "An unexamined life is not worth living." If the Church has ceased to treat you as children, then "quit you like men, be strong." If our beliefs be larger and our freedom more complete, we ought to realise the responsibility as well as the honour of self-determination and self-direction. "Take heed that ye use not your liberty as an occasion to the flesh." When our Lord set men free from bondage to the law, He did so by lifting them to higher realms of hope and duty; by turning their aspirations towards the beatitudes of character; by urging concurrence with the will of God, "That ye may be children of your Father which is in heaven." As an artist passionately seeks loveliness, so let us seek the "strength and beauty" of the hidden life.

You are not ignorant of the many hindrances to the work of God. Excessive fondness for sports and amusements, absorption in business, spiritual fatigue or indifference, make men deaf to our appeals. Low-thoughted care prevails. But let us not acquiesce in such indifference as inevitable. Beware of finding explanations of weakness, of failure to convert men, anywhere else than in ourselves. The choked pipe often is the cause of the small supply of living water; and the small supply of living water may be the reason why so few come seeking it. All difficulties in the way of our work are like snags in the bed of a river, which clever boatmen avoid, and skilled engineers may remove or a flood wash out of the way for ever. Sometimes we are cast down that so few souls care for our message of a higher life. In such hours turn your thoughts to the few who do, recall their value, and remember they help to spread the light. Above all, remember we are not alone. Our thoughts, emotions, and efforts are as waves of the sea; but behind, beneath, and within us is the power of a mighty tide:

> Now of Thy love we deem
> As of an ocean vast.

"Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!" The greatest Church is only like a port upon the ocean's shore, dependent upon it for wealth and power. Dredge deep the bar and cleanse away the silt of daily cares; then on the bosom of incoming tides, from commerce with the unseen world, shall pass such wealthy freights that life far inland will be enriched, and prayerless, hopeless souls be blessed. "Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be the glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations for ever and ever. Amen."

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1903

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1903.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,—

Assembled once more in our Annual Conference, we embrace the opportunity of presenting to you our respectful and affectionate regards and salutation.

We have received your beloved and honoured President and ours, the Rev. John S. Banks, D.D., and your other highly esteemed representatives, Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D., Rev. Thomas Rippon, and Mr. J. Bamford Slack, B.A., with sincere cordiality, and have greatly appreciated their efficient and valuable services.

We give thanks to the great Head of the Church that in a declining population we are again able to report an increase in our Church membership, an increase which, though it may appear inconsiderable to you, is not so to us who have to struggle hard against adverse circumstances, and especially against the tide of emigration that is ever receding and never returning.

The shadow of death that has fallen lightly upon our Conference has been heavy and dark upon you during the year. Our sorrow was very deep when the startling tidings reached us that Hugh Price Hughes was dead. When we think of the unique services which, by the grace of God, he rendered to Methodism and to the Church of Christ in every land for over a quarter of a century by his forceful pen, his rousing voice, and his vivid personality, we feel that your loss and ours and the world's is great indeed. We also mourned with you when Walford Green, another valuable and greatly beloved ex-President, who had always taken a kindly and practical interest in our affairs, was taken from you.

The schemes adopted in recent years to reach our fellow-countrymen who are without Christ in our large centres of population and the small towns and villages have been carried on during the past year with increasing vigour and with encouraging success. The glorious gospel judiciously and courageously proclaimed in the open air, not only in Ulster, but also in many towns and villages in the south and west, has been the power of God unto the salvation of men and women, not a few of whom had immediately afterwards to leave their homes for a distant land, where they would be free to serve their God and Saviour according to their conscience.

We look with increasing admiration at the near completion of your Twentieth Century Fund. We rejoice with you in the success of so unprecedented an effort for the kingdom of God, and we thank God for the Christian audacity of your wise men in securing a magnificent site in London for a Church House which will be a centre of light and blessing for many generations. We pray that the God of all grace may give unto you wisdom to use the vast resources, spiritual and material, entrusted to you for the glory of God and the benefit of the nation.

The success of our similar effort, resulting up to the present in a total, including interest, of £51,485, fills us with devout gratitude to the Giver of all good, and inspires us with the hope that our people, who out of their limited resources have so generously brought their tithes into the Lord's store-house, are about to share largely in those "showers of blessing" promised under such conditions in the inspired word.

We have watched with interest and concern for you the Education Act passed during the year; and with your desire and determination to have your children taught in schools that are free from intolerance and sacerdotalism we entirely sympathise. We continue to devote earnest attention to the education of our young people. Our Colleges in Dublin and Belfast are growing in efficiency and prosperity, and we are watching with deep anxiety the impending changes in our national education, both primary and higher.

It is cause for rejoicing that the results of the new Licensing Acts are in favour of public sobriety. We are sorely in need of further temperance reforms in this country, as you are in yours, especially total Sunday and early Saturday closing of public-houses. We are very thankful to be able to say that the Methodist Church in Ireland stands high as an example of sobriety, and speaks boldly against our national evils of intemperance and Sabbath desecration.

We cannot but view with deep concern the recent proposals of the Committee of the Wesleyan Missionary Society to reduce the support hitherto given to the work the Society originated in this country, the results of which are found to-day in every land. The Irish Conference is deeply impressed with the needs of the heathen world and the claims on the Society to extend and develop its operations in other lands, and is anxious to do all in its power for the furtherance of the gospel at home and abroad; but we regret to be obliged to inform you that we cannot possibly look for a development of local resources sufficient to meet the deficiency which would be caused by any considerable reduction of the Missionary Society's grant. We therefore earnestly hope for such financial arrangements with the Missionary Society as shall save us from the painful necessity of abandoning districts of our land where Methodist teaching and work are so urgently required.

We have some reason to hope that the new Land Bill will bring to our shores the dawn of an era of peace and prosperity, and that the long campaign of agitation and suffering—the result of misunderstanding and misgovernment—will come to an end for ever, that Irishmen of every class and creed may live together in harmony, and unite in promoting and developing the industries and resources of our beautiful island.

Then—when long-standing grievances no longer exist—may we hope that the minds and hearts of our fellow-countrymen will turn once more to Him who in long ages past made us great, glorious, and free. We have chosen the following highly esteemed brethren as our Representatives to your Conference at Camborne. The Rev. William Nicholas, M.A., D.D. (whom we nominate as the Irish member of the Delegation), the Rev. Edward Hazelton, the Rev. William Corrigan, and Mr. Philip B. Robinson. They will more fully inform you of our affairs.

In conclusion we ask you to receive the assurance of our strong attachment in Christ, and of our earnest prayer that both you and we may be found worthy of an inheritance among all them that are sanctified, called, and chosen, and faithful.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

CALEB SHERA LAIRD, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1903

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1903.

BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

We have received with much pleasure your address of affectionate greeting, and we heartily reciprocate your fraternal salutations. It has also afforded us much satisfaction to welcome your honoured Representatives, who, by their enthusiastic public utterances, have worthily advocated your cause.

We deeply appreciate your sympathetic references to our heavy losses by death during the year. Ten men in the active work have been mysteriously taken from us, besides many veterans who, at the close of a long eventide of rest, have fallen asleep. In the long roll we name three especially: William Burt Pope, the saint and mystic, was greatly beloved by a wide circle of friends, and especially by a large number of his students. Although he dwelt long in the shadow, he had enriched our theological literature during the days of his strength. Walford Green will long be gratefully remembered for his wise administrative service, and specially for his valuable and loving care for his aged brethren. Hugh Price Hughes rendered a many-sided service to the kingdom of Christ. His enthusiastic zeal and evangelical devotion will preserve his name as a welcome memory. He became the advocate and promoter of that new policy of aggression which has transformed our old town chapels into large mission centres.

We rejoice that with a decreasing population you can report an increasing membership. We recognise that, amid the adverse circumstances of opposition and emigration, you have a devoted and cultured band of Methodist preachers and loyal lay workers who are bravely grappling with the task of winning Ireland to Protestant Christianity. We thank God on your behalf that during the last decade the Methodist Church has increased by about 10 per cent. When we remember that this is the only Church that has increased at all, we think you have every reason to go forward in the name of the Lord. The distribution of the word of God and the preaching of the gospel truth are the best antidotes to the ignorance and darkness of Popery; ultimately Protestantism must prevail.

We congratulate you on the growing vigour and the encouraging success of your Missions, both in the crowded city centres and amongst the scattered rural populations. We are glad to know that, as in every stage of our history, God's seal is still placed upon open-air preaching. You will rejoice with us that our Home Mission work is equally prosperous. To the multiplication of central missions in our towns we have added the policy of the amalgamation of small rural circuits, some of which have been single stations. The result has been a large increase of membership, extensive schemes of aggression, and new life and energy in all departments of our work.

We are glad to know that your Twentieth Century Fund has been brought to such a successful issue that £51,485 has been actually received towards your noble attempt to raise 52,000 guineas. We recognise the great loyalty, generosity, and sacrifice of your people in the amassing of these resources for future aggressive work, and we pray that your heart's desire may be more than realised for the glory of God and the salvation of your country. We, too, rejoice in the practical completion of our great undertaking. £967,000 has been received, and next Conference we shall finally close the Fund. The new century developments of our Church organisations called forth by the allocation of the Fund have already begun. A remarkable incentive has been given to chapel and school extension, representing an outlay of three millions sterling.

We cordially appreciate your sympathetic solicitude for us in the changes which are taking place in our national system of education. The subject has given the Conference much anxiety, and after most careful consideration it has spoken most emphatically in favour of the repeal or fundamental amendment of the Act of last year. Our policy is to secure a national system of education without any endowment of sacerdotal teaching. Amid your continued devotion to the education of the young, we join with you in watching alertly the impending changes in your educational system, and we assure you of our co-operation in opposing any attempt to the State endowment of a Roman Catholic University. We can congratulate each other on the successful Secondary Education work in our colleges and middle-class schools. With you, too, we are strenuously working in the cause of temperance and in the guarding of the sacredness of the Lord's Day. Special attention has also been given this year to the work of the Theological Institution. We are extending the college accommodation for the increased number of candidates required, and also increasing the tutorial staff for their efficient training. The programme of the Conference includes a great advance.

As last year, our Conference has been deeply stirred to the importance of a more aggressive policy with regard to Foreign Missions. The President's Conventions during the year have been a great success. Earnest pleading and generous gift encouraged the Conference to resolve upon a week of Missionary Intercession in March next, to be followed by a personal appeal for service and support. Your earnest desire for considerate treatment respecting the proposed reduction of the Missionary Society's grant for the Irish work will be duly laid before the Committee, and will receive its most careful consideration during the coming year.

We greatly rejoice in the hopeful tone of your address respecting the prospects of Ireland's better future. We are glad to believe that the days of her deepest poverty are past, and that the Irish people are greatly developing the resources of their own country and have better wages and increased comforts. We believe that his Majesty's successful visit to your isle, and the new Irish Land Bill, will both intensify the feeling of loyalty to this country, and we trust that they are happy auguries of that new era of peace and prosperity for which you long. We pray with you for the hastening of the day when the Irish race of every class and creed shall be welded with us into one united nation.

We welcome and cordially approve your choice of the Rev. William Nicholas, M.A., D.D., as your Vice-President for next year. He is well known to us by his genial presence and wise counsel in our Conference, and by his effective public services.

We have deputed the Rev. John S. Banks, D.D., Alfred Sargent, James Chapman, and Mr. James Vanner Early, to accompany the President on his visit to your next Conference.

And now we commend you to God. "The Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary.

OF THE

FRENCH CONFERENCE OF 1903

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1903.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Since last we addressed you momentous events have warned us that our nation is being called to pass through a crisis which may profoundly affect its future. We know that we may count on your earnest prayers that God will bring the Christian Churches of France safely through the severe ordeal to which they are being subjected.

In some quarters there are signs of an active and growing opposition, not only to the superstitions and political plottings of the Church of Rome, but even to every form of Christianity. On the other hand, there are still evidences that a proportion of our people distinguish between the false and the true. Remarkable scenes have been witnessed in one of our own chapels at the very gates of Paris, where night after night in Holy Week crowds assembled to listen to the faithful preaching of a former Oblate of Mary Immaculate. Whilst a priest and his companion insulted the preacher in the pulpit, working men who had come in to listen took our defence, and the matter has "fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel."

We are rejoiced by the proofs of increased spiritual life in our Churches. We receive news of conversions from several of them, and the truly blessed movement among our young people in connexion with the Christian Endeavour and similar associations continues to fill us with hope and gratitude.

Two of our ministers have been called away by death. Both were true evangelists. One of them, Brother Galland, had for many years exercised a gracious influence by means of his monthly periodical, La Chambre Haute, which was useful in drawing Christians of different denominations together in oneness of purpose and heart.

We deeply feel with you the loss sustained by our world-wide Methodism in the removal from the Church militant to the Church triumphant of a true friend of France—Hugh Price Hughes. We do not forget that it was due to his brilliant and spirited initiative that a number of French ex-priests were invited to your Conference, thus at the same time encouraging the interesting movement among our colleagues, and showing to your countrymen the evils of sacerdotalism.

We rejoice, with other of our countrymen, that the visit of his Majesty Edward VII. to Paris, and the approaching visit of the President of the French Republic to London, are contributing to the establishment of goodwill between the peoples; and we pray most fervently that permanent peace may exist between the nations we represent.

This year has seen a determined effort on the part of several of our Southern Churches to grapple with our financial difficulties. The treasurer of the Southern District has visited every station, and has written vigorous articles on the absolute necessity of their facing the problem of self-support.

The possibility of the separation between Church and State, with the disendowment of the former, may render the presence of even our weak Churches in certain regions an untold benefit to those who otherwise may be deprived of the means of grace. It may be that Methodism, with its system of lay preachers and class-leaders, may render timely and providential help to some of the old Churches of the Reform, and that thus a new field of service may be opened to us.

We thank God for the courage and evangelistic zeal of our young ministers and the devotion of our godly laymen. We bless God for "drops" which we trust are beginnings of "showers" of blessing, and we trust that He who has hitherto helped will continue to sustain both you and us in the struggle against doubt, worldliness, and sin.

Our Conference this year met at Nîmes, that interesting centre of our work in the south of France. As usual, we have been surrounded with kindness; our public services have been eminently successful, and a spirit of hopefulness and true spirituality has marked both our private and public exercises. In concluding, we have nominated the Rev. Jules Guiton as our President for next year, and appointed the Rev. Matthieu Gallienne as our Delegate to your Conference in Camborne.

May your sittings be marked with all the blessings of the gospel, and may your world-wide work be crowned with abundance of prosperity.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,
EMILE BRÈS, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1903

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE, 1903.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

Your Address was received by the Conference, and a cordial welcome was given to your esteemed representative the Rev. Matthieu Gallienne. We heartily approve your nomination of the Rev. Jules Guiton as your next President. His experience and great gifts are appreciated by us as by you, and we earnestly pray that his year's office may be fruitful in blessing.

We have followed with deep interest the momentous national events to which you refer, and assure you of our sympathy with you in the severe ordeals to which, in common with other branches of the Christian Church in France, you are being subjected. To confound the superstitions and political plottings of the Church of Rome with the faith and unselfish service of the Evangelical Churches reveals that singular obliquity of moral vision which is the distinguishing and abiding characteristic of atheism. Our unswerving confidence is in Him who "stilleth the raging of the seas and the tumult of the nations," and whom "the very wrath of man is made to praise." Meanwhile, it remains both for you and for us, dear brethren, to work steadfastly on in the cause of our Master with patient hopefulness, knowing that, if we fill the present hours with wise service and unfaltering devotion, we may face the future with undisturbed tranquillity. We share your joy in the increasing spiritual life of your Churches. This is of supreme importance. A deepened spiritual life, and what Guizot called "the generous passion for souls," are the chief qualities of a Christian Church, and are to be sought for earnestly and perseveringly, so that Christ may be glorified in us, and that the world may be enriched by the blessings wherewith we ourselves may be blessed of God.

The monthly periodical, La Chambre Haute, is not unknown to many of us, and we mourn with you the loss of the respected minister who for so many years edited its pages. We, too, have suffered many and grave losses. Walford Green and Hugh Price Hughes were distinguished servants of God, and both were true friends of French Methodism. In the former we miss a gracious presence, a skilful administrator, and a most brotherly man; the loss of the latter is deeply mourned, and our sorrow is shared by all the Churches.

The presence in France of his Majesty Edward VII., and in England of M. Loubet, President of the French Republic, and the enthusiastic welcome accorded to both, will, we trust, serve to increase the growing cordiality between the two nations. We unanimously and heartily passed a resolution welcoming the proposal of a treaty of arbitration between England and France, trusting that it will bring about a more settled friendship between the two countries, and promote the cause of peace and goodwill throughout the world. To admit the presentation of this resolution to the French Deputies assembled in London, the Conference suspended its standing orders touching debate, and we had the honour of being the first ecclesiastical body which expressed approval of this hopeful augury of better times.

We join with you in thankfulness to God for the devotion of your godly laymen, and for the courage and evangelistic zeal of your young ministers. We remember that your French Protestant pulpit has a history of which you and we are justly proud. We pray that the head of the Church will continue to you and the other Protestant Churches of France a glorious succession of able ministers, faithful pastors, and earnest evangelists. For you we desire every needful gift, divine guidance in all your councils, divine consolations in all your trials, divine strength in all your activities. May the blessing of the Triune God be with you in your Churches and in your homes.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary.

OF THE

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1903

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1903.

Dear and Honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

Assembled in our Twenty-first Annual Conference, under the Presidency of the Rev. Nendick Abraham, it is a pleasing part of our duty to convey to you our affectionate greetings. Your fraternal and sympathetic Address has been received with feelings of gratitude, and we sincerely appreciate your loving interest in all the departments of our Church work.

The past years have been a period of stress and strain. Circuits in the northern part of our Connexion have suffered severely; Church property has been destroyed, and our Societies have been scattered. We unite in heartfelt thanks to Almighty God that we are once again permitted to assemble under the inestimable blessings of peace. The work, thus so sadly interrupted, is now being reorganised, and we trust that "the things which happened" may have "fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel."

Looking back upon the ten years which have elapsed since our Conference last met in this town, we find much to occasion thanksgiving and joy. Then our members numbered 36,367; now we have 69,155 full members, with 27,324 on trial, and 20,226 meeting in junior classes. It will thus be seen that we have not been suffered to labour in vain or spend our strength for nought. "Thanks be unto God which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place."

We rejoice to know that, through the sanctified enthusiasm of British Methodism, you have been permitted to bring your Twentieth Century Fund to so successful a completion. You will doubtless reciprocate that feeling when you learn that, notwithstanding the troublous times through which we have passed, our people have generously responded to the appeal we made for our own Twentieth Century Fund, which has now reached the sum of over £25,000. This amount we have allocated to the various objects for which it was raised.

Our educational institutions—the Kingswood College and High School for Girls, Grahamstown, and Queenswood School, Queenstown—are maintaining their high reputation for excellence. The Grahamstown schools have both completed arrangements for much-needed increased accommodation.

We have ordained to the work of our ministry four English and two native probationers, and have admitted on trial eight English and eight native candidates. We are sending to your Theological Institution four young men as students, and three native students to the Theological Institution at Lesseyton. But this number is quite inadequate to the requirements of our work. The fields are white unto harvest, and on every side there are calls for more labourers. In many Circuits the sparse population is unfavourable to the employment and training of local preachers. Gifts for this service remain latent, and our colonial young men, who might enter the ministry under other conditions, are not led to do so in sufficient numbers. We have to look elsewhere for men qualified for the work; and, indeed, the question of candidates for the ministry is our most serious concern. "Pray," with us, "the Lord of the harvest, that He send forth labourers into His harvest."

We have again been grievously afflicted by the death of good and useful ministers. Barnabas J. Shaw and Charles Harmon have passed peacefully into the presence of their Lord, after many years of faithful and successful labour. We also mourn the loss of Thomas Spargo, of whom it may be said that his life was shortened by his unremitting and devoted toil; and of Alfred E. Barnett, a young man of much promise, cut down in the first year of his probation.

A large measure of success has been granted to our Wesley Guild movement, and we have now arranged a constitution suitable to the conditions of life in this country. Our hope is that, by means of this organisation, we may awaken and deepen the Christian life of the young people of our Church, and encourag them in the highest and best forms of Christian service.

The Marsh Memorial Homes for Orphan and Destitute

Children, provided through the generosity of the late Mr. William Marsh, have been successfully opened; and this important philanthropic work is being ably carried out under the care of the Rev. T. E. Marsh, the Principal of this Institution.

We have appointed the Rev. William Wynne as our Ministerial Representative to the Yearly Conference, to convey to you our respectful salutations and the expression of our unabated affection. We have also appointed Mr. J. Bisseker, of East London, as our Lay Representative. These brethren, in whom we have the fullest confidence, and to whom we know you will extend a cordial reception, will communicate with you more fully in regard to our affairs and the state and prospects of the work of God in this land.

We respectfully nominate, for the second time, the Rev. Ezra Nuttall as the President of our Conference to be held in Durban next year. In many ways he has rendered our Church distinguished and invaluable service. His large experience in Connexional affairs, and his vigorous administrative abilities, pre-eminently qualify him for this high office, and we feel confident that this nomination will meet with your cordial approval.

We are greatly indebted to the wisdom and kindliness of our beloved President, under whose capable guidance and ministrations our Conference has been distinguished by brotherly harmony, close attention to business, and very gracious spiritual influence.

We desire, in conclusion, honoured fathers and brethren, to assure you of the great interest we feel in your labours and triumphs in the home land, and we solicit your continued sympathy and prayer on our behalf.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

EZRA NUTTALL,

Secretary of the Conference.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1903

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1903.

Brethren and Fathers beloved in the Lord,—

We rejoice exceedingly that your first year of restored peace in South Africa has yielded the precious fruit described in your Annual Greeting and in the Address to us of your honoured Representative.

We raise no objection to the constitutional changes you propose to make, and warmly approve your calling to the Presidential chair for the second time the Rev. Ezra Nuttall, a minister whose praise is in all the Churches. Your retiring President we admire, not merely for the fervour of his evangelistic zeal, but also for his patient endurance of manifold sufferings; and in your new President we are glad to recognise a vigorous Christian statesman who "has understanding of the times, and knows what Israel ought to do."

That amid the distraction and desolations resulting from a terrible war you have so maintained your confidence in God and in the boundless destinies of your many-peopled country as to make such marked progress, alike in actual soul-winning, in the building of sanctuaries, and in the completing of your Century Fund, is to us a sure pledge of further enterprise yet more heroic. South Africa bids fair to become a keystone in the arch of Anglo-Saxon sovereignty, and the great possibilities of spiritual development which are opening before you may well captivate your imagination and kindle to a flame your godliest ambitions.

We note, therefore, with abounding thankfulness that there has come to you, as also to us, a gracious restlessness, a sacred discontent, an unfaltering determination to reach forth unto the things that are before, a fixed resolve to expect great things.

May the Lord of Hosts indeed make you a hundredfold more than ye are!

In this connexion we remember that, while thousands of our sons are now sleeping in your many military cemeteries, thousands more are crossing the sea to become your fellow-citizens. The living and the dead thus unite to make South Africa the land of our tenderest affection as well as of our triumphant hope. The dead we commit to your reverent keeping. Their graves are links of empire, strong and sacred, towards which countless mother-hearts throughout all the King's domains will constantly turn. The living we no less confidently commend to your pastoral care, and pray that they may become to you in due time a heritage more precious than gold or rubies.

The revived interest in Foreign Missions which is now making itself manifest in our midst will enable us to add considerably to our Mission Staff in the Transvaal, as also in the regions beyond, and we doubt not that in the vast adjoining area committed to your especial care a corresponding increase of effort will be witnessed; so that our united endeavours may be relied on through the Holy Spirit's aid to retain in perpetuity for the Wesleyan Church in South Africa its honoured place among the agencies that make for righteousness.

With this end in view we are gratified to hear you have secured so many additional candidates for your Ministry, and that you propose sending some of them to us for special training. We trust that they will all become "workmen needing not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." Our Theological Colleges, though now being enlarged at great cost, will still prove inadequate to accommodate the candidates we have ourselves accepted.

It is our earnest hope that the new legislation for the restriction of the liquor traffic now being enforced in the Orange River Colony and the Transvaal will soon in substance be extended to all South Africa, and that as the result —not among natives only—ever-growing sobriety will prove a sure promoter of all good citizenship, linked to all true saintliness of life and character.

In certain parts of your far-reaching Conference area you also now find yourselves confronted by new educational legislation, though of a less controversial type than that which has disturbed the peace of our own country. You are fortunately less fettered than we are by ancient usage or vested interests; and we doubt not you will use to the full the additional facilities thus afforded for promoting primary and secondary education among all classes of your complex community. We wish the utmost success to your existing colleges, as also to those you purpose shortly to establish, and we shall rely on you to rival in these matters the zeal and foresight of the more vigorous of your competitors.

The opening of your Marsh Orphanage affords us peculiar satisfaction. With you as with us this type of Christian philanthropy cannot fail to win within the Church itself generous support, and to secure the sympathetic approval of "those who are still without." Nothing in British Methodism is to-day more popular than our Orphanage work; and though no such princely gift as that which created yours has yet enriched ours, we have been privileged during our present Sessions to acknowledge a promise of £20,000 from a large-hearted lady for the establishment of a new Branch near Liverpool.

Your reference to the heavy losses you have sustained during the year awaken in our hearts a responsive sorrow; for we, too, have been sorely bereaved, especially by the passing to higher service of William Burt Pope, the greatest of our theologians; of Walford Green, who long lived to lighten the burdens of his aged brethren; and of Hugh Price Hughes, whose fame as a fearless champion of "whatsoever things are of good report" still stimulates us all. We find our supreme solace in the thought of the enthroned Christ, at whose girdle hang the keys of all realms and all resources. To Him we look for yet more gifted labourers than the saintliest of our sires, and for a fulness of power from on high that shall in due time transform all nations.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN HORNABROOK, Secretary.

OF THE

WEST INDIAN WESTERN CONFERENCE

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1903.

Honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

We are again, in the good providence of God, assembled in our Annual Conference, and among our privileges is that of approaching you with expressions of our continued esteem and the assurance of our prayer for your increased usefulness in the great work which seems specially committed to all Methodist Churches—that of spreading scriptural holiness throughout the land.

The past year has been marked by events which have had deep concern for all parts of the empire to which we belong.

The serious illness of his Majesty the King, occurring so close upon the arrangements of his coronation, affected Methodists throughout his dominions, and evoked their loyal sympathy and their earnest pleadings with God for his recovery; that recovery and his Majesty's subsequent coronation were matters for great joy to his subjects everywhere.

The termination of the war in South Africa causes us, as subjects of the Prince of peace, devout gratitude.

The distressing circumstances which have befallen some of our sister islands appealed to us as neighbours; and our Churches here have taken a small share in contributing to the relief of our sister Churches in the island of St. Vincent. Only our own straitened monetary resources hindered us from doing for them all that was in our hearts to do.

Methodism and the Christian Church at large have suffered great loss in the removal by death of the Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, one of the princes of our Israel, in the prime of life and in the midst of his strenuous toil for the betterment of humanity—a heavy stroke and inscrutable; we can only be submissive, and pray that the mantle from his shoulders may fall upon a successor as able to bear it with dignity and usefulness. We are grateful that the ministry in this Conference has not been touched by the fell destroyer.

The review by the Conference of our work in our Churches, we are grateful to say, gives points for encouragement. Numerically we have more than kept our ground; and spiritually we cherish the hope that our ministry during the year has helped that tone of Christian life which prepares our people "to die well." Financially we are looking for the time when the clouds shall disperse and the shadows flee away. Those of us in the struggle are sometimes borne down by care;

> But yet by faith we venture,
> And hope upon the way.

We have shared with our people in their sufferings; we may hope to share with them any return of better times.

Our Missionaries in Hayti and San Domingo continue to hold up the truth in its evangelical purity amidst populations that are spiritually dark or suffer loss by the obscured light of Popery. In South and Central America our Mission is at a disadvantage by the return, because of urgent family claims, of the Rev. A. W. Geddes, who for fourteen years did effective work as the Superintendent of that Mission. We are glad now to appoint a successor.

We are thankful to report an increase of 549 in the membership of our Conference; there being now 22,305 members, 1,579 on trial, 6,653 junior members, and 14,672 Sunday scholars.

If we rightly interpret indications, this is our last Address to you as an affiliated Conference. We have waited long for your Missionary Committee's mind on our representations as to our hampered financial condition and our appeals. As the abolition of this Conference and a return to the status quo ante are the only terms upon which you will give us the needed financial help, we hand back to you the constitution with which eighteen years ago you entrusted us—a step caused mainly by the impoverished condition into which the greater portion of our constituents have fallen during the recent years of commercial and agricultural depression in this island.

At the start we were heavily hindered by large Trust liabilities, and in the course of the years these have been added to in the effort to preserve what we had provided.

But for the insurmountable difficulties arising out of these Trust obligations, we might have been content to struggle on as a Conference, notwithstanding the seriously lessened ministerial income which most of us have suffered. If our chapels, school-houses, and ministers' residences were realisable assets, we may, from a commercial aspect, be regarded as more than solvent.

In the "olden times" the Churches of these West Indies were the glory of your Missionary Society. The glamour associated with recent converts and a people newly passed from slavery has passed away; but we are grateful to feel that we are handing back fairly organised Churches, with a large proportion of men and women whose intelligence and piety are a foundation of hope for advancing Christian usefulness and power in our communities.

We do not doubt your own sincere interest in us and the Methodism which is dear to you and to us; and we earnestly pray that you may have given for this work in connexion with the proposed change a large measure of the wisdom that is profitable to direct.

We thank you for confirming our nomination of the Rev. W. Clarke Murray, D.D., as our President, and we have pleasure in again nominating him to that office for another year.

We are pleased to appoint Rev. W. J. Maund as our Representative to your Conference.

"Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be the glory in the Church and in Jesus Christ unto all generations, for ever and ever. Amen."

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference,

WILLIAM J. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

The Conference directed that the Address should be suitably acknowledged.

OF THE

EASTERN WEST INDIAN CONFERENCE OF 1903

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1903.

FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

The time-honoured usage of our Conference and the impulses of our hearts prompt us to approach you with the expression of our respectful regard and affection in Christ Jesus.

We have met under circumstances of exceptional difficulty, owing to the existence of epidemic disease in some of the islands within the area of this Conference and in British Guiana; but we are thankful that it has been possible to meet and to transact the business of our Conference without serious inconvenience to our work.

You will be formally acquainted by the Secretary of the Conference of the step which has been taken in surrendering the constitution, whereby we shall return to the condition existing prior to the formation of the Conference nineteen years ago. The circumstances which have compelled the Conference to adopt such a course are well known to you, and have been referred to for many years in succession.

We are glad to report that in this the last Conference we have been cheered by an increase of our membership and by the unprecedented return of over two thousand members on trial. Assured of your unabated interest in the work to which we have given our lives, we earnestly pray that, under those measures of relief contemplated by your Missionary Committee, the progress of our Church in these islands may be fully commensurate with the labours bestowed, and that in these, the oldest missions of our Church, may be witnessed in the future as in the past the noblest triumphs of Missionary Methodism.

The Conference desires to express its great satisfaction at the prospect of the elevation of the Rev. Marshall Hartley to the Chair of your Conference. Mr. Hartley's long service as one of the Missionary Secretaries, and his knowledge of and sympathy with our work in the West Indies, have secured for him the respect and affection of all the ministers in this Conference; and we unite in praying that during his year of office the divine blessing may richly rest upon himself and upon all the Churches of British Methodism.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

Yours respectfully,

J. R. F. TULL, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH OF CANADA, 1903,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1902.

To the President of the Conference and the British Wesleyan Conference in Conference assembled.

DEARLY BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN, GREETING.

The General Conference of the Methodist Church, Canada, sends you, by the bearer, the Rev. Alexander Sutherland, D.D., most cordial, filial, and fraternal salutations in the bonds of our Common Methodism and in the precious gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

At our General Conference in Winnipeg, Manitoba, the gateway of our rapidly opening and peopling North-Western Domain, we enjoyed the unspeakable privilege and pleasure of receiving your highly valued and honoured Representative, the Rev. Walford Green, D.D., whose recent decease, in profound sympathy with you, we deeply mourn. Your loss is ours also in so great a bereavement, and we pray that we all may partake abundantly of the consolations of divine grace, and, following him as he followed Christ, share in the blessings of his faithful life and noble example. Dr. Green's ministrations were, by the Holy Spirit, to our Conference and Church most powerfully quickening and strengthening; and his precious message from your Conference and people, fraught as it was with wisdom and love, was most inspiring and comforting in our Christian faith and in the labour, sacrifice, and service of the gospel of our adorable Lord and Saviour. We mourn also with you the early death of Hugh Price Hughes, so mighty a leader in our hosts. Yet we rejoice beyond measure in the great enterprises you as a Church and people have accomplished and are undertaking for the advancement of Methodism in Great Britain and Ireland, and for the extension of the cause and kingdom of God by all missionary and evangelistic efforts to the ends of the earth.

Your success in that marvellous movement, raising one million pounds sterling to lay on the altar of consecration to Christ, has inspired the Methodisms of the world in their measure to do likewise; and now we shall join with Œcumenical Methodism in the celebration of the Bicentenary of the birth of John Wesley, under God the instrument of the revival, and author of the system whose power we feel.

Our Winnipeg General Conference, under a deep sense of our obligations to you, and with a strong desire to express and maintain the joy and gratitude of our filial and fraternal relationships, appointed our General Secretary of Missions, the Rev. Alexander Sutherland, D.D., a brother ever faithful and beloved, to bear to you strong assurances of our perpetual love and esteem for you, our oneness with you for Methodism and Evangelical Christianity, and our readiness to co-operate with you in the patience and faith of the gospel. Dr. Sutherland will set before you our condition, which, praise to our God, is full of prosperity and gladness, and our purposes, work, and prospects in the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour.

With all our hearts we commend to you our messenger in the fulness of gospel blessing.

A. CARMAN, General Superintendent,
Methodist Church, Canada.

GEORGE STEEL,
Secretary of the General Conference.

IV. CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

2 AND 3, LUDGATE CIRCUS BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

THE numerical returns in all columns of the Schedule are better than for many years past. This is all the more gratifying for two reasons; viz. that the increase follows a healthy advance in the total number and average attendance of scholars reported last year, and also because the increases are spread over the vast majority of Districts.

Twenty-six Districts report increases and eight decreases (1,376). The net increase of scholars this year is 16,445; the total number of scholars now on the registers is 987,668, the largest number ever reported to Conference by 15,242.

Ten years ago (1893) the total number of scholars was 948,508, the increase in ten years being 39,160. Five years ago (1898) the number was 969,484, showing an increase in the five years of 18,184. The losses reported in 1900 were 5,380, in 1901 the losses were 1,989, a total in the two years of 7,369. The increases in the last two years are 22,611, or, after making good the losses, a net gain of 15,242.

Still more gratifying, after two years of decrease, is the increased average attendance; an increase in last year's afternoon average of 12,857, and this year of 13,243, or 12,758 higher than five years ago, and 29,744 higher than ten years ago.

The morning Schools show an increased average attendance of 5,955, following an increase of 2,581 reported last year.

We report 256,547 scholars above fifteen years of age, an increase of 3,640. For many years there has been an increase in this column. Over half a million of scholars (503,127) are above seven and under fifteen years of age, an increase of 8,262.

While the increase of Teachers on the year is 904, the increase of Teachers in Church membership is 1,183. The increase of scholars in full Church membership is 1,502; increase On Trial, 260; increase in Junior Society Classes, 4,250.

The Committee regrets to find a tendency to ignore the Conference Catechisms and Tablets. There are 3,756 Schools that use the Catechisms, but there is a small decrease of 17. There is also evidence that in too many quarters little value is attached to the morning session of the Sunday School, and the serious importance of morning attendance of senior scholars at divine worship is disregarded. The Committee so deeply realises the gravity of both the morning School and regular attendance at public worship of all our scholars, except the very little ones, that it feels the time is come when these questions must be searchingly dealt with when the matter of The Pastoral Oversight of the Young is considered at the May Synods.

More intelligent attention must be given to our Sunday-school Libraries; for whatever advantages may accrue to our elder scholars by the Free Library movement, the Committee is convinced that for the majority of our scholars the Schools themselves should make proper provision. The duty of supplying our children with pure and instructive literature was never more urgent than at the present.

Children's Sunday was a day of unprecedented blessing. The reports sent in from all parts of the country showed that very many of our scholars were led to religious decision and gathered into the Church. The Secretary also reports that at many of the Conventions of Teachers which he has attended during the year there has been evidence of a higher tone and a deepened sense of the importance of the work of the Teacher.

The publications provided by the Union for our Teachers have had a good sale throughout the year. The Lantern Department, greatly extended, is doing useful work.

The Committee has devoted much time to the interests of the Union throughout the year, and very respectfully and earnestly commends its work to the sympathy, prayers, and support of our people.

Pleasant Sunday Afternoons and Adult Bible-classes.

The returns, as now presented, were reported to the Quarterly Meetings in March, to the Synods in May, and each Schedule bears the signature of the Circuit Superintendent Minister.

The Committee of the Connexional Sunday-school Union has carried out the instructions of the Conference in securing the above returns, which show substantial increases under each head. This is all the more noteworthy when considered in the light of the Sunday-school returns, which again show a gratifying increase of Scholars above fifteen years of age.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF THE

CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

It is with devout thankfulness to God, and gratitude to His people, that we present our Thirty-Fourth Annual Statement. The year has been one of peculiar anxiety, owing to the illness of some of our workers; but from the beginning we have had great encouragement, and the Committee felt compelled by the steady rise in the income to enlarge its plan of operations. Our family has increased by 149 during the year, and on March 31 we had 1,392 children under our care; 333 were admitted; 194 have been sent out. Of those who have left us, 138 went to situations in this country, 41 to Canada, 5 have been adopted, 10 have died. The children have come from many quarters, a large number from the slums and poorer districts of our great towns; others from country villages, and several from beyond the British Dominions, for our work is to some extent international.

The income has been very satisfactory, and shows an increase of £2,560 on the previous year. We are greatly indebted to our friends in thousands of Sunday schools who have once more generously contributed to the support of our little ones, and to our collectors who show so much zeal, patience, and ingenuity in their efforts to retain old friends and secure new ones. One item of income stands out pre-eminently; that is the contribution from the Young Leaguers' Union. The gross total of the contributions to that most flourishing development of our work was £3,944. After deducting expenses, we have been able to place £3,535 to our General Fund, thus providing for the support of 240 children. The increase of our Young Leaguers' contributions upon last year is £1,621.

Our expenditure has naturally increased with the growth of our family; but the good providence of God has sent with the children the necessary supplies, so that we have been able this year not only to meet our expenses but also to pay for some much-needed improvements at various Branches.

Our properties have been considerably improved, and new Houses have been opened; but not one penny of debt has been incurred on any account.

At the London Branch, we opened early in the year a Receiving House for boys, where they can pass through a period of physical and moral quarantine before a place is assigned them in our family circle. The acquisition of this house gave us the opportunity of commemorating in its title two of the oldest and most respected of our friends,—Miss McDougall, who for twenty-seven years has rendered a voluntary and many-sided service to our children and to our Sisters of which it is impossible to speak too highly; and her brother, Sir John McDougall, one of the earliest and most faithful friends of the Home. McDougall House accommodates thirty-five children, and is of course always full.

In connexion with the London Branch, we have also had the pleasure of commemorating two others, who have long served the Home with an unselfish devotion,—Mr. Pendlebury, for nearly thirty years Secretary and Governor; and the Rev. Nehemiah Curnock, the Historian of the Home and its never-failing helper.

At Edgworth, the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker, of Bolton, has given us an ideal house for twenty-five girls. The Walker Gift House is an improvement on the best that we have hitherto secured.

At Farnborough three new Houses have been opened: Tyson House, which commemorates the thirty-three years' service of the Governor and his wife; Gravesend House, which preserves the memory of our old Home at Milton; and Twentieth Century House, so named in recognition of the gift of £50,000 promised by the Twentieth Century Fund.

The following cases are typical of many of the 333 new admissions during the year:

(1) During the Sessions of the Wesleyan Conference at Manchester, a minister made a special appeal to us to receive without delay two little lads who were running the streets of one of our great northern towns, uncared for and ragged, dependent upon casual charity for food, and living in the most wretched circumstances. When we found that these boys were the grandchildren of one of the best known and best beloved of Wesleyan ministers, we could not hesitate to say that we would at once, without the formality of presenting the case to the Committee, welcome the little fellows to the Home. The story of their misfortunes cannot be told in detail, but we hope brighter days have dawned for both them and their mother.

(2) Some few months ago Mr. J. Wilcox Edge wrote asking for the admission of a child whose mother had just been sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment for neglecting her little girl. The child, a bright little maiden of six, had been dragged about the country by her mother, a confirmed tramp. One wet wintry night the child went to a wayside well to get a drink of water. She fell exhausted by the roadside, and lay there all night. In the morning she was found in the most horrible condition, and in order to save her life it was necessary immediately to amputate both feet. The mother was found sleeping wrapped in a sack under a hedge near by. The State, of course, makes no provision for such a child save the Workhouse or the Industrial School; but Mr. Edge was so touched by the child's piteous case that he begged us to receive her into The Children's Home.

The following are typical cases of children who have recently gone out from the Home:

(1) A boy from our Birmingham Branch. His employer writes "A fine, well developed, gentlemanly fellow. Lives up to his profession. I wish there were more of his type out in Canada."

(2) A girl who had been a Pupil Teacher in one of our Day Schools for the full term of her apprenticeship. She has just obtained an appointment under one of the largest provincial Boards, has almost completed her course at a Training College, and sits for the London Matriculation Examination in June.

(3) Another Pupil Teacher, a boy who, whilst resident in our Working-boys' House, Matriculated in the First Class in the London University, taking his place not only amongst but even above boys from the Leys and other great Public Schools. The same lad shortly afterwards obtained a high place in the list of King's scholars, but his heart is set upon even higher work than that of the schoolmaster. He has heard the call to preach the gospel, has become a Methodist Local Preacher, and is studying with a view to entering the ministry.

During the year we have been frequently under the shadow of death. Two of our most devoted Sisters—Sister Ada Maynard, who had served the Home for twenty years as a Sister, and who was herself the first girl received into the Home at Bonner Road, and Sister Kate Freeman, a peculiarly bright and capable worker—have been called to their reward. We have also suffered an irreparable loss by the death of Mr. F. A. Mann, for nearly fifteen years our accomplished musical director, who has done so much for our Choir, and has won the deep affection of a long succession of Choir children. Other workers have also passed from us; but we are thankful to know that their places are being taken by those who will give, we doubt not, as faithful service in their turn. Though our financial anxieties are not so great as they were, we are often in serious perplexity as to where really suitable and capable workers are to be found for our rapidly increasing community. We cannot doubt, however, that God will continue to call by His Spirit those who will carry on the work from generation to generation.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

We report 4,989 Bands of Hope, with a membership of 446,474, an increase of 36 Bands and 9,020 members. We also report 2,006 Temperance Societies, with 114,408 members, an increase of 136 Societies, and of 7,260 in their membership.

During the year death has been very busy in our ranks. Three members of the Committee have been summoned to their reward: Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Mr. Thomas Cole, and Alderman John Harper. Mr. Cole and Mr. Harper held very prominent places amongst the many laymen of our Church who from the beginning have stood in the front ranks of the Temperance movement. The Committee has expressed its feeling with regard to Mr. Hughes in the following resolution, which it has inscribed on its Minutes:

"This Committee places on record its deep sense of the great loss which has been sustained in the death of the Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., who, in addition to great services rendered to all departments of Christian enterprise, was conspicuous for his devotion to the cause of Temperance. He was Secretary of this Committee from the Conference of 1876 to that of 1885, and held a prominent place amongst those who laid the foundations and framed the constitution of this Department, which owes much to his powerful advocacy and wise counsels. His interest in the Temperance cause was not, however, confined to the organisation belonging to his own Church, but he was a leader in every section of the movement; and in this, as in all branches of religion and philanthropy, his death is an unspeakable national loss."

We have also lost through death the Rev. W. E. Codling, who was for a time one of the Secretaries of the Committee, and who throughout his ministry was an earnest Temperance worker and advocate.

During the year the Pledge-Signing Crusade of the Free Churches has been brought to a successful conclusion. The number of pledges returned to the officers was 507,602. The Committee of the Crusade knows, however, that a much larger number of pledges were taken than those which were officially reported. A great number of new societies were formed, the interest of the Church in the Temperance movement was greatly quickened, and the Churches which joined in the Crusade were drawn into closer association for the united prosecution of Temperance work. One outcome of the Crusade has been the formation of a Consultative Temperance Committee of the Free Churches, for the purpose of taking counsel upon matters affecting Temperance in which united action is desirable.

In the political sphere the year has been a most eventful one. The passing of the Licensing Act of 1902 is a great step in advance. Although the decision of the courts in relation to the Black List somewhat impairs the value of the Act, we are sure that it cannot fail to be productive of much good.

The Committee seized the opportunity afforded by the special attention drawn to licensing matters by the passing of the Act to seek to bring about a national movement amongst the licensing justices for an improved administration of the licensing laws on the lines which have been so successfully followed at Liverpool, Glasgow, Birmingham, Farnham, and other places. We accordingly urged all the September Synods to approach the licensing benches upon this question, and we sent to all our Ministers and Circuit Temperance Secretaries a circular urging local action. Similar action was taken by other Temperance organisations. The licensing magistrates were appealed to by letters and memorials, and in many cases they consented to receive deputations from the Churches and Temperance Societies. At the Brewster Sessions there was manifest a general disposition to reduce the number of licences. About 639 were refused upon various grounds, and in many cases the justices promised to give attention to the matter with a view to some reduction next year. In many cases the decisions of the local magistrates have been reversed by Quarter Sessions, showing how important it is that there should be a speedy alteration of the law relating to appeals.

The movement amongst the licensing justices has roused the trade, and they have appealed to the Government and their representatives in Parliament to interpose in defence of their interests. Prominent members of the Government have sought to discourage the magistrates from reducing licences until some provision has been made for compensation. We have done our utmost in opposition to this attempt to interfere with the discretion of the licensing authority. We appealed to the May Synods to pass resolutions upon this subject, which they have done with remarkable emphasis and unanimity. We also urged the June Quarterly Meetings to pass resolutions to the same effect, and 517 Quarterly Meetings have reported to us that they have done so. The Committee hopes that the whole strength of our Connexion will be exerted in opposition to any attempt to check the reduction of licences.

During the year we have actively co-operated in the Forward Movement of the Sunday Closing Association. The Consultative Temperance Committee of the Free Churches is organising a National Sunday Closing Conference, which is to be held in Wesley's Chapel on October 1.

The Committee is strongly of opinion that the main work of Temperance reform does not lie in the legislative sphere, but that our principal business is to cultivate a strong public opinion, to educate the people in the principles of Christian Temperance, and to seek, upon some such lines as those of the Social Institutes Union, to promote wholesome counteractives to the public house. It is consequently of supreme importance to maintain and multiply our Bands of Hope and Temperance Societies, and to keep steadily at the work of Temperance propaganda and education. Through the munificence of Mr. Rank, Mr. Josiah Nix will now be entirely employed in Temperance work, under the direction of the Home Mission Committee; and the Temperance Committee is laying plans for a large extension of its work by means of the £10,000 which has been voted to it from the Twentieth Century Fund.

the future to insert liquor advertisements is a remarkable evidence of the wonderful and rapid progress of public opinion.

We also congratulate the United Kingdom Alliance upon the celebration of its Jubilee. It is impossible to estimate the value of the services rendered by this splendid organisation during the last fifty years to every department of the Temperance cause. The Conference has for many years supported the policy of the Alliance, and we express our earnest hope that before long it may see the attainment of one of its aims in the passing of a measure conferring the power of the direct veto upon the inhabitants of localities.

4. The nominal amount of Investments is £43,983 7*s.* 9*d.*, and the Bank overdraft £23,750 5*s.* 6*d.*

APPENDIX VIII.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE CHAPEL COMMITTEE, 1903.

THE Income for the third year successively shows an advance. It is gratifying to note that the Income this year touches a higher point than for twenty years past; viz. £9,815 2*s.* 7*d.*, being an increase of £274 19*s.* 1*d.* on the year.

The figures, which give a summary of Erections and Enlargements sanctioned during the year, are very remarkable. The number of cases dealt with is 1,196, of which 615 are Modifications of cases previously sanctioned. The Outlay is £1,292,232, which is one million above the expenditure of an average year. The percentage of debt works out at 18 per cent. The number of New Chapels sanctioned is 241; of these, 68 are to be erected in places where previously there were no Methodist Chapels. The increased accommodation provided by both New Chapels and alterations is 57,053, being more than 30,000 in excess of that provided last year.

There is a very large increase in the outlay on Sunday Schools. The amount entered separately under this head does not by any means represent the Expenditure on Schools. In nearly every case of a new Chapel the erection has comprised a school, so that there has been a great advance in this respect.

The total outlay which has come under the purview of the Committee during the year is close upon three millions. The average is about £250,000, so that for administrative purposes twelve years have been crowded into one.

There is a considerable increase in the number and cost under the head of Erections completed during the year. The number of cases is 381, as against 239 last year; and the cost £637,336, as against £223,523. The number of cases returned as completed where the conditions are not yet fulfilled is larger than it should be, but the efforts to close the Century Fund have prevented local effort for the New Erections in many Circuits. There is nothing at all serious in this aspect of the Returns. There are no Irregular Cases. The cases returned as completed show an additional accommodation of 32,932, as compared with 13,253 under this head last year.

The total amount of debt paid off during the year is £47,425; this is £2,056 more than last year, a result which, in view of the scale of Building operations throughout the Connexion, is highly satisfactory. The total amount of debt paid off since 1854 is £2,750,843. The returns show an increase of £508 in the amount contributed to Circuit Funds. There are 8,617 separate Trusts returned, and of these 5,558 are free from debt.

The early payment of Grants from the Twentieth Century Fund in cases where the friends were prepared for a final settlement has given great satisfaction.

It should be borne in mind that the Committee pays the Interest to the Central Office, which otherwise the Trusts receiving aid must have paid. The value of the Grant, therefore, in each case is greatly enhanced.

It is satisfactory to note that the Interest accruing from Loans and Temporary Investments, as for many years past, more than meets the cost of the department, so that every shilling contributed goes to the direct object of the Fund. The Committee has been able to provide for all its liabilities, including the Grants made from the Reserve Fund, without touching the Income for the Current Year. In view of the demands which will be made upon the Relief Section of the Fund, this is a matter for congratulation.

The number of Legal Documents which have passed through the office during the year is 2,108, of which 357 were Renewals under Fowler's Act, all of which have been duly registered.

APPENDIX IX.

Chapel Committee Allocation.

THE Committee, acting upon the Resolution of the last Conference, has addressed itself to the task of allocating a considerable proportion of the £300,000 set apart for the Erection of Chapels, Schools, Mission Halls, and Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes. As there were already four years and a half of arrears to be dealt with, it was felt that it was imperative in the interests of the Connexion generally that there should be no further delay. Trustees all over the country were in suspense as to the amount of aid that might be expected towards their several schemes, and many cases that were ready for settlement were of necessity held over from year to year. Besides, the uncertainty in which the whole administration was involved was most embarrassing to those Circuits that were contemplating new erections. In some quarters there was a danger lest through exaggerated ideas as to the help that would come from the Century Fund, schemes should be initiated which would impose too heavy a financial burden on the Circuits concerned; whilst in other cases it was found impossible to mature schemes of extension until it was known what scale of grant would be adopted.

Under these circumstances the Committee was compelled to act, and there can be no doubt that the policy adopted was a wise one.

The Scheme of Administration was formulated in October. The principles embodied in the policy adopted have been amply vindicated in the course of the year, and in the judgment of the Committee they form a sound basis on which to administer this important Fund.

It was found on careful examination of the schedules of cases already sanctioned, submitted in November, more than three hundred in number, that the outlay greatly exceeded the amount originally sanctioned, and that the debt remaining was much less than was originally proposed. The result was that a much larger sum would be eligible for aid by way of grant than was anticipated, so that the amount ear-marked for sanctioned cases would not suffice. The Committee therefore deferred the allocation of grants until December, and appointed a strong Sub-Committee to go into the whole question and report. The most careful and elaborate calculations were made and duly submitted to the General Committee. It was estimated that in all probability the outlay on cases already sanctioned would reach a figure not far short of £1,777,000, exclusive of Day Schools and Ministers' Houses; whereas the outlay originally sanctioned was £1,592,865, showing an Increase in Expenditure on these cases of £184,135, of which at least 85 per cent. would be eligible for aid by way of grant.

The Committee was confronted by an almost impossible task. The problem to be solved was, how to meet the demands already created by this largely increased expenditure, and yet at the same time reserve a sufficient sum to meet the claims of new cases. On a careful calculation it was found that at least £200,000 would be required to meet the cases already sanctioned, if the scale of 15 per cent. on the amount raised for Chapels and 10 per cent. on the amount raised for Schools were adopted. After deducting from the balance the cost of administration, the Welsh Allocation, the interest payable to the Central Office, and the sum suggested for Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes, it was at once seen that the sum available for new cases would not be sufficient to enable the Committee to do justice all round.

It was resolved, therefore, respectfully to ask the Home Mission Committee to relieve the Chapel Committee of the £20,000 allocated for Army and Navy work. To this the Home Mission Committee generously consented, and the Chapel Committee is very sensible of the magnanimous way in which the Home Mission Committee has acted.

In order further to relieve the situation, the Chapel Committee agreed to carry £3,000 of the Reserve Chapel Fund to a Suspense Account towards the cost of administration, so as to liberate an additional £3,000 from the Century Fund. The result is that whilst the amount actually voted for cases sanctioned prior to December, 1902, i.e. during the preceding four years and a half, is £194,480, being slightly under the estimated amount, the sum of £95,000 in round figures was available for new cases. As the whole of this amount will probably be voted within twelve months from the time when the allocation commenced, it will be seen that the proportion available for new cases is much larger than that allocated to the sanctioned cases. The sum of £194,480 on an expenditure of £1,746,036 covers the operations of four and a half years, whilst £95,000 is absorbed in the operations of one year.

The ratio of expenditure has greatly increased this year. The previous four years and a half are unprecedented in our history, but this year has been truly phenomenal.

Already grants amounting to £54,901 have been allocated for new cases on an expenditure of £478,587, and further expenditure has been sanctioned, towards which grants have not yet been allocated, amounting to £404,272. If the increased expenditure on cases previously sanctioned be taken into account, the total new expenditure during the current year will amount to £1,292,332.

The amount actually available by way of grant for the new cases not yet dealt with is £40,000.

If the Grants be made on the same scale as hitherto, this will cover an outlay of £400,000. The outlay already sanctioned under this head is £404,272, and to this must be added July, September, and October.

The Education Section of the Fund has greatly assisted the Chapel Committee in its difficult task by taking over all cases of Day and Sunday Schools. As, however, the Chapel Committee has made large grants to Sunday Schools, it is hoped that some further concession may be made by the Education Section, so that the Chapel Committee may be enabled to deal satisfactorily with this abnormal expenditure.

The greatest possible care has been taken in the allocation of Grants. Every case has been gone into minutely, varying circumstances have been taken into account, and the percentage of Grant has in every case been reported month by month.

The Committee, whilst endeavouring to keep within the average scale on the whole, has given Grants varying from 8 to 25 per cent, and even more, on the amount actually raised, special consideration having been given to certain cases of exceptional difficulty and importance. The percentage of Grant on outlay varies very little as between the several Districts, the average being 11 per cent. or thereabouts. Where the average is higher there are special reasons for it.

It should be borne in mind that the Committee alone is in possession of all the facts which in each case have determined the nature of the Grant. It would be quite misleading simply to take the amount of Grant as the basis of comparison. The resources of the locality, the amount of debt, the nature of the enterprise, proceeds of sale, etc., all must be taken into account in any attempt to appraise the relative proportion of the Grants.

The Committee, in addition to carrying £3,000 of the Reserve Chapel Fund to the cost of administration, has voted the sum of £11,430 towards cases for the most part excluded by the time limit from the Century Fund. This part of our administration has been greatly appreciated. Thirty most difficult cases have thus been enabled to claim the Ordinary Grant, and have been placed upon a sound financial basis.

Fears have been expressed in some quarters that the great Mission Halls would swallow up the Fund, and that the Circuits, especially the Rural Circuits, would not get their fair share of the distribution. How groundless these fears are will be seen from the fact that thus far 28 per cent. of the amount voted has gone to the Mission Halls, and 72 per cent. to the Circuits, whilst the Rural Circuits have received no less a sum than £117,644. The Committee has made a Grant of £1,500 for the Welsh Work.

In conclusion, it only remains to be said that the Fund has given a most remarkable incentive to Chapel Building operations, and also to the Erection of Schools. In many places the position of Methodism has been revolutionised, whilst in not a few new ground has been occupied and new constituencies have been created. The Committee has dealt with 879 cases in all, representing an outlay, including those dealt with by the Reserve Chapel Fund, of £2,424,081. In all these cases Grants have been allocated.

In addition, the Committee has since April sanctioned 214 cases involving an outlay of £404,272.

It was felt desirable in the interest of all concerned to defer any further voting of money until October. It is hoped that by that time all the Schemes that can fairly be said to come within the operation of the Fund will be matured, and the Committee will be in a position to deal equitably with them.

It has not been found possible to make Grants towards sites apart from Buildings. This the Committee regrets, but the Building operations have been on such a scale as to preclude this. It may be possible when the Million matures to make loans for a time at a low rate of Interest, but much will depend on the length of time over which the administration of the Fund extends.

It will be observed that the amount voted for Ministers' Houses is comparatively small. The Committee has, in apportioning these Grants, endeavoured to keep within the Conference Resolutions, and the conditions on which the Grants are made are such as to make the acquisition of the House in each case a source of financial strength to the Circuits concerned.

The labour involved in the administration has been immense, and the Committee has every confidence in submitting the Report to the Conference.

£19 15s. 10d. be added, £1,352 6s. 2d. remains to be distributed by the Committee at its meeting in October.

The above tables will show how great is the advantage of the Common Cash system to the Funds of Methodism. All Funds that have to borrow obtain their overdrafts on the lowest possible terms; viz. the actual Bank Rate of the day, and they borrow largely from each other rather than from the Bank. Funds having credit balances obtain Deposit rate of interest; in addition to which they receive, according to the credit balances they have kept, their full proportion of Profits.

APPENDIX XII.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

Report of the Executive Committee.

Receipts.

THE total amount received from all sources up to July 7 is £964,131 19s. 3d. Of this sum £813,869 16s. 3d. has been contributed in fulfilment of Circuit Promises and Aims; £61,522 12s. at the Simultaneous Collection; £21,068 15s. 9d. Personal Promises; £4,124 11s. from the Children's Shilling List; and £63,546 4s. 3d. interest.

The total amount received since the last Conference is £71,783 7s. 11d., including £28,890 15s. 8d. interest.

District and Circuit Returns.

Administration.

On the recommendation of the Executive Committee the last Conference resolved that the administration of the Fund might, under certain conditions, commence in January, 1903. The Administrative Committees have not been slow to avail themselves of the permission. Since the commencement of the year the following amounts have been paid :

The General Chapel Fund	£80,000
Foreign Missions	45,000
Children's Home	18,000
Home Missions	4,000
Education	5,300

These advances have enabled the Administrative Committees to meet all claims which have matured for settlement during the year.

Arrangements are also being made for the early payment of further instalments to the following Departments: The General Chapel Fund, Foreign Missions, Bermondsey Settlement, Local Preachers' Committee, Children's Home, and Home Missions. Provision will also be made for the immediate demands of the special Education Committee.

At its initiation it was estimated that the Fund would lead to an expenditure of about £1,250,000 in Chapel and School extension. The most sanguine anticipations have been exceeded. An expenditure of over £3,000,000 in these two Departments is projected. But the magnitude of this outlay, while it demonstrates the generosity and the resources of our people, involves smaller percentages of grants from the Century Fund than was at first contemplated.

The Deficiency.

The balance required on July 7 to complete the Million Sterling allocated by the Conference for the purposes of British Methodism is £35,873 0s. 9*d*. This deficiency will be covered by the balance of outstanding Circuit Promises and Aims, by Personal Promises, and the interest which will accrue in the next few months. The Executive Committee is assured that the Personal Promises will, in due course, be realised. There is, however, some uncertainty in regard to the payment of the amounts due from the Circuits; but if past experience may be relied upon, it is probable that a considerable sum will be remitted before the close of the year.

Having regard to the large sums which must be raised to carry out the numerous schemes for extension inaugurated in the Circuits, and to the inadvisability of using undue pressure in the completion of a Fund which so far has been spontaneously contributed by a willing people, the Executive Committee has decided to fall back upon the accumulation of interest on investments during the period of distribution of the Fund to make up for any deficiency in the Circuit contributions. At the same time it cannot be too widely known that every remittance, large or small, hastens the desired end.

Arrangements for Closing the Fund.

1. Audit of Accounts.—In the case of Circuits which have completed their contributions, arrangements will be made for the audit of their accounts soon after Conference.

2. The Historic Roll will be called in at the beginning of the year 1904. When collected and bound up, the Historic Roll will be a profoundly interesting memorial of the unanimity with which the people of Methodism throughout the country have taken part in this great Connexional Thanksgiving. But during the progress of the Fund many have joined the Methodist Church and have been added to Methodist families whose names are not enrolled. Such are invited to identify themselves with the enterprise by signing the Roll before the close of the year.

3. With the sanction of the Conference the Executive Committee proposes to hold a special Thanksgiving Service at the Conference of 1904.

APPENDIX XIII.

TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

Report of the Special Committee for the Administration of £200,000 allocated to Educational Purposes.

1. The Hull Conference allocated "for Educational Work in connexion with the Higher, Secondary, Elementary, or other Educational Institutions of the country, especially those associated with the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and for assisting the mental improvement and training of local preachers, £200,000.

"N.B.—Special provision shall be made for the erection of Day Schools in rural and other districts, where at present Nonconformists are compelled to attend either Anglican or Roman Catholic Schools, and also to provide for the reasonable requirements of pupil teachers who desire to be trained for their profession in a congenial religious atmosphere." (Minutes, 1898, pp. 343, 344.)

2. The General Committee appointed by the Conference, 1898, "to define in greater detail" the allocation of the Fund reported that the requirements of the following branches of educational work should be met out of the above-named sum: Training Colleges, Day Schools, Secondary Education, Higher Education (including scholarships to the Leys and University), the London Settlement, Sunday-school Union increased accommodation, and Local Preachers.

The Conference of 1899 adopted the recommendations of the General Committee, and appointed a Special Committee (including representatives of the several committees to be assisted) for the administration of the £200,000 allocated to the above-named branches of Educational work.

I. Training Colleges.

1. Westminster.

It was ascertained that in order to meet the requirements of the Board of Education, and to place Westminster College in a satisfactory condition, it would be necessary to erect a house for the Vice-Principal, to provide a Physical Laboratory, a Chemical Laboratory, a Common Room for the second year's men, a Common Room for the first year's men, two Recreation Rooms, a Gymnasium, Library, and Servants' Hall; to improve approaches to various parts of the building, and to erect new and up-to-date suite of Day-school premises.

2. Southlands.

It was ascertained that at Southlands College it is necessary to erect a block of buildings, providing for a Physical and Science Laboratory, an Art Room, Assembly Room, additional Class-rooms and Dormitories, and to erect new Practising Schools.

3. After a careful examination of the premises of the two Colleges by a Sub-Committee, in the light of Government requirements, the Special Committee granted a sum not exceeding £30,000 for the above-named erections, alterations, and enlargements, and appointed a Sub-Committee to carry them out.

II. Day Schools.

1. The following regulations for the administration of that part of the Fund which is allocated for the purposes of Elementary Education were adopted by the Special Committee :

(1) The Distribution shall commence early in January, 1903.

(2) No Grant or Loan can be paid to any Circuit until such Circuit has completed its promise to the Fund, except with the consent of the Executive Committee of the Twentieth Century Fund.

(3) The Committee will proceed at once to allocate Grants ; but until the Million is actually in hand no Grant can be paid except in cases where the Trustees, with the aid of such Grant as may be apportioned, are prepared for a final settlement, leaving no debt beyond that which is sanctioned by the Chapel Committee.

(4) In no case can the Grant be paid in instalments where it is proposed to take advantage of the above provision.

(5) No Loan without interest can be advanced from the Twentieth Century Fund until the Million matures.

(6) The Special Committee shall pay 3 per cent. per annum on all moneys advanced by the Central Office on account of the £200,000 allocated for Educational purposes until the Million is completed. The Special Committee will open a Twentieth Century Fund Interest Account, to which all interest paid will be debited and all interest received credited.

(7) No Loan for the purchase of Sites can be advanced at less than 3 per cent. per annum until the Million is complete ; nor can any Grant be made for this purpose.

(8) The Committee will not adopt any scale of percentage, but will deal with each case on its merits, taking into account the nature of the enterprise, the resources of the locality, and the needs of the School, College, or Trust concerned. The amount of Grant will be determined in part by the demands upon the Fund.

(9) Where it is proposed to raise the whole cost a larger Grant may be made.

(10) Special consideration shall be given to proposals for the erection of "Day Schools in rural and other districts, where at present Nonconformists are compelled to attend either Anglican or Roman Catholic Schools," and "also to provide for the reasonable requirements of pupil teachers who desire to be trained for their profession in a congenial religious atmosphere" (Minutes, 1898, pp. 343, 344).

(11) In the case of Schools which are both Day and Sunday Schools, the Committee approves the resolution of the Chapel Committee that aid towards the first three-fourths of the cost should be given exclusively from the Education Section of the Twentieth Century Fund. Where such Schools are on Chapel Trusts, assistance may be rendered from the Chapel Fund towards the payment of the sanctioned debt, as heretofore; if the building is used for Day-school purposes only, even though it be settled on Chapel Trusts, no Grant will be made from the Chapel Fund.

(12) Grants towards alterations of Day-school Premises must not be expected on the same scale as Grants towards new Schools.

(13) The Grant may be paid in two instalments where the outlay is considerable; the first half when such Grant would complete one half of the cost, the balance to be the last payment required to complete the three fourths. In the judgment of the Committee it is not desirable to divide the Grant where the expenditure is comparatively small.

(14) Should a Grant be made on condition of no debt, the same principles shall obtain, the total cost being the basis of calculation, the Grant being paid, if the Committee so determine, in three instalments.

(15) No Grant or Loan can be paid until the property is legally and Methodistically settled.

(16) All questions in regard to the Trusts upon which property is settled shall be referred to a Select Sub-Committee.

(17) In future all land purchased for the erection of New Schools, or for the enlargement of existing Schools, shall be settled on the Trusts of the Chapel Model Deed, such Trusts to be extended by the addition of a provision giving power to the Trustees to lease the School buildings for a term.

(18) With a view to safeguarding Connexional interests in the Schools, Trustees shall be informed that the payment of Grants is subject to the following conditions:

(a) That the Scheme for the appointment of Managers shall be approved by the Committee.

(b) That in the cases of Schools settled on School Model Deed 1 and 2, a Mortgage for the amount of the Grant, on which a nominal interest of 5*s.* per cent. per annum shall be paid by the Trustees to the Committee. Such Mortgage shall not impose any financial obligation on the Trustees other than the payment of the above-named nominal interest.

2. Grants amounting to £31,482 have been made to seventy-six schools. The total outlay is £127,462.

3. Of the seventy-six schools, sixty-five are Day and Sunday Schools. Fifty-six are settled on the Chapel Model Deed, nine on School Model Deed No. 1, and eleven on School Model Deed No. 2.

4. In making these Grants the Committee has had regard to the Resolutions of the Conference respecting Elementary Education, and also to the Resolutions of the Joint Committee which was empowered by the last Conference to act on its behalf in respect of the Education Bill, which has since become law.

III. Secondary Education.

1. During the year careful inquiries have been made into the state of Wesleyan Secondary Education with a view to its adaptation to the existing and prospective needs of our people.

The Resolutions of the Conference in regard to the acquisition of Secondary Schools and their settlement on a Connexional Trust have been carefully considered.

2. Connexional Trust.

A draft of a Connexional Trust Deed has been prepared under the direction of a Special Sub-Committee.

3. Board of Management for Secondary Schools.

The following scheme has been prepared with great care, and is adopted by the Conference.

(1) The Conference shall annually appoint a Board of Management for Wesleyan Secondary Schools, which shall consist of the following:

(b) Twelve Ministers.

(c) Twelve Laymen.

(2) The Secondary Education Board shall be empowered to deal with all matters affecting Wesleyan Secondary Education and Secondary Schools.

(3) The Board shall have control as to the Education and the Management of such Wesleyan Secondary Schools as may be established on a Connexional basis and settled on a Connexional Trust Deed.

(4) The Board, in carrying out the duties devolved upon it by the Conference, shall have authority to appoint Sub-Committees for special work, including the following:

(a) An Education Sub-Committee, which shall be specially charged to consider and report to the Board as to all questions concerning the Staff, the Curricula, and Co-ordination of Education, and grading of the several Schools, and as to their Educational administration and efficiency.

(b) A Finance Sub-Committee which shall examine and supervise the entire expenditure of each School, and report periodically to the Board. No new or extraordinary expenditure shall be incurred without its being submitted to the Finance Committee and sanctioned by the Board.

(5) The Board shall appoint a Local Committee of Management for each School or group of Schools, consisting of persons who are interested in the Schools and who are willing to undertake the duties of Management.

Arrangements shall be made for joint meetings of the Local Management Committees and the Sub-Committees of the Board.

(6) Two Treasurers—a Minister and a Layman—and two Secretaries—a Minister and a Layman—shall be appointed.

(7) A Layman, qualified to assist in the Co-ordination of the several Schools and in advising generally as to the Educational administration of the Schools, may be employed by the Board when it is thought to be desirable.

(8) The expenses of administration should be borne by the Schools, according to a scheme to be framed by the Board.

4. Scheme for the Acquisition of Secondary Schools for the Connexion.

The following scheme is adopted by the Conference:

(1) It is essential that Schools brought under the control of the proposed Board of Management should be acquired by the Connexion; and that they should be settled on a Connexional Trust.

(2) For this purpose it is not necessary that cash should be paid for the whole value, but a portion of the liabilities may be left on mortgage.

(3) With regard to the capital, in some cases the shares would be given up; in other cases they might be bought at a value to be agreed on, and debentures given for them. It is obvious that this transaction would have to be a matter of bargain in each case.

(4) In order that any debentures so given to the present shareholders might not place the property in their power, it is desirable that the liabilities paid off should not be extinguished, but vested in Trustees for the Connexion, so as to preserve a first charge on the property for the amount of them.

(5) The debentures might, at least in some cases, be so limited in terms that the holders should have no power to interfere.

(6) The Board might be empowered to pay off these debentures as opportunities occur.

(7) The Board may, when they think it expedient, acquire debentures, shares, or other interest in School properties, and may undertake the management and administration of Schools pending their settlement on a Connexional Trust.

5. The sum of £70,000 has been set apart for the purposes of Secondary Education.

IV. Higher Education.

1. The Leys School.

The sum of £4,000 has been assigned for the establishment of Scholarships to the Leys School.

N.B.—One of the Scholarships shall be associated with the name of the First Headmaster, the late Dr. Moulton.

2. University Scholarships.

£4,000 has been assigned for the founding of Scholarships to a University to be held by Methodist pupils.

3. It is hoped that schemes for carrying out the intentions of the Conference in respect of these Scholarships will be prepared and submitted to the Conference in due course.

V. The London Settlement.

A grant of £10,000 has been made to the Bermondsey Settlement. This Grant is subject to the following conditions:

(a) That if at any time the Buildings should be sold, the amount of the Grant shall be repaid.

(b) That no mortgage on the premises shall be permitted which would prevent repayment of the Grant.

VI. Local Preachers.

For the promotion of the mental improvement of Local Preachers, by assisting them in the purchase of books, membership of Correspondence Classes, and in preparation for the Connexional Examination, the Special Committee has set apart the sum of £10,000.

VII. Sunday-school Union.

Additional accommodation for the Union will be provided in the Connexional Buildings at Westminster.

VIII.

Grant to the Executive Committee of the Welsh Assembly for Educational Purposes under the Resolutions of the Conference of 1889, p. 531. The sum of £1,500 has been set apart for this purpose.

APPENDIX XIV.

LOCAL PREACHERS.

The following is the scheme for the constitution of the Committee finally adopted by the Conference:

I. The District Local Preachers' Committee.

1. At the September Synod of each District a Local Preachers' Committee shall be appointed, to consist of the Chairman, the Financial Secretary, four other Ministers, and six Local Preachers. If any Local Preachers be chosen who are not already Members of the Synod, they shall by this appointment become Members.

2. Each Synod shall have power to associate with the Members of the District Local Preachers' Committee other Ministers and Local Preachers interested in the subject, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become Members of the Synod.

3. Each Synod shall appoint a Ministerial and a Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

4. At the September Local Preachers' Meeting in each Circuit, a Circuit Secretary shall be appointed, and his name and address shall be forthwith sent by the Superintendent to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

5. The Superintendent shall also send to the Lay Secretary, quarterly, a Circuit Plan containing the full postal address of each Local Preacher.

6. Immediately after the March Local Preachers' Meeting, the Circuit Secretary shall forward, on prepared forms, to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee, the various statistical facts relating to the Local Preachers in that Circuit. The required statistics shall be furnished by the Superintendent to the Circuit Secretary, and the schedule signed by both.

7. The District Local Preachers' Committee shall prepare a Report based upon the statistics so furnished, and relating to the work of the year, to be presented to the May Synod.

8. Immediately after the May Synod the Reports of the District Local Preachers' Committees shall be sent to the Lay

Secretary of the Connexional Committee, which shall report thereon to the Conference.

9. It shall be the duty of the District Local Preachers' Committee to inquire whether the directions of the Conference with regard to the mental and theological culture of Local Preachers have been observed in the various Circuits of the District, and to take necessary steps to assist in carrying out those directions.

10. The District Local Preachers' Committee is empowered to establish and conduct Voluntary District Examinations of Local Preachers in Theology, Biblical Study, and Homiletics.

11. Subject always to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee shall endeavour to promote the interest and efficiency of Local Preachers' Meetings in all practicable ways, by suggesting subjects for discussion, providing deputations to visit such Meetings, and otherwise.

12. Subject to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee may initiate and promote arrangements providing for the ministrations of Local Preachers in Circuits other than their own, especially with a view to the advantage of the neediest and poorest Circuits; and may also undertake arrangements for Special Missions and Services where desired. (Minutes, 1902, pp. 89-91.)

II. The Connexional Local Preachers' Committee.

1. The Connexional Committee shall consider the Reports of the District Local Preachers' Committees received from the May Synods, and prepare thereon a Report for presentation to the Conference.

2. The Committee shall also furnish a List of Books for guiding the Studies of Local Preachers, and prepare a scheme of Voluntary Examinations with the necessary Examination papers.

3. The subject of the Theological Reading of Local Preachers shall also be dealt with by this Committee, together with the working out of the scheme of the Committee which reported to the Conference in 1894 on "A Course of Reading for Local Preachers" (Minutes, 1894, pp. 462-465.)

4. A Lay Treasurer, and a Ministerial and a Lay Secretary of the Connexional Committee, shall be annually appointed by the Conference.

APPENDIX XVI.

THE WESLEY DEACONESS INSTITUTE.

Abstract of Report.

THE employment of women in the work of the Methodist Church is no longer an open question. They will be employed: successful experiment both demands and justifies their employment. The only question is, will the Church employ them, under the most favourable conditions, and with the best possible guarantees against failure in character and in efficiency?

For nearly twelve years the training of Wesley Deaconesses was carried on, under considerable difficulties and without adequate accommodation. Much good work was, nevertheless, done, in the hired houses at London and Leicester. Calvert House, Leicester, is now a Deaconess House, not a Training School.

The Training School is the Wesley Deaconess College, Ilkley. Within the last two years this fine and commodious building has been purchased, adapted, and furnished, and for twelve months has been tested for its work most successfully. It cost £7,797 18*s.* 9*d.* In the same period the furniture at Calvert House, which had been lent by a friend, was bought for £320. The whole cost of the establishment, £8,117 18*s.* 9*d.*, has been raised, except £580 9*s.* 8*d.*

There are now just one hundred Deaconesses in the Order: Three are officers of the Order, one is resting for the year, fifty-three are in Circuits or Circuit Missions, sixteen are in "Missions," two are Evangelists, three are Deaconess Nurses in England, six are engaged in Foreign or Colonial Mission Work, three are conducting a Convalescent Home for poor women and children, and thirteen are Students in the College, who will enter upon active work in September next.

Sixteen Students have been in residence during the year now closing. Of these, thirteen now receive appointments. One, for family reasons, is unable at present to take work—she is refunding the cost of her training. Two are returning for a further period of preparation. Twenty-one Candidates have been selected, out of a much larger number of applicants, for entrance in September. The demand by the Connexion for the services of our Deaconesses has, this year also, been more than we could supply.

The Accounts have been duly audited. The income has failed to reach the expenditure by £366 10s. 11*d.* Here is the one difficulty of the work. It is never likely to require a large income. £1,500 would meet all the expenditure that can be at present considered probable. And in a Connexion with eight hundred Circuits, there should be no difficulty in finding a thousand Lady Associates (each of whom gives or collects £1), and in getting a Subscription List of £500 besides. The increase in the number of Deaconesses in active work will not create embarrassment. As their maintenance falls upon the Circuits or Missions, there is a natural check upon the undue increase of their numbers.

Remarkable openings are being presented to us, both in the United Kingdom and in the Foreign field. Especially is there a demand for qualified Deaconess Nurses; had we twenty such, they could be at once employed to the great advantage of the cause of Christ. But this development requires time and patience.

APPENDIX XVII.

REVISED REGULATIONS IN REGARD TO THE CONSTITUTION, ETC., OF THE CONFERENCE, ADAPTED TO THE CHANGED ORDER OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS.

I. Relation of the Representative to the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

1. If any Resolutions shall be adopted by the Representative and Pastoral Sessions respectively, which, in the judgment of the President, are in conflict with each other, such Resolutions shall not be confirmed by the Legal Conference; but shall be reported accordingly to the respective Sessions of the next Conference (1889, p. 291).

2. The Conference in its Pastoral Session shall have power to consider and decide . . . all propositions for the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Conference in its Representative Session, so far as questions of finance are concerned.

3. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any resolutions of District Synods, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference in its Pastoral or its Representative Session, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively.

4. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the Session of the Conference to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

II. The Representative Session of the Conference.

1. The Conference, when considering such matters as are hereinafter declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen, acting conjointly, shall consist of the President of the Conference and of 300 Ministers and 300 Laymen.

(1) The Ministerial members of the Conference, when the Lay Representatives are present, shall be, in addition to the President and all other members of the Legal Conference for the time being who shall have declared at the May Meeting of the District Synod their intention to attend the Conference:

(i) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference who is not a member of the Legal Conference.

(ii) All Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain who are not members of the Legal Conference.

(iii) Eight Ministers in Full Connexion, stationed in Foreign Districts, who may be in England at the time of the sitting of the Conference, to be chosen by the Missionary Committee.

(iv) If in any year any Department would not, in the judgment of the Conference, be adequately represented by members of the Legal Conference, provision shall be made for the Ministerial Representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

(v) The remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Laymen, shall be elected at the Annual Meetings in May of the District Synods in Great Britain, as follows:

The Ministerial Members of each District Synod shall elect by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express their desire to attend the Conference, so many Ministers as were allocated by the preceding Conference to represent the District in the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen (1886, p. 199; 1890, p. 324).

N.B.—The newly elected members of the Legal Conference in each year shall be members of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

(2) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference or by the May Meeting of the District Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference or nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(i) One fifth of the Lay Representatives shall be elected annually by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. This number shall in all cases include the Lay Treasurers for the time being of the following General Connexional Funds, namely, the Missionary Society, the General Chapel Fund, the Ministers' Children's Fund in both its sections, the Home Mission Fund, the Theological Institution Fund, the Education Fund, the Auxiliary Fund, the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Extension of Methodism Fund, the Children's Home, the London Mission, the Temperance Committee, and the Local Preachers' Committee.

N.B.—In future appointments not more than one Lay Treasurer of any Connexional Fund shall be an ex officio Member of the Representative Session of the Conference.

One third of the remaining number elected by the Conference shall retire annually, and the Lay Representatives so retiring shall not be immediately eligible for re-election by the Conference (1880, pp. 334, 335).

(ii) For the present, the election of the remaining Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meetings of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. The Circuit Stewards of each Circuit shall be called upon at the March Quarterly Meeting to declare their ability and willingness to attend the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District Synod in May, or the contrary. If they, or either of them, shall declare inability or unwillingness to attend the said District Synod, the Quarterly Meeting shall have the right of electing, by and from its own members by open vote or by ballot, after nomination by Lay Members of the Meeting, a Representative or Representatives, to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created (1893, p. 319).

(iii) The number of Laymen to be elected in each District shall be determined by each preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers and Laymen.

2. For Order and Form of Business to be transacted by the Conference, see Appendix XVIII.

3. The deliberations of the Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen, shall be confined to the duly appointed members of that Conference; but any Minister permitted by the District Synod to attend the Conference when composed of Ministers only, may be present during the Sessions of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; and the Lay Members of Connexional Committees may be present during the proceedings of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. Seats for the purpose shall be reserved for such Ministers and Laymen. The admission of any other persons shall be determined and arranged according to circumstances at the discretion of the Conference.

III. Formal Constitution of the Conference.

The constitution of the Conference shall be the first business of the Conference. The retiring President shall occupy the chair until his successor is elected.

A. Elections to the Legal Conference.

1. All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its Representative Session, and such vacancies shall be filled up by election by the Legal Conference on the ground of seniority (1899, p. 241).

N.B.—A list of Senior Ministers in Full Work shall be prepared at each Conference, and printed in the Agenda, and the vacancies in the Legal Conference shall be filled by ballot of the Hundred (Journal, 1814; Minutes, 1899, p. 241).

2. The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the Meeting of the Conference in its Pastoral Session, and such vacancies shall then be filled up by election by the Legal Conference after nomination (1899, pp. 241, 242).

3. In regard to these vacancies the Legal Conference shall formally declare by separate vote that certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference, cease to be members of the Legal Hundred, and that their places have to be filled up (Journal, 1877).

N.B.—This provision for the retirement of Supernumeraries at the end of two years does not apply to Ministers elected to the Legal Conference earlier than 1877 (see Journal, 1877).

4. All ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher for admission into the number of the Hundred, and the Hundred shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a Member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least fourteen years (Journal, 1814, 1815, 1869).

5. Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal Hundred, another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form.

B. Nomination and Election of the President and Secretary.

1. All Ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right to vote in the nomination of the President and Secretary of the ensuing Conference.

2. The nomination of the President and Secretary shall be made by ballot vote by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference.

3. The number of one hundred Members of the Legal Conference having been completed by the filling up of vacancies caused by death, or by absence for two successive years without dispensation, the Legal Conference shall proceed to choose its President and Secretary.

4. The Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the person nominated to the office of President and the person nominated to the office of Secretary by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference (1899, p. 242).

5. If the Legal Conference shall at any time negative either of the nominations of the preceding Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister for the office in question; and the result of that nomination shall be submitted to the decision of the Legal Conference.

6. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of President be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of President in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

7. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of Secretary be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of Secretary in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

8. If, in the event of the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of the President, the Minister nominated by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference to the office of Secretary should be chosen to be President of the Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall nominate another Minister by ballot vote to the office of Secretary of the Conference, and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

APPENDIX XVIII.

ORDER AND FORM OF THE BUSINESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

The Conference adopts the following Order and Form of Business, subject to such modifications as may hereafter be found necessary or convenient.

THE WESLEYAN METHODIST TRUST ASSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

The Company was established in 1872, with the sanction and commendation of the Conference, for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by fire. No other class of business is transacted. The Company already insures nearly nine tenths of the entire trust property of the Connexion. The whole of the profits are held in trust for the benefit of the Connexion, and grants, amounting altogether to £18,500, have been made to the Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund. The Reserve Funds of the Company exceed £80,000, being ten times the Annual Premium Income.

The Net Premium Income for the year ending July 15, 1903, has been £7,936 7*s.* 7*d.*, and the Revenue from Interest and Dividends £2,540 17*s.* 4*d.*; total, £10,477 4*s.* 11*d.* The total outlay for Losses, Expenses, etc., amounted to £3,822 18*s.* 6*d.*; and the Grant to the Worn Out Ministers' Fund, to £1,800.

N.B.—The ministers in Departments, and those without Pastoral charge, are not included in the above Numbers and Assessments.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST MINISTERS AND PROBATIONERS

IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND ON THE COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS

UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

1. The figures in the first column mark the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuit denote the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the year of annual appointment.

2. This list has been compiled for the purpose of convenient reference; no pains have been spared to ensure accuracy, but it is not to be considered official.

"BUCKEYE"

FOLDING (OBLONG) BATH CABINET.

M. J. CHARLTON,

59, Frederick Street, Sunderland,

Is appointed General Agent for the sale of the "BUCKEYE" (Oblong) Folding Bath Cabinet.

Can be used for Turkish, Vapour, Spirits, and Medicated Baths. Refreshing and invigorating, Summer or Winter.

In the selection and purchase of a Bath Cabinet a few things ought to be borne in mind. The measurements, adaptation, texture, safety, and price. In all these and in other respects we believe the "Buckeye" Cabinet really unequalled in the market. See our Descriptive Circulars, sent free on application.

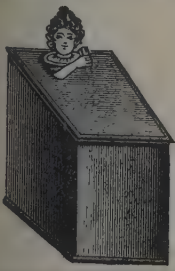
The Heater is excellent, free from smoke and soot.

On receipt of P.O. 20/10, M. J. C. will forward "Buckeye" (Oblong) Cabinet, with Heater, Carriage Paid, to nearest Railway Station.

PERSONAL TESTIMONY.

From the Rev. J. GREGORY MANTLE:—"Ministers know full well that a sense of physical fitness has much to do with the success of their Sunday work. 'Do everything,' says Bishop Phillips Brooks, in his lectures on Preaching, 'that can keep your vitality at its fullest.' For a long time I have proved the advantage of a Saturday night Vapour Bath. I have a distinct sense of loss when it is omitted. It rests the tired brain, it conduces refreshing sleep, and it imparts a sense of freshness which makes Preaching a delight. It has been a discovery to me, and I gladly pass it on to others."

London: 10, Taviton Street, Gordon Square, W.C.



From the Rev. ISAAC LEVINSON, Secretary for the British Society for the Propagation of the Gospel among the Jews:—"I am glad to inform you that having tried the 'Buckeye' (Oblong) Bath Cabinet, we have found it a great success. It is a luxury that no one should be without, and I especially commend it to Ministers to whom a Turkish Bath at home would not only be a refreshment, but would prove a real help and preparation for hard work, and the price of yours is such as to make it practicable for those whose means are limited to possess one."

THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Bible House—146, Queen Victoria Street, London.
President—The Marquis of Northampton.
Secretaries—Rev. J. H. Ritson, M.A., and Rev. A. Taylor, M.A.

THIS Society has been the direct or indirect instrument of issuing the Scriptures in over 360 languages and dialects. Translations and revisions are now in progress under its auspices in over 100 languages and dialects. It constitutes the chief Arsenal from which every Foreign Mission draws weapons and supplies for the Holy War. The Wesleyan Missionary Societies of Great Britain and her Colonies draw on it for versions of Scripture for over 40 Languages. Its own 850 Colporteurs, employed in some 30 different foreign countries, sold over 1,890,000 copies of the Scriptures last year. Moreover, it maintained 650 Native Christian Bible-women in the East in connection with nearly 50 different Missionary Organisations.

During the year 1902–1903 the Issues of the Society amounted to 997,720 Bibles, 1,491,887 Testaments, and 3,454,168 Portions or separate books of the Bible—a total of 5,943,775 copies. To celebrate the Centenary, it is proposed to raise a Fund of at least 250,000 Guineas. This Fund will be devoted chiefly to increasing the staff of Colporteurs and Bible-women in all parts of the world, opening New Agencies, and issuing versions of the Scriptures in languages into which nothing yet has been translated.

BIOGRAPHICAL, GEOGRAPHICAL, HISTORICAL & DOCTRINAL.

Edited by Rev. C. RANDOLPH BARNES, D.D.

In preparing the book the author has kept before his mind the following features which must be possessed by every good Encyclopedia :—

1. FULNESS AND ACCURACY. The range of strictly Bible topics in this Encyclopedia is most extensive, and in order to secure accuracy the works of distinguished and recent writers have been consulted.

2. EASE OF REFERENCE. Frequently one consults an Encyclopedia to find information on only a single point, and does not care, or has not time, to read the entire article. To aid in this matter of ready reference a systematic and uniform division of articles has been adopted, each division being indicated by prominent type.

3. PROPER CONDENSATION. Every effort has been made to keep the book within a reasonable and handy size by avoiding mere discussion and the repetition in several articles of the same material. This has enabled the editor to give very full information in a volume of a comparatively small size, and all the material is made available by cross references, which are indicated in a very simple manner.

4. ILLUSTRATIONS. The pictures have been carefully selected, not for purposes of ornamentation, but only as they serve to illustrate. Besides a number of full-page illustrations there are 300 in the text. The illustrations to the article "The Jewish Temple" were made from photographs of a model erected under the supervision of the editor.

SOME PRESS OPINIONS.

"Containing much in comparatively brief space, giving in concise form and popular terms all that most readers of the Bible are concerned to know."—Critical Review.

"The work is just such a one as the intelligent layman would like to have at his elbow when reading his Bible."—Glasgow Herald.

"We should like to see this wonderfully cheap but complete aid to the Bible student in the hands of every Methodist local preacher."—Methodist Times.

"This is a handy and useful lexicon of biblical knowledge."—The Scotsman.

"Sound in teaching, judicious in spirit."—Hastings Mail.

"An invaluable aid to all concerned in expounding the scriptures."—Birmingham Daily Gazette.

"We hasten to give this book our cordial recommendation. The type is remarkably clear, the illustrations effective, the plan excellent. . . . The doctrine is Methodistically sound. Would make a capital present to a young local preacher."—Local Preacher's Magazine.

THIS BOOK WILL BE OF GREAT VALUE TO SABBATH SCHOOL TEACHERS, AND SHOULD FIND A PLACE IN THE LIBRARY OF EVERY BIBLE STUDENT.

Some Recent Fernley Lectures.

Spiritual Religion: A Study of the Relation of Facts to Faith. By Rev. JOHN O. FASSETT. Demy 8vo. Cloth, 3s.

"We could not name a better summary of the freshest thought on the Possibility and Nature of Spiritual Religion. . . . Professor Fassett has thoroughly mastered recent speculation on the subject. . . . he has gathered much valuable material. This he sifts and criticises so deftly and gives his own opinions so lucidly, that even on this abstruse subject the simplest may run and read."—Critical Review.

Christianity and the Nineteenth Century. By CHARLES JOSEPH LITTLE, D.D., LL.D., President Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Illinois, U.S.A. Second Thousand. Paper, 1s.; cloth, 2s.

"Wide reading and freshness of thought are conspicuous. . . . He carefully develops his whole argument with a wealth of allusion and illustration which makes his lecture very interesting and stimulating reading."—Literary World.

The Evangelical Succession; or, the Spiritual Lineage of the Christian Church and Ministry. By THOMAS F. LOCKYER, B.A. Demy 8vo. Paper, 3s. 6d.; cloth, 2s. 6d.

"A most scholarly and well-carried out. . . . cannot fail to help to clear the minds of men from the confusion of thought which is at present so common."—The British Weekly.

The Spiritual Principle of the Atonement as a Satisfaction made to God for the Sins of the World. By J. SCOTT LIDGETT, M.A., Warden of the Bermondsey Settlement. Third Thousand. Demy 8vo., xxvii+389 pp. 5s.

"It is with great satisfaction that we welcome an able and orthodox treatment of the doctrine of the Atonement from a Methodist theologian. Mr. Lidgett is a competent scholar, an acute thinker, and a clear writer. He has handled his subject in a truly scientific manner."—The British Weekly.

The Theology of Modern Fiction. By T. G. SELBY. Third Thousand. Demy 8vo. Paper 2s.; cloth, 3s.

"Mr. Selby manages to combine the treatment of his subject extensive and accurate knowledge and a fine literary touch. His appreciation of the teachings of the writers with whom he deals is done with remarkable care, and his lucidity of style and felicity of illustration are conspicuous throughout."—Leeds Mercury.

Christian Doctrine and Morals Viewed in their Connexion. By GEORGE G. FINDLAY, D.D. Third Thousand. Demy 8vo. Paper, 2s., cloth, 3s.

The Credentials of the Gospel. A Statement of the Reason of the Christian Hope. By JOSEPH AGAR BEET, D.D. Sixth Thousand. Demy 8vo. Paper, 1s. 6d.; cloth, 2s. 6d.

"However much read in apologetic literature anyone is, he will find much to interest and more to consider in the chapters which deal with the resurrection and the miraculous. At this point Professor Beet makes a distinct advance in the argument, and deserves the thanks of all who are interested in the defence of Christianity. The book is throughout written in an admirable style."—Dr. MARCUS DODS in the Expositor.

The Christian Conscience. A Contribution to Christian Ethics. By WILLIAM F. LOFTHOUSE, M.A., D.D. Third Thousand. Demy 8vo. Paper, 2s., cloth, 3s.

"Acute, learned, and interesting. . . . Treats a large subject entirely without superfluity, and yet in popular style."—Scotsman.

On the Difference between Physical and Moral Law. By WILLIAM ARTHUR, M.A. Sixth Thousand. Demy 8vo. Cloth, 3s.
